Tribal communities honored by WNC Communities

WNC Communities celebrated 65 years of community achievement through the WNC Honors Awards Program held on Saturday, Nov. 22. Over 250 community leaders from 15 counties and the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians were recognized and rewarded for their exceptional community development programs at a luncheon at The Omni Grove Park Inn. Six communities with the Eastern Band of Cherokee were honored this year.

Community of Promise is the second highest honor with a cash award of $1,000. Big Cove, Big Y and Towstring were three of 20 rural community associations from western North Carolina to receive this honor. They were chosen because of the initiatives implemented by the community that show promise and can be replicated around the region.

Birdtown, Paint Town and Yellowhill were honored as Participating Communities and received cash awards of $300 each for their successful programs and projects implemented during the past year.

"Rural communities are the unsung heroes that work diligently to enhance the quality of life for residents in the EBCI, doing everything from senior meal sites, beautification programs, developing youth programs, health and wellness programs, as well as numerous events and educational opportunities to keep our great art, craft, and music traditions alive," shares Linda Lamp, executive director of WNC Communities.

Casino Resort, Biltmore Farms Inc, Duke Energy, Mission Health, Buncombe County Farm Bureau, Carolina Farm Credit, First Citizens Bank, Wells Fargo and HomeTrust Bank made it possible to award over $37,000 to 66 community centers and clubs throughout the mountains for innovative approaches to addressing community needs.

Communities voluntarily participate in the WNC Honors Awards Program by submitting an application to WNC Communities in September. Communities are judged on projects, fund raising efforts, collaboration with local organizations or businesses, economic development and sustainability, as well as their community future and vision.

Harrah's Cherokee named Outstanding Business in Philanthropy

Harrah's Cherokee Casino Resort was selected as the recipient of WNC Association of Fundraising Professionals' (AFP) 2014 Outstanding Business in Philanthropy Award.

As a leading employer in Western North Carolina, Harrah's Cherokee has been giving back to the region's communities since it opened its doors 17 years ago.

Community involvement is part of the Caesars Entertainment Code of Commitment and Harrah's Cherokee focuses on making local communities healthy and vibrant places to live and work. The company concentrates its giving in the seven western counties of North Carolina and focuses on organizations that benefit health and wellness, senior citizens, education, cultural and resource development, as well as benefitting civic and environmental initiatives.

"This month marks the 17th Anniversary of Harrah's Cherokee, and looking over the years, we have had the chance to grow and get to know so many local non-profits," Harrah's Cherokee Casino Resort Regional VP of HR and External Relations Jo Blaylock said. "It is a pleasure and an honor for us to get involved and support various missions and make a difference in the communities our employees live in."

So far in 2014, Harrah's Cherokee has worked with more than 70 local organizations through volunteer events and fundraising efforts, and employees have volunteered more than 15,000 hours. Since 2007, Harrah's Cherokee has made monetary and in-kind sponsorships and donations totaling more than $1.8 million. The property has strong relationships spanning several years with various Cherokee tribal programs, the American Cancer Society, PAWS Animal Shelter, MANNA FoodBank, NC Senior Games, Western Carolina University, and many others.

"Both the employees and Harrah's Cherokee as a business play active roles in local community life," AFP President Alex Comfort said. "It's wonderful to see them look for opportunities to use their employees' skills, passion, and resources to make life in the community better."

Harrah's Cherokee was nominated for the Outstanding Business in Philanthropy Award by MANNA FoodBank Chief Development Officer, Donna Ensley.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Make your holiday preparations one step at a time in order to avoid being overwhelmed and leaving things undone. That confusing family situation continues to work itself out.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Ease this year's holiday money pressures by letting your thrifty side guide you as you look for those perfect gifts that typically reflect your good taste and love of beauty.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) You'll have a good handle on potential holiday problems if you delegate tasks to family members, friends or co-workers — most of whom will be more than happy to help out.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Right now you are especially vulnerable to holiday scams that seek to take advantage of your generosity. Best advice: Check them out before you send out your checks.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) The upcoming holiday season gives the Big Cat much to purr about. Relationships grow stronger, and new opportunities loom on the horizon, just waiting to be pounced on.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) A changing situation brings conflicting advice about how to go forward with your holiday plans. Your best bet: Make the decision you feel most comfortable with.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Holiday plans get back on track after some confusion about the direction you expected to take. A potentially troublesome money matter needs your immediate attention.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Your holiday preparations are on track. But you need to confront a personal situation while you can still keep it from overwhelming everything else.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Tight financial matters ease a bit during this holiday season. But the sagacious Sagittarian is well-advised to keep a tight hold on the reins while shopping for gifts.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Don't put off making decisions about this year's holiday celebrations, despite the negative comments you've been getting from several quarters. Do it NOW!

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) The holidays will bring new friends and new opportunities. Meanwhile, be careful to use your energy wisely as you go about making holiday preparations.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) There's good news coming from a most unlikely source. And it could turn out to be one of the best holiday gifts you have had in years. Remember to stay positive.

Propolis

Propolis is a resin collected by honeybees from tree buds, used to fill crevices in their hives and to seal and varnish honeycombs. It has a long history of medicinal uses – Greeks and Assyrians used it for healing wounds and tumors, and Egyptians used it for mummification. It is still used by traditional practitioners for its anti-inflammatory, anti-bacterial and immune-boosting properties.
