Oglala Sioux named BIA Head

Echo Hawk names Michael S. Black to BIA Director Post

Source: Dept. of Interior

WASHINGTON, D.C. – Assistant Secretary-Indian Affairs Larry Echo Hawk announced on Monday, April 26 that he has named Michael S. Black as Director of the Bureau of Indian Affairs.

Black, an enrolled member of the Oglala Sioux Tribe in South Dakota, had been serving as the acting BIA Director since March 18, 2010. He takes over from Jerold L. "Jerry" Gidner who is now the Special Counselor in the Office of the Assistant Secretary-Indian Affairs. Black's appointment became effective on April 25, 2010.

"Mike Black has served Indian Country and the nation as a dedicated public servant for many years," Echo Hawk said. "I will rely on him as part of my senior management team as we move forward on initiatives to improve public safety and employment opportunities in tribal communities, promote tribal self-determination through energy and economic development, and honor the trust responsibility."

"I am pleased with Assistant Secretary Echo Hawk's efforts to strengthen his management team with the selection of Michael Black as BIA Director," Interior Secretary Ken Salazar said. "I am confident that this change will enable Assistant Secretary Echo Hawk to continue moving forward in carrying out our initiatives to improve the lives of the American Indian and Alaska Native people."

Prior to becoming acting BIA director, Black had served since July 20, 2008, as Regional Director of the BIA's Great Plains Regional Office in Aberdeen, S.D., following an eight-month appointment starting in June 2007 as the acting regional director. The office oversees 12 agencies serving 16 federally recognized tribes in Nebraska, North Dakota and South Dakota.

Black began his federal career in 1987 with the BIA's Aberdeen Area Office (now the Great Plains Regional Office) as General Engineer in the Branch of Facilities Management. From 1992 to 2001, he worked in the BIA's Billings Area Office (now the Rocky Mountain Regional Office) as Regional Facility Manager where he was responsible for facilities construction and operations and maintenance programs. In December 2001, he was named Chief of the Office's Division of Engineering, where he was responsible for regional facility management, road construction, and road maintenance and safety programs. In January 2004, Black was promoted to the Rocky Mountain Regional Office's post of Deputy Regional Director-Indian Services, where he was responsible for the management and oversight of Road Construction, Road Maintenance, Tribal Government Services, Credit, Housing, Self-Determination, Social Services, Safety, and Environmental and Cultural Resources Management programs.

Black graduated from Aberdeen Central High School in 1982. He received a B.S. degree in Mechanical Engineering from the South Dakota School of Mines & Technology in 1986.

"I am deeply honored to have been offered this opportunity to lead the Bureau of Indian Affairs," Black said. "I want to express my appreciation to Assistant Secretary Echo Hawk for his confidence and to affirm my commitment to strengthening the BIA's mission of service to Indian Country."

The Director of the Bureau of Indian Affairs is responsible for managing the BIA's day-to-day operations through four offices – Indian Services, Justice Services, Trust Services and Field Operations – which administer or fund tribally based infrastructure, law enforcement, social services, tribal governance, natural and energy resources and trust management programs for 564 federally recognized American Indian and Alaska Native tribes in 33 states through 12 regional offices and 85 agencies.

I-40 officially re-opens after major Rock Slide

By SCOTT MCKIE B.P.
ONE FEATHER STAFF

HAYWOOD COUNTY – It's open! The portion of Interstate I-40, closed since Oct. 25, 2009 due to a major rock slide, is now open for traffic. The interstate officially re-open on Sunday, April 25 at 6pm, and a ceremony was held to mark the event at the Welcome Center near the North Carolina – Tennessee border in Haywood County on Tuesday, April 27.

NCDOT related the total cost for the project is around $12.9 million and officials said in a statement that the federal government would "reimburse" the state for almost all of that amount.

"I want to thank everyone who's worked on this project," said Jon Nance, NCDOT chief engineer who called it a "very complex type project."

He went on to say, "This project was extremely challenging given the terrain and the high traffic volumes that depend on this route."

Conrad Burrell, NC Board of Transportation, commented, "I know firsthand the hardship the citizens and businesses of this area have endured as we've worked to reopen this highway. I-40 is a lifeline for this region, and it was greatly impacted during some of the busiest times of the year."

Mary Jane Ferguson, director of EBCI Marketing and Promotion was especially happy to see the interstate reopened.

"We are delighted the section of I-40 that has been closed since October 2009 has now reopened," she said. "It is especially welcomed at the beginning of seasonal visits to Western North Carolina and to Cherokee. Having I-40 West open will allow the leisure travel to choose the closest route to come visit all that Cherokee, NC has to offer. We look forward to those visits to Cherokee. We want our visitors to know they will be greeted with a warm welcome as it has been a long winter."

According to the NCDOT, "55,000 cubic yards of rock were removed comprising 7,000 truck loads of material which would cover about 37 football fields in a 1-foot layer of rock."

A total of 540 rock bolts were installed to help stabilize the area.

Trucks hauling wide loads (those over 12 feet wide) are still restricted from the route. According to information from the NCDOT, "Wide loads traveling on I-40 West will continue to use the detour in place since the road was closed: take Exit 53B (I-240 West) in Asheville and follow I-240 West to Exit 4A (I-26 West). Follow I-26 West to I-81 South in Tennessee, back to I-40."

It has always been my personal policy not to engage in any negative campaigning. It's important to me to be positive and to run on my record and with integrity. That is still my policy and I won't spend time discussing any other candidates. However, many of my supporters have urged me to respond to some of the allegations that are circulating through the County and have appeared in the local media.

- The Jackson County Board of Commissioners asked for, paid for, and received the results for the Mercer Group Study for all County employees. The Commissioners then implemented the recommendations of the Mercer Group for ALL County employees. I do not have the ability or authority to give myself an increase in salary. Salaries in County government are based upon position, responsibilities, education, experience, and years of service. This was a County-wide decision made solely by the Jackson County Board of Commissioners to retain qualified and experienced employees. The County Commissioners are solely responsible for the overall County budget and delegating those funds as they deem appropriate. I will continue to make requests to the Commissioners during the budget process to further expand our resources upon citizens' requests and my own professional evaluations.

- I did get involved in the Strathmore Who's Who Program and did use $1283 of taxpayers dollars for the application fees. I realize my mistake and have paid back in full the total amount to the Jackson County Finance Office out of my own pocket two months ago. Confirmation of this action can be found in the Finance Office's records.

- Unauthorized Substance Taxes are generated by the arrest and conviction of felony drug dealers. 75% comes back to the arresting agency and 25% goes to the State of North Carolina. The General Statutes allow these monies to be used to "deter and investigate drug crimes". I put back into the community what the drug dealers have taken away. All monies are taken from convicted felony drug dealers. Programs that I contributed to were to better the community and support the youth. I have chosen to spend some of this money for youth projects that encourage our young people to take part in healthy activities and for projects in the community. that aren't part of the budget like the Substance Abuse Taskforce, Shop With A Cop Program, Community Watch and Crime Prevention, Life Challenge, Jackson County Little League, Jackson County Youth Sports, Smoky Mountain High School Chorus and Athletics, American Legion Baseball, Blue Ridge School Athletics, Pumpkin Patch, Crime Stoppers, Refuse To Be A Victim, and numerous methamphetamine seminars just to name a few since 2003. These programs have been supported and been successful for the benefit of thousands of citizens in Jackson County. I will continue to support these organizations and others as a preventative and intervention method of law enforcement.

- The money used for carpet was to replace worn and damaged carpet in the entire Sheriff Office which includes offices, roll call rooms, hallways, etc. Using the drug tax money saved the County taxpayers $20,000. Again, this is drug dealers' money taken from our community and used for the benefit of its citizens. All offices in the Sheriff's Office houses employees who are involved in drug investigations. This facility is also utilized every day by citizens of Jackson County.

- The District Attorney's Office asked the SBI by letter for an independent objective investigation into a County Employee who held the position of a County Department Head to avoid a conflict of interest. The SBI agreed but declined because of the shortage of manpower available in Western North Carolina. The Sheriff's Office did investigate and charged him once and indicted him twice before the Grand Jury after conferring with the District Attorney's Office. After the investigation was completed by the Sheriff's Office and the case turned over to the District Attorney's Office for prosecution, this individual pled guilty in court and was sentenced.

- TAAS (Taxpayers Against Ashe for Sheriff) is a local political action committee who registered through the Jackson County Board of Elections. It consists of 3 contributors – David Finn (Owner of Blue Ridge Public Safety), Gary Ramey (a contractor who operates in Cashiers), and Jeff Scott (a private company police officer who works for David Finn). David Finn is the same person who has sued me and the citizens of Jackson County since October 2007. Depite Finn's contentions, I believe the lawsuit was filed because the sheriffs in all 100 counties of NC opposed the General Assembly's Company Police Modernization Act. This act would have allowed private and for-profit company security companies to enforce motor vehicle laws and run radar on U.S. and State highways. Numerous citizens of Jackson County expressed their opposition to me as well. As a result of this opposition, based upon public outcry in Jackson County and as well as across the state, David Finn filed a lawsuit against me as a retaliatory act and continues to do so with his major role of involvement in this political action committee.

- A joint investigation between the Jackson County Sheriff's Office and Federal Law Enforcement Agencies of the ATF and DEA was conducted in the southern end of Jackson County approximately 4 years ago. This investigation led to the arrest of an individual in Cashiers for trafficking Crystal Methamphetamine and possessing weapons of mass destruction. The case was adopted by the U.S. Attorney. This individual was convicted and sentenced to 22 years in a Federal Penitentiary in Indiana. Assets through Federal Forfeitures were seized and confiscated; one of which was a 2003 Harley Davidson motorcycle. The Marshall's Service took possession of that motorcycle and it sat in the weather in a federal impoundment lot for 18 months in Fayetteville, North Carolina. It was later turned over to the Jackson County Sheriff's Office as their portion of that forfeiture. $625.60 was needed to restore the motorcycle to its original condition from when it was first seized after it sat in the elements for 1 ½ years. The motorcycle was used in undercover investigations in Western North Carolina through mutual aid agreements. Numerous drug dealers were arrested and convicted as a result of this multi-agency drug investigation in the 16 Western Counties of North Carolina. After the investigation was completed, I rode this motorcycle in numerous memorial and benefit fundraising events as a representative of the Sheriff's Office to solicit donations for those who had financial and medical needs. This investment was sold on Ebay after less than 15 months of official and legitimate use for a profit of almost $10,000 which went back in the County's General Fund.

After politically motivated mud slinging, I have continued to stand strong on behalf of the citizens of Jackson County for which I work. I am saddened that my family, officers, friends, and the good citizens of Jackson County have been so overwhelmed by negative campaigns and I won't be discussing any of these issues further. Therefore, I am now setting the record straight and moving forward.

A High School Archaeological Field School, designed for EBCI high school students entering 9th grade – 12th grade in the 2010-11 school year or those students who graduated in 2010, is set for July 19-30. That program is sponsored by the University of Tennessee and Great Smoky Mountains National Park in conjunction with the EBCI THPO.

“I am especially committed to seeing these programs succeed this year and in years to come so that Tribal students might be inspired by the long and honorable history of their ancestors,” said Melissa Crisp who serves as the Parks as Classrooms Coordinator for the Great Smoky Mountains Association. “There are so few Cherokee tribal members in professions related to history and archaeology that Cherokee history is being left to be discovered and written by those of us who honor the history, but do not have it in our blood.”

Crisp, whose husband Josh is an EBCI tribal member, is an historian by profession and previously taught a Cherokee History class at Robbinsville High School. Through her involvement, she came in contact with the EBCI THPO which set the process of the program in motion.

HERE'S WHY I'M VOTING FOR SHERIFF JIMMY ASHE...

NATHAN MEDLIN

"Jimmy Ashe is a great person and he shows a lot of leadership. I really respect his commitment to educating the youth and to reaching out to them. He always goes out of his way to help everyone."

CHARLES WINCHESTER

"I know Jimmy Ashe as a person and as a Sheriff and see him involved with children and family. On both fronts he has my total respect and admiration. We recently relocated to Jackson County and have come to know Jimmy very quickly through sports and our family businesses in the county. I count him as a friend. Although I come from a very conservative Republican family – I will vote for Jimmy Ashe."

DARRELL MATHIS

"I support Jimmy Ashe because I've known him for such a long time and he has the same values I do. He pays attention to young kids and the environment they have to grow up in. He has increased the drug arrests and is years ahead of his time in preparing Jackson County for future growth and its problems."

DONALD CLAWSON

"The reason I support Jimmy Ashe for Sheriff is because we go way back. I was the EMS Director the first night Jimmy was dispatching under Fred Holcombe's administration. He's the right man for the job. He's had the experience from the bottom all the way to the top."

MICHELLE COOPER

"I'm supporting Jimmy Ashe because he's so proactive in reducing drug use and getting drugs off the street. He's been a friend of the family for years and I've known him since he was a deputy. It meant a lot to me through a difficult time that he always asked about me and let me know he cared."

RANDY CABB

"Sheriff Ashe has been a friend for over 30 years and I respect his honesty and dedication to the Office of the Sheriff. I believe he makes sound decisions that have helped the Sheriff's Office to grow to meet the needs of the county. His guidance has been strong and his stewardship will serve the county ten years from now. If we need Jimmy in Savannah or Caney Fork or anywhere else in the county, he will be there."

SCOTT FARMER

"I've known Jimmy for a long time. We grew up together here in Jackson County. He's an honest family man – like I am. He has integrity as a person and as a Sheriff. He's done a lot of good – cracking down on breaking and entering and keeping it under control at a time when people are down and out and do things they might not do all the time. He's also cracked down on Meth labs and drug problems in the county."

MICHAEL AND CRYSTAL JOHNSON

"We support Sheriff Jimmy Ashe because he is doing a great job in our County. He has been very aggressive with arresting drug dealers and getting them out of our community. He is a great role model for the children and works hard to provide ways for them to be involved in positive activities. We feel secure knowing that Sheriff Ashe is being proactive with dealing with the negative forces that can affect our kids and our community."

TROY AMMONS AND FAMILY

"We've known Jimmy Ashe for several years and been around him enough to know the type of person he is. He is honest and dependable and the best person we have for the job. His values are important to him, both at work and at home."

AUDREY TRITT

"I have known Jimmy Ashe since he was a young boy, a student, and a professional law enforcement agent. He will continue to be a good sheriff because he is professional. He works well with other county, state, and federal police officers. He has the county's best interest at heart because he is one of us. He is a credit to Jackson County."

DR. JOHN BUNN

"I've been involved with law enforcement since 1953 in Chaplaincy and have served with lots of fine principled officers. But I've never served with a law enforcement officer of any standing who was more concerned about his own men and the people of the community than Jimmy Ashe."

JARED DAY

"There are many reason I will support Jimmy Ashe. Even before he was the Sheriff he supported the youth. When I played football at Smoky Mountain High and in county youth sports, he was there as a law enforcement officer, as a friend, and sometimes he was like a coach. Jimmy Ashe always made a good impression and worked as a positive role model for young people."

JEAN ENSLEY

"My first knowledge of Jimmy Ashe was when I had been mistreated and I called the Sheriff at home after midnight. He was kind, gracious and understanding and solved my problem before 7:00 in the morning. I couldn't love him more if he were my own son."

SAMANTHA HAYES

"I support Jimmy Ashe because he takes his personal time to help people individually and he is supportive of programs that try to better Jackson County and all of society."

TREVOR ROBINSON

"I came to Western Carolina University from Chapel Hill. I met Sheriff Ashe and have been impressed with him. He is very involved with WCU. He has spoken many times to student groups and worked with us personally and professionally. He wants to make sure students are safe and informed about issues that will continue to make our experience at the University a good one and help us stay out of trouble. I am registered to vote in Jackson County and will support Jimmy Ashe. He is the type of person we need in leadership anywhere."

VANGIE STEPHENS

"Sheriff Jimmy Ashe will get my vote because he supports our children and schools. He started the 'Shop With A Cop' program in Jackson County. He is doing a great job battling the drug problem. I like his updates to the public on radio and in the newspaper. He speaks to me and is always open for suggestions to make the Sheriff's Office more efficient and effective."

ROGER FRIZZELL

"I have known Sheriff Jimmy Ashe for many years. I believe he is the best and only choice as Sheriff for Jackson County. I know him to be an honest and fair man who has helped our community become a safer place to live and work. I was involved many years in sports with my sons. I know how important it is to keep our kids involved in positive activities so I'm especially proud of the support he gives the youth of this County."

SHANE BURCH

"I'm supporting the sheriff because I just like him. I've known him all my life. Our children play ball together and he supports the youth in the county pretty well. I think he does a great job."

BROOKE STIRLING

"Jimmy Ashe is an outstanding Sheriff as well as a friend and a professional law official who treats everyone equally. He is a family man that makes a difference in our County."

ROD DAVIS

"I have known Sheriff Jimmy Ashe all my life. He has always been a good friend to me and given me good advice when I asked him for it. I admire him for doing good things with the youth of this County. Jimmy is a good spokesman as the Sheriff of this County and I will continue to support him."

"This active involvement brought our program to the attention of the Tribal Historic Preservation Office and led to an invitation for our students to participate in an archaeological field school in 2007 and 2008," said Crisp. "We were unable to secure funding for the program in 2009, but we have once again been blessed with generous grants and can not only offer the opportunity to Tribal students, but can also offer a stipend ($600) to ease the burden of a two-week commitment for those who might otherwise miss this opportunity for need of summer work."

According to Crisp, the teachers will be assisting with work at a site known as Oconaluftee Fields and the students will be at a known Cherokee site at Smoke-mont.

Crisp said the Teachers Workshop is funded by a grant from Parks as Classrooms along with monetary support from Toyota, the Friends of the Smokies, and the Great Smoky Mountains Association. She related the High School Program is funded by a Federal Challenge grant with matching funds from the Great Smoky Mountains National Park and in-kind donations from the University of Tennessee.

To apply for this program or for more information, contact Melissa Crisp (865) 436-5076, (828) 735-2429 (cell) or melissacrisp@sevier.org.

first has been published, a very insightful look at early Cherokee contact that has not to date been brought to light.(funded by the CN)

There were many joint resolutions passed supporting Women's Abuse Prevention, Diabetes, Education,as well as the Remembrance-Removal tour, and support for the Sequoyah birthplace in Vanore, Tn.

There was a motion to include the United Keetowah Band of Cherokee in future Joint Councils of the EBCI and CN, as it is the remaining of the three fedrally recognized Bands of the Cherokee...we are after all...Cherokee by blood.They are already involved in many of our joint efforts including support of our threatened Kituwah viewshed.Which, there was an update on this issue by our tribal preservation officer, their are talks in the works for a viable solution with Duke Power, we have the support of Swain County and their commissioners and many neighboring families as well as Cherokee of all 3 affiliates across the nation.We shall perservere!

I am SURE our council and Chief are ALL active in preserving its' sanctity, please stay in touch with your respective council representatives to ensure its' preservation.

Well, the joint council adjourned after many thanks for the gracious hospitality..and emphasis on FOOD..if they all look heavier this week, we know why! I was a bit dismayed that the room was amost empty, a bit of disrespect I found, even some of the council members of both nations.I realize travel was scheduled for many but at the forfeit of attendance? Perhaps the joint meeting should be held in the middle of the week with functions before and after the council itself so that attendance is evident, for the entire council.I only noted it as a bit disrespectful, to end an important and significant meeting to an empty room...maybe its' just me.

I encourage a live feed through our tribal website, for all of us enrolled members who live off the rez, of our tribal council meetings. We DO have the technology today. I did note that the CN has representatives (2) on their council representing those CN members who do not live in their 14 county constituency..something council might consider since only 1/3 of our enrolled members actually LIVE on the reservation, but our numbers are included for federal funding, etc. Two more council members representing those scattered across the country, could have some informative, outside-the- box input! They could, conceivably, "attend" all meetings through a "live" feed..this technology has sparked some food for thought!

At 2:36 the 2010 Joint Council held in Tulsa Okl.at the CN Hard Rock Casino facility was adjourned...

thats' all folks...wado..sgi..

Recipes by Keahana...

Keahana Lambert-Sluder is the Administrative Program Coordinator for the EBCI Health and Medical Division.

Baked Chicken with Onions & Leeks

Baking pieces of chicken is one of the easiest ways to put a meal on the table for your family. This mustard-glazed chicken is roasted on a bed of sliced onions, leeks and garlic that you can serve alongside it. When using a combination of thighs, drumsticks and breasts, cut each breast in half crosswise to make pieces about the size of an average chicken thigh. And if you buy whole legs, separate the drumsticks and thighs. When all the pieces are about the same size, they'll all cook at the same rate. A nonreactive bowl or pan—stainless-steel, enamel-coated or glass—is necessary when cooking with acidic foods, such as lemon, to prevent the food from reacting with the pan. Reactive pans, such as aluminum and cast-iron, can impart an off color and/or off flavor.

Serves 6

Ingredients

- 2 cups thinly sliced onions
- 1 cup thinly sliced and washed leek, white and light green part only
- 4 cloves garlic, thinly sliced
- 3 tablespoons extra-virgin olive oil, divided
- 2 teaspoons fresh thyme leaves
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 2 1/2-3 pounds bone-in chicken pieces (thighs, drumsticks and/or breasts), skin removed, trimmed (see Tip)
- 1/4 cup Dijon mustard
- 2 teaspoons minced shallot
- 1 1/2 teaspoons chopped fresh rosemary
- 1 teaspoon reduced-sodium soy sauce
- 3/4 teaspoon freshly ground pepper

Preparation

1. Preheat oven to 400°F.
2. Toss onions, leek, garlic, 2 tablespoons oil, thyme and salt in a large bowl until the vegetables are well coated. Spread the mixture in a nonreactive 9-by-13-inch baking dish (see Tip). Place the chicken pieces on the vegetables. Bake for 10 minutes.
3. Whisk mustard, shallot, rosemary, soy

Wear a Helmet!

SUBMITTED By HEALTHY CHEROKEE

The single most effective safety device available to reduce head injury and death from bicycle crashes is a helmet.

• Make it a rule: every time you and your child ride a bike, wear a bicycle helmet that meets the safety standards developed by the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission.

• If your child is reluctant to wear a helmet, try letting him or her choose his own.

Helmet fit is important.

• Make sure the helmet fits and your child knows how to put it on correctly. A helmet should sit on top of the head in a level position, and should not rock forward, backward or side to side. The helmet straps must always be buckled but not too tightly.

Try the Eyes, Ears and Mouth Test:

• EYES check: Position the helmet on your head. Look up and you should see the bottom rim of the helmet. The rim should be one to two finger-widths above the eyebrows.

• EARS check: Make sure the straps of the helmet form a "V" under your ears when buckled. The strap should be snug but comfortable.

• MOUTH check: Open your mouth as wide as you can. Do you feel the helmet hug your head? If not, tighten those straps and make sure the buckle is flat against your skin.

Use different helmets for different activities.

• Children should always wear a helmet for all wheeled sports activities. A properly-fitted bike helmet is just as effective when riding a scooter, roller skating or inline skating. However, when skateboarding and long boarding, make sure your child wears a skateboarding helmet.

Proper equipment fit and maintenance are also important for safety.

• Ensure proper bike fit by bringing the child along when shopping for a bike. Buy a bicycle that is the right size for the child, not one he will grow into. When sitting on the seat, the child's feet should be able to touch the ground.

• Make sure the reflectors are secure, brakes work properly, gears shift smoothly and tires are tightly secured and properly inflated.

Always model and teach proper behavior. Learn the rules of the road, and obey all traffic laws.

• Ride on the right side of the road, with traffic, not against. Stay as far to the right as possible.

• Use appropriate hand signals.

• Respect traffic signals, stopping at all stop signs and stop lights.

• Stop and look left, right and left again before entering a street or crossing an intersection. Look back and yield to traffic coming from behind before turning left.

Adult supervision of child cyclists is essential until you are sure a child has good traffic skills and judgment.

• Cycling should be restricted to off-roads (e.g. sidewalks and paths) until age 10.

• Children should be able to demonstrate riding compet ence and knowledge of the rules of the road before cycling with traffic.

Children should not ride a bicycle when it's dark, in the fog or in other low-visibility conditions.

• If riding at dusk, dawn or in the evening is unavoidable, use a light on the bike and make sure it has reflectors as well.

• Wear clothes and accessories that have retro reflective materials to improve biker visibility to motorists.

Sexual Assault: Know the Facts

Rape and sexual assault are traumatic experiences that may interrupt your life at home, at work, and at school, affecting your relationships with friends, family, and coworkers. You have survived, and now you can begin to recover. Although this process is often slow and confusing, with understanding and persistence you can accomplish a great deal. You have control over how you recover.

The first step in recovery is to know the facts. "Sexual assault" is a general term that includes: rape, incest, child molestation, marital rape, date rape, sexual harassment, sodomy, sexual abuse, voyeurism, and indecent exposure. Sexual assault is a violent act committed primarily by a perpetrator who needs to feel powerful and in control by forcing someone else to participate in unwanted sexual activity. Often, the victim fears for his or her life or physical well-being and feels that there is no choice but to do what the attacker wants. Submission does not equal consent. If you submit, it does not mean that you agreed to or accepted the situation. A victim is never responsible for being sexually assaulted. The responsibility for the assault lies with the attacker.

Sexual assault can cause significant trauma and disrupt your physical and emotional health. Your recovery path will take many stages, but the important thing is to take care of yourself. Many rape survivors find that receiving medical attention helps them to regain a sense of control over their bodies. Many rape survivors feel isolated in the aftermath of the assault. In order to reduce those feelings, reach out for support to those who are close to you: call family members, friends, or a program such as the EBCI DV/SA Program who has victim advocates available. It might help you feel better to have someone to talk to, and you might want people around you so that you feel safe. Consider professional support or counseling. Having someone to talk to about how you are feeling may help you to deal with the emotions you are experiencing. Additionally, a counselor can help you express your needs to others and learn how to get those needs met.

Your response to an assault may cover a wide range of physical and emotional symptoms, even some that may not seem to result directly from the attack. Learning to recognize these responses will help you gain control of them. You may experience these symptoms immediately or later in your life, or you may never experience any of them. Every survivor responds differently. Some symptoms include: flashbacks, nightmares, fatigue, shortness of breath, involuntary shaking, fear, grief, depression, suicidal thoughts, feeling dirty, anxiety, irritability, shame, and anger. In addition, these symptoms, among others, could be signs of Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD). PTSD can occur when people experience terrifying situations that they cannot control. These symptoms can intrude into your daily life and prevent you from working, maintaining relationships, or completing everyday tasks.

Sexual assault can change your feelings about yourself and those around you. You may not feel the way you did before the assault—physically, emotionally, socially, or sexually. Counseling can help you deal with these issues and aid you in your recovery. Individual counseling sessions with a supportive counselor can help you identify issues you would like to resolve surrounding the assault. Together, you will develop appropriate and attainable goals for yourself. Group counseling will give you the opportunity to share your feelings with other survivors, and although each person recovers at a different pace, group counseling provides an environment in which survivors can share their experiences along with their techniques for recovery. Many group members find inspiration and motivation in the stories of other victims and get a unique kind of support that helps them return to the lives they led before the assault.

If you would like more information, someone to talk to, or need support, please contact the EBCI DV/SA Program at 554-6830.

Cherokee Boy creates Comic Book

Samuel Eason Esquivel (right), an EBCI tribal member shows the comic book he created entitled Snail boy and the Attack of the Dumb Donkey to Qualla Public Library manager Robin Swayney.

Having always enjoyed reading and drawing, Samuel Eason Esquivel, an EBCI tribal member, began drawing his own comic books in the 2nd grade with one of his friends, Brennan Forest.

Now years later, Eason recently made a copy of his comic book available for other kids. Titled Snail Boy and the Attack of the Dumb Donkey, it tells about the town hero Snail Boy saving the day.

When asked why he writes comic books Eason had this to say, "I think it is fun to use my imagination and I like to put it on paper".

One of his inspirations is comic book legend, Stan Lee. Eason one day hopes to go to college and become a great comic book writer like him. Stan Lee is responsible for The Incredible Hulk, Spider-Man, The Avengers, The X-Men among other comic book characters. Eason said that he hopes other kids read his comic book and enjoy it. He has hopes to do more comic books in the future. He is currently working on the next adventure of Snail Boy that he is sure many kids will like.

"I like drawing and using my imagination. I hope kids like my book. One day I want to go to college and become the next Stan Lee. He does great work and everybody does movies about his comic characters. One day that is what they will do with Snail Boy" stated Eason Esquivel. A copy of Eason's Comic book is at the Qualla Boundary Public Library. We would like to encourage Eason to keep up the great work.

Samuel Eason Esquivel, 10 years old, known as Eason, is the son of Carl Esquivel and Dawn Russell. He is the oldest of his siblings: twin little brothers, Tanis and Tanin, and sister, Deliah. They all attend Cherokee Elementary School. Eason is currently in the fourth grade where he is in the Horizons program.

I am Radford Franks and I am seeking the position of Jackson County Sheriff, as a Democrat. I lived in Cherokee for 12 years and now live in the Savannah Community of Jackson County. I have been a bounty hunter and bail bondsman for the past 10 years. I'm very familiar with how law enforcement and the judicial system functions.

I am committed to establishing communications within the various communities throughout the county. I plan to do this by placing deputies in select areas of the county to patrol communities, talk with residents about their concerns or just hear comments about what is happening within their community. We need county government that is in touch with the people. I am not saying I can solve all your problems, I can't.

But I am saying I will meet with residents of each community to discuss the problems or concerns they have for their community. We will work "together" to resolve these issues. I want to implement a system which will allow me to place as many officers in the communities as necessary to provide the service and protection the residents deserve. I will be a sheriff that is accessible to the people.

I also want to reach out to the youth of this county. I want them to feel they can talk to me openly and honestly. I believe communicating with our youth is essential. We need to instill in our youth the values of honesty and integrity, a good work ethic and strong religious convictions. Our youth is the future of this county, of this state and of our great nation. Let's build on that!

Currently there are not, nor to my knowledge has there ever been, any Native American officers in the Jackson County Sheriff's department. I WILL change that! I will hire minorities.

I will uphold the constitutional rights of ALL the people of Jackson County. I believe everyone deserves fair and equal treatment regardless of race, political views or social level in the county. I will strictly enforce this policy and hold my deputies accountable for their actions. I will require honesty, integrity and professionalism of my administration! If you need our services, one phone call can put us together. If you can't come to us, we will come to you.

I believe in God, family and country. If we adhere to this philosophy, we're on the right path.

If you want a sheriff who will treat you fairly, with dignity and respect, who will give you a voice in this county; then join with me, vote for me on May 4th.

TOGETHER WE CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE !

Mushroom & Leek Galette

Tote this savory tart to potlucks and holiday gatherings. It makes perfect party food because it is easy to eat while you are balancing a glass and grazing at a buffet. Serve as an appetizer or as a vegetarian main dish. To clean leeks: Trim off fuzzy root and dark green stems. With a sharp knife, cut several incisions in the leek's stem end to open it up like a fan. Soak in water for several minutes, then swish to dislodge dirt. Repeat until no grit remains.

Ingredients

Crust

- 3/4 cup whole-wheat pastry flour
- 3/4 cup all-purpose flour
- 1 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 cup 1% cottage cheese
- 1/4 cup canola oil
- 1/4 cup 1% milk
- 1 1/2 teaspoons sugar
- 1 egg mixed with 1 tablespoon water, for glaze

Filling

- 1 tablespoon extra-virgin olive oil
- 2 cups sliced leeks, (about 2 large) (see Tip)
- 12 ounces cremini, or baby bella mushrooms, wiped clean and sliced (6 cups)
- 1 large egg

- 1/3 cup reduced-fat sour cream
- 1/2 teaspoon salt, or to taste
- Freshly ground pepper, to taste
- 1/2 cup scallions, chopped
- 1/4 cup chopped fresh parsley

Preparation

1. To prepare crust: Whisk whole-wheat flour, all-purpose flour, baking powder and salt in a medium bowl. Puree cottage cheese in a food processor. Add oil, milk and sugar; process until smooth. Add the dry ingredients and pulse 4 to 5 times, just until the dough clumps together. Turn out onto a lightly floured surface and knead several times, but do not overwork. Press the dough into a disk, dust with flour and wrap in plastic wrap. Refrigerate for at least 20 minutes.

2. Meanwhile, prepare filling: Heat oil in a large nonstick skillet over medium-low heat. Add leeks and cook, stirring often, until tender, 3 to 5 minutes. (Add water, if necessary, to prevent scorching.) Add mushrooms and increase heat to medium-high; cook, stirring occasionally, until the mushrooms are tender and the liquid has evaporated, 3 to 4 minutes. Let cool.

3. Whisk egg, sour cream, salt and pepper in a large bowl. Add scallions, parsley and the mushroom mixture; toss to coat.

4. To assemble & bake galette: Pre-heat oven to 400°F. Coat a baking sheet with cooking spray.

5. On a lightly floured surface, roll dough into a rough 15-inch circle about 1/4 inch thick. Roll it back over the rolling pin and transfer to the prepared baking sheet. Spread the filling over the dough, leaving a 2-inch border all around. Fold the border up and over the filling to form a rim, pleating as necessary. Brush egg glaze over the rim.

6. Bake the galette until the crust is golden, 25 to 35 minutes. Let cool on the baking sheet on a wire rack for 5 minutes. Slide onto a serving platter and serve hot or at room temperature.

HORNBUCKLE WINS

Tribal Member advances in Bellator MMA Tournament

ONE FEATHER STAFF REPORT

UNCASVILLE, Conn. - Dan "The Handler" Hornbuckle, an EBCI tribal member, advanced to the semifinals of the Bellator XV mixed martial arts tournament by submitting Tyler Stinson in a quarterfinal match on Thursday, April 22. Hornbuckle (20-2) defeated Stinson (16-6) with a triangle choke at the 2:03 mark in the first round.

The welterweight fight was one of several on the card of the tournament being held at the Mohegan Sun.

"Lyman Good was in my place last year, so hopefully he knows that I'm on the path to get him," Hornbuckle said after the fight as Good, the reigning Bellator welterweight champion, looked on from cage-side seats. "I want that title ... I'm coming to get him."

Thursday's submission was more in tune with Hornbuckle's jiu-jitsu style although he can also strike and actually received recognition for a head kick knockout of Akihiro Gono last year which was named Fighting Stances' 2009 Knockout of the Year.

He is scheduled to face Steve Carl in the semifinals of the Bellator XV tournament in Dallas, TX on May 20.

Of that fight, Hornbuckle told fightmagazine.com, "He's (Carl) very relentless. And I'm excited about facing a relentless fighter. It's going to be an interesting training camp. Everything's gotta be big in Texas right?" Hornbuckle says. "Well, so are the match-ups. It's gonna be awesome. I can't wait."

Hornbuckle trains at McVickers Martial Arts Academy and resides in Mahomet, IL with his wife Melody and three daughters.

Cherokee Runners News

SUBMITTED By CHEROKEE RUNNERS

Again the Cherokee Runners had a busy week. Everyone runs independently during the week sometimes on the trail, sometimes on Mingus Mill Trail, Towstring or on the treadmill at the Fitness Center. Wherever the workout, we have a good time.

On Saturday, April 24, several members participated in the Greening Up the Mountains 5K in Sylva: Robin Swimmer, Elnora Thompson, Gerri Grady, Skye Littledave, Chad Bowman and Brian Burgess and his friend Janette. Sarah Wachacha from Cherokee also ran the race. Elnora Thompson came in 2nd in her age group and Brian came in 1st in his. The categories in this race were by age group only which means men and women were grouped together. Congratulations to Elnora & Brian!

The group met on Sunday April 25 at Deep Creek for a run. Some of the group did a 3.4 mile run, some did a 5 miler, and a couple of the guys did 6-7 miles. Those running were: Christi Climbingbear and son-Matthew, Steph & Robin Swimmer, Angel Squirrell, Elnora Thompson, Jimmy Oocumma, Skye Littledave & Chad Bowman, Sean & Gerri Grady, and Brian Driver. After the run, the group grilled hotdogs and hamburgers and enjoyed a very pleasant afternoon.

Some members will be volunteering for the cross country track meet at Cherokee High School on Monday April 26 and on the 27th a speed work session will be presented by Steph Swimmer.

Relay For Life to be held in Cherokee

SUBMITTED By JULIE WILNOTY

The Qualla Boundary has not been known to host a Relay for Life event in recent history, so on Friday, May 14, it will hold the First Annual Relay for Life beginning at 4 o'clock in the evening and lasting until 1 o'clock in morning on May 15 at the old Cherokee High School track.

The Relay for Life is a walk designed to help raise money in order to help find the cure for cancer and to aid those who are currently battling the disease. The Relay does not highlight just one form of cancer, but all. There is a $20 entry fee (plus all the money you can raise). SUBMITTED BY ALAN KEITH

The unveiling of the Wacheesee Town Trail of Tears exhibit is scheduled for Saturday, May 1 at 4:30pm at the Unaka Community Center, 14945 Joe Brown Highway, Unaka, North Carolina. For anyone that is not familiar with Unaka - from downtown Murphy (near the courthouse), travel north on Tennessee Street. Tennessee Street becomes Joe Brown Highway as it leaves town. Follow scenic and winding Joe Brown Highway for just under 15 miles - the community center and the exhibit will be on you left as you come into Unaka. The North Carolina Chapter of the Trail of Tears Association will officiate.

The Unaka Community Development Club has partnered with North Carolina chapter of the Trail of Tears Association as part of their heritage emphasis. After the unveiling, everyone will move into the community center for an open house (new kitchen, new gym floor, remodeled ladies room, new paint, etc.) and to see the first stage of the "Heritage Hallway". On display will be a map of the "Trail of Tears" including historic and current landmarks created by Brett Riggs. Also on display will be a copy of Robert Lindneux's "Trail of Tears" painting (permission granted by Woolaroc Museum, Bartlesville, Oklahoma). Everyone will be invited to add historic information to a Unaka area map - map pins and info cards designate significant features and landmarks - sites of old school house, post office, churches, mills, Wacheesee's home, etc. At 5:30 everyone is invited to a country supper in the community center. "To go" boxes will also be available.

Cherokee Language

The h-line is the third line of the syllabary in the alphabetic organization of the syllabary.

h Ꭰ Ꭱ Ꭲ Ꭳ Ꭴ

Notice that the line itself follows the English language alphabet – ha, he, hi, ho, hu, hv. The syllables of the line are presented in the order of the six vowels in the English alphabet – a, e, i, o, u, v (although v is not a vowel in English). Samuel A. Worcester proposed the alphabetic organization of the syllabary in the first edition of the Cherokee Phoenix in 1828, and we still use this organization today.

The h-line is the provenance of the second person singular 'you' in the Cherokee language, and many of the initial h-line syllables refer to the second person singular. Where we see D for the third person singular 'he' or 'she' and S for the first person singular 'I', we are sure to see h for the second person singular 'you'. SUBMITTED By BIG COVE REP. TERESA MCCOY

WHEREAS, Individual elected Council Members are asked by members of their respective communities to occasionally investigate actions of the Tribe; and WHEREAS, the Big Cove Council Member Teresa McCoy has discovered that obtaining certain information is difficult and sometimes it takes weeks to obtain; not to mention the confusion caused because of political interference and lack of written policies and procedures; and WHEREAS, the Tribe has a public records release law that is occasionally cumbersome, however it is the only mechanism available in which a Tribal member can get Tribal information.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that a section be added to Tribal Code 117-blank that simply states;

The information requested will be provided in its entirety and will be used at the discretion of the Council Member. This information will be the responsibility of the Council Member and will handled responsibly unless a question of criminal activity is discovered upon then and only then will it be remanded to the appropriate Tribal, state, federal law enforcement agency."

FINALLY, BE IT RESOLVED the intent of this legislation will be carried out by the Chairman of Tribal Council and the Tribal Legal Department.

In Loving Memory

of
William Douglas Griffin
 April 8, 1964 - May1, 2009

*I miss you Doug, you were just a big little boy, no one knew you better than me. I miss the way you laughed until you cried, the way you loved Christmas lights, your enthusiasm for the little things. I miss your laugh, you were a good man with a troubled spirit and I loved you. I know that the Creator is holding you in His loving arms and that you are at Spiritual Peace now. You are missed every day, in God's time, I will join you in the blink of an eye~
 Love, Beverly*
