Arson suspected in forest fires

rson is suspected in a forest fire on the Qualla Boundary over the weekend. According to Darlene Whitetree, Superintendent of the Cherokee Indian Agency, someone set fire to an area on Mount Noble that resulted in over 500 acres of timber and land being burned.

Whitetree says, at press time, that no homes were endangered by the fire. Fire investigators suspect that someone or some persons set the blaze and attempted to set fires at other locations on the Qualla Boundary.

Whitetree stated that there were locations in the Wrights Creek area and in the Birdtown community where the suspected arsonist struck without success. At the Mount Noble site, crews from the Bureau of Indian Affairs - including smoke jumpers, Great Smoky Mountain National

ASHINGTON -The United South and Eastern Tribes, Inc. (USET) 2015 Impact Week is filled with activities for its Tribal leadership and attendees. Attendees at Impact Week should expect to have many learning opportunities, activities, and events to network and renew efforts to promote and protect the inherent sovereign authority of Tribal nations according to USET President Brian Patterson. In his opening remarks to Tribal leaders, President Patterson stated,

"Throughout the week, we will collectively be providing education and advocacy to members of Congress and the Administration regarding the many issues that are critical to our ability to be self-determining."

During this week,

USET's Board of Directors

will receive an overview of the 2015 agenda for the White House Domestic Policy Counsel and Public Engagement and Generation Indigenous Initiatives, updates from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Indian Health Service, Justice, Indian Education, Veterans Affairs, and hold discussion on youth initiatives. USET Tribal leadership will also visit with members of Congress this week to discuss issues ranging from finding a Carcieri Fix, economic development, taxation, trust modernization, Indian budget, climate change, Special Diabetes Program for Indians (SDPI) reauthorization, and Indian Education.

Impact Week includes a Capitol Hill reception with members of Congress and cultural activities. USET member tribes will take a moment to reflect and remember former Miccosukee Tribe of Indians of Florida Chairman Buffalo Tiger, who was one of the founding leaders of USET.

Involvement of Tribal youth and future leadership development is also a major focus this week. Students from various USET member Tribes are in Washington, DC to attend the Tribal Youth Summit. The week of activities is supported by USET and the Close-Up Foundation, who work in partnership to bring an enriching and empowering experience for USET Tribal youth.

President Patterson

said the week should be dedicated to honoring and continuing the legacy of Tribal leaders like Chairman Tiger and many others who have created a strong path for Tribes to foster great American Indian leadership. "We have a real responsibility to help our younger generations develop their leadership abilities, strengthen their minds, and instill a strong spirit in their hearts to help Indian Country prosper. When we look at the accomplishments of past leaders, like Chairman Tiger, we should be inspired to help all of these young Tribal leaders realize all of their dreams," Patterson stated to USET's Board of Directors during opening ceremonies.

The USET Impact week is taking place this week through Thursday, Feb. 12 at the Marriott Crystal Gateway and on Capitol Hill in Washington, D.C.

Tribe part of human remains repatriation request

SCOTT MCKIE B.P.

ONE FEATHER STAFF

istoric human remains, found in Tennessee, will soon be repatriated to several tribes, including the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians, and reburied according to Cherokee tribal custom. According to information from the Department of the Interior, the remains were in an inventory of the Beneski Museum of Natural History at Amherst College in Massachusetts.

The Interior Department noted that "a detailed assessment of the human remains was made by the NAGPRA (Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act) Coordinator and museum staff by the Beneski Museum of Natural History, Amhert College, and their agents". Over 15 federally recognized tribes were contacted in relation to the remains including the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians, the Cherokee Nation, and the United Keetoowah Band of Cherokee Indians of Oklahoma.

The EBCI THPO (Tribal Historic Preservation Office) has been working on this issue. Miranda Panther, NAGPRA officer with EBCI THPO, commented, "The EBCI THPO submitted an official repatriation letter on behalf of the Cherokee Nation, the Chickasaw Nation, the EBCI, the Quapaw Tribe, and the United Keetoowah Band of Cherokee Indians in Oklahoma. This is a joint repatriation effort, and we will be working closely with all of the tribes represented in the repatriation request letter."

Panther continued, "We are the lead tribe and will be facilitating a dignified and respectful reburial of this individual. Representatives of the other tribes listed may travel to participate in the reburial once those details are finalized."

The Interior Department released the following on the remains, "At an unknown date, human remains representing, at minimum, one individual were removed from Tennessee. The remains consist of one cranium that is without the lower jaw, without part of the upper jaw, and missing many teeth. The cranium appears to have been modified during growth. It is markedly flattened in the forehead, and flattened and indented on the back of the cranium, opposite the forehead, so that the forehead and back of the cranium slope toward the top of the cranium."

Several determinations were released by officials of the Beneskie Museum including the following:

- "...the human remains described in this notice are Native American based on the physical evidence from the cranium."
- "According to final judgments of the Indian Claims Commission, the land from which the Native American human remains were removed is the aboriginal land of the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians."

Patrick Lambert, Executive Director of Gaming, to Retire

Letter from Employees who have served with Patrick for many years:

Patrick,

Collectively, as your employees, we want to publically express our sadness in seeing you retire but more we want to express our sincere gratitude and appreciation for all the years you lead our organization. Each of us will quickly tell anyone that you were/are the Best Boss anyone could hope to have. You were always compassionate toward us as employees, fair and even handed across the board and made each of us realize that to be happy we must take ownership in our work. You taught us to treat our work as if it belonged to us and by doing so we always maintained a high level of energy and enthusiasm to do a good job. You always gave us the room to bring new and different ideas to the table and to take initiative to do the job with knowledge that you would be there to back us up on our decisions.

All of these reasons and more is why we have been loyal and dedicated to you and the Cherokee Gaming Commission. Many of us have worked alongside of you for over 15 years each! We will miss you as our Executive Director but we look forward to whatever is next for you. You have brought the Tribe's Gaming to a good and solid place and you could not be leaving us in better shape. Therefore, from all your loyal and dedicated employees at the Cherokee Gaming Commission, Thank you and good luck in your retirement.

The following is an article that was published by the Casino:

The Tribe's longest serving gaming employee is set to retire after more than 21 years of service.

Patrick Lambert has been the only Executive Director of Gaming that we have known. He was hired as the Executive Director of Gaming in 1994.

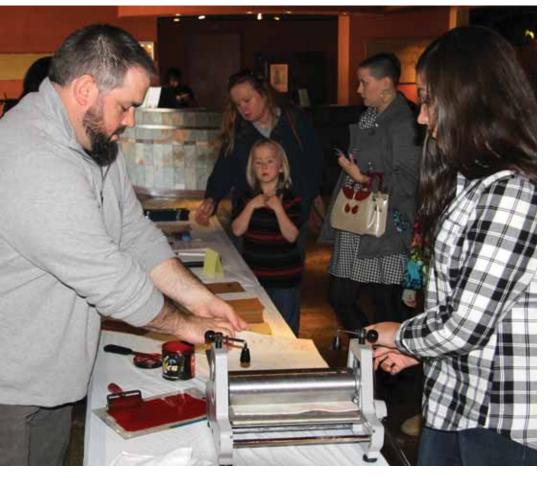

He is a licensed attorney and began his career in gaming as the Tribe's Gaming Attorney in 1993 prior to us even having a Compact with the State of NC or an NIGC approved Gaming Ordinance.

Patrick has been instrumental in helping to establish a firm and solid footing for gaming for our Tribe and nationally. He attended the first Compact negotiations with Governor Hunt and Chief Taylor. He drafted our first Gaming Ordinances and adopted our first ICP's. He negotiated our first Contract with Harrah's and finalized Compact negotiations with Governor Perdue for Table Games. He served for two terms on the NIGC to draft and adopt the MIC's that have stabilized Indian Gaming all across the country. He has clearly been a prime driving force in our over-all development and Indian Gaming on a National level. He will be surely missed.

When we asked Patrick what his plans are he clearly stated that he plans to continue helping the Tribe and helping push us to the next level. Take care Patrick and Thank you for all your hard work!

he Cherokee Braves (20-1) got their 20th win of the season in style as they bested Murphy by 50 points (101-51) at home on Tuesday, Feb. 3. Dustin Johnson, Braves senior point guard, poured in 30 points to lead Cherokee in a game that saw 14 different Braves players score.

It was a much better shooting night for the Braves who shot 61 percent (30 of 49) from the floor and 63 percent (5 of 8) from the free throw line.

"We played well," said Braves head coach Willis Tullos. "From the very beginning of the game to the end we played well. We had good intensity on our press, and we did a really good job of getting in the passing lanes."

Jason McMillan, Braves forward, led Cherokee with six steals on the night. Overall, the Braves had 16 steals on the night. Kennan Panther led the Braves with seven rebounds followed by Johnson with six and Eli Littlejohn and McMillan with four each.

The game actually started somewhat even with Cherokee taking a modest 4-2 lead two minutes into the first period. But, that lead widened to 12-4 midway through the period and was extended to a 30-16 lead at the end of the first.

The Braves stifling defense really took effect in the second period, and the Braves outscored Murphy 10-5 in the opening minutes to lead 40-21 at the 5:46 mark. Not even two minutes later, that lead had extended to 48-21. Cherokee went on to take a huge 65-23 lead into the locker room.

Due to the large lead, the NCHSAA mercy rule was in application during the second half, and Cherokee was able to get a lot of bench play in this game. The Braves outscored Murphy 26-14 in the third period to take a 91-37 lead into the fourth.

Murphy actually outscored Cherokee 14-10 in the final period, but the Braves took the 50-point win at 101-51.

OBBINSVILLE – The Cherokee Lady Braves (19-2) lost their second of the season in a hard fought game at Robbinsville on Friday, Feb. 6. Kendall Toineeta, Lady Braves senior point guard, led Cherokee with 20 points.

"I don't think we played very well at all," said Lady Braves head coach Chris Mintz. "We made too many turnovers. We let them get on a run, and our defense wasn't very good at all tonight."

Coach Mintz added, "We've got to stay out of foul trouble. We got into foul trouble in the first half, and that seems to be the case lately. It makes it tough because we're already short-handed, and when we get short-handed a little more, it makes it really tough." Cherokee started out well in this game as Tiffiani Riggen, Lady Braves forward, scored the first four points. She finished the game with 10 points. The Lady Braves took an early 11-3 lead at the 4:38 mark in the first period. Robbinsville closed the gap though and pulled to 15-14 several minutes later. The Lady Black Knights took the lead at 16-15 with :34 left in the first, but Brionna Jumper, Lady Braves forward, hit two free throws to give Cherokee a 17-16 lead at the end of the first period.

Robbinsville took the lead again early in the second period and led 24-21 midway through. Both teams exchanged baskets during the second and the Lady Black Knights led 33-28 at the half.

The Lady Black Knights extended their lead in the third and led by 14 points (46-32) at the 4:02 mark. At the end of the period, Robbinsville led 53-43.

Cherokee was not done though and scored the first seven points in the fourth. Toineeta hit a three point shot to bring it to 53-50 with 6:12 left in the game. Robbinsville kept the pressure and several key shots added up as the Lady Black Knights extended their lead to 10 points again with 2:44 left and went on to take the 71-61 win.

Other Lady Braves scorers included: LeLe Lossiah 8, Reagan Barnard 4, Brionna Jumper 7 and Kyla George 12.

Braves (20-2) had a total of four players foul out in a 76-70 road loss at Robbinsville on Friday, Feb.
6. There were 14 total fouls, seven per team, and three technical fouls called in the first period alone in this emotional game.

"We missed too many free throws," said Braves head coach Willis Tullos. "We didn't shoot the ball well at all in the first half."

Coach Tullos said he was proud of his team's effort. "It wasn't a lack of effort. They wanted to win. They tried the best they could. Shots didn't fall and we just got foul after foul... I've got nothing but good things to say about our kids. They played hard."

As a team, Cherokee shot 43 percent (13/30) from the free throw line while Robbinsville shot 72 percent (34/47). The Braves' field goal percentage was 50 percent (18/36) to Robbinsville's 60 percent (18/30).

The game started evenly with both teams locked at 3-3 at the 5:22 mark in the first. Midway through the period, the fouls started piling up on both sides including three technical fouls (two for Robbinsville, one for Cherokee).

Cherokee led 19-18 at the end of the first.

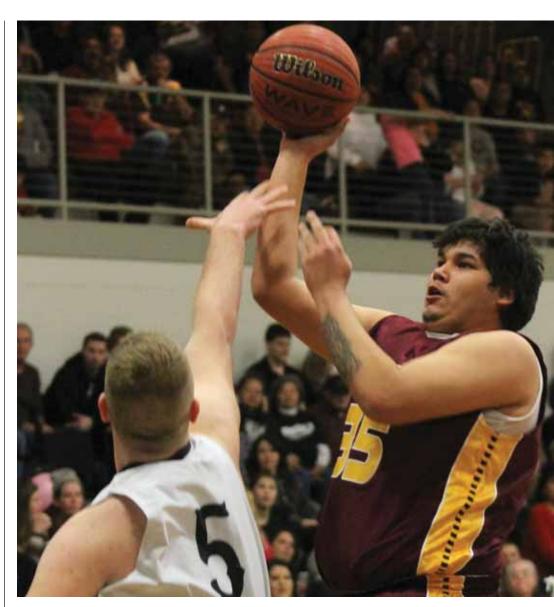

Robbinsville took the lead (22-21) at the 6:37 mark in the second and extended it to a 33-24 lead with 2:40 left before the half. But, Cherokee came storming back with three baskets in a matter of seconds.

Dustin Johnson, Braves senior point guard who led Cherokee with 22 points on the night, got a lay-up then stole the ensuing inbounds pass and got another lay-up immediately. Jason McMillan, Braves forward, got a steal seconds later and got a layup to bring the Braves to 34-30 with just over two minutes left in the half.

The Black Knights took a four-point (37-33) lead into the locker room. In all, there were 20 fouls (10 per team) in the first half.

Eli Littlejohn, Braves center, played strong inside all night and scored eight of his 21 points on the night in the third period.

Robbinsville extended its lead slightly in the third and led 50-42 with three minutes left in the period. They would extend their lead to 10 points (57-47) with less than a minute left, but Littlejohn hit a shot at the buzzer to bring it to 58-51.

The fourth period was hard for the Braves who saw four of their starters foul out including: Littlejohn, Johnson, McMillan and Brandt Sutton.

But, Cherokee managed to keep it close, and Sutton actually tied the game (65-65) on a three-point shot with 4:38 remaining just prior to fouling out.

Robbinsville hit a couple of key free throws late and were able to regain a four-point lead (69-65) with three minutes left; a lead they were able to keep and get the 76-70 win.

Other Braves scorers included: Jason McMillan

The long-awaited game, which was rescheduled several times during the season, started out very close with both teams exchanging baskets early. ans in attendance at Charles George Memorial Arena on Saturday, Feb. 7 as the Lady Braves hosted Hiwassee Dam had the pleasure of seeing history made. With a short jump shot from inside the paint, Kendall Toineeta, Lady Braves senior point guard, scored the 2,000th point of her high school career.

She was honored during halftime and presented with the ball. This is an incredible achievement as she is the first Lady Brave in history to score over 2,000 points in a career.

On the season, Toineeta, who will suit up for Lenoir-Rhyne University next season, is averaging just over 23 points a game, and she has consistently led the scoring category for all of western North Carolina.

But, Toineeta is a well-rounded player, and she also is at the top of the leader board in steals and assists.

Toineeta's basketball career at Cherokee will be over in a little more than a month, but her legacy is sure to endure. She has always approached the game with grit determination on the court and a smile and laughs off the court. She is a true testament to being a team leader and an example for the next generation of Lady Braves. Good luck Kendall with the upcoming tournaments, and good luck as you suit up next season in college.

from high school to college

Coach Briggs went on to say, "His potential is so great, and he's got so much room for growth in all aspects that I really believe he'll be a super player. I think he can play anywhere."

Patty Buchanan, Brandon's mother, commented, "Brandon's worked awful hard for this, and he's had that determination. He's firm in his commitment. He's went through all of the colleges, spoke to coaches, and I think he's picked a good college."

Lenoir-Rhyne plays in the South Atlantic Conference in NCAA Division II. Last season, they finished 11-1, won their fourth consecutive conference championship and finished the season ranked eighth.

hanning Lossiah, who played line-backer and wide receiver for the Cherokee Braves this past season, signed a letter of intent on Friday, Feb. 6 to play college football at Lenoir-Rhyne University.

"It's a dream come true," said Lossiah who made 109 tackles as a line-backer this past season.
"I've always dreamed of this ever since I started high school, and I'm just counting down the days. It feels great."

Lossiah also had 16 receptions for one touchdown.

Braves head coach Kent Briggs commented, "He's a hard worker. He has a lot of potential. He played good defense for us this year. He also played receiver and had some really key catches for us. I think, at the college level, he'll be looking at playing outside linebacker which will be a good position for him. This year, due to our loss of some defensive lineman, he had to play a lot of times on the line of scrimmage. I think his best potential at the college level is to be an outside linebacker where he can drop into space and play from that position."

ONE FEATHER EDITOR

t the half time break of the Cherokee High School versus Murphy girls basketball game at home on Tuesday, Feb. 3, game announcer Shawn Crowe called for the entire school board and Cherokee One Feather reporter Scott McKie Brings Plenty to assemble at half court.

Once assembled. school superintendent Scott Penland took the microphone to say that, in recognition of many years of reporting and supporting the Cherokee school sports programs, the Cherokee Central School System would like to honor Scott at the game and to present him with a plaque. Superintendent Penland stated, "Scott and the Cherokee One Feather have covered the student athletes and promoted the sports activities of the school for many years." Scott McKie Brings

POREDT ILIMPED /One Feather

Cherokee One Feather reporter Scott McKie Brings Plenty (center), is given a plaque on Tuesday, Feb. 3 honoring his years of coverage of Cherokee Central Schools. Shown (left-right) are Scott Penland, Cherokee Central Schools superintendent; Chelsea Saunooke, Wolfetown School Board Rep.; Wolfetown Tribal Council Rep. Bo Crowe; Charlotte Saunooke, Painttown School Board Rep.; Scott McKie Brings Plenty; Gloria Griffin, School Board vice-chairman; Dick Crowe, School Board chairman; and Yellowhill Tribal Council Rep. David Wolfe.

Plenty is in his seventeenth year of covering sports in Cherokee. In 1998, when he arrived at the One Feather, there was little to no coverage of youth sporting events. His interest in that area lead him to seek permission from the editor to cover school football games. As the years progressed and his reports drew more attention, he would leverage that success to expand coverage of school sports. Reporting everything from wrestling to football, he estimates the count of sports articles written in the "high hundreds" and he has taken over 100,000 photos at Cherokee athletic events.

Family and friends were in attendance as he accepted the award, along with hundreds of game fans. He had this comment on the recognition, "I would like to thank the Cherokee School Board, the faculty and staff of the Cherokee Central Schools, the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians, and the Cherokee fans for this recognition. But, most importantly, I would like to thank the hundreds of amazing student-athletes I've been able to cover over the years. It truly has been and is an honor. I would like to thank my daughter, Maleaha, and my wife, Sheena, for supporting me over the years and never complaining through late night games or even games in the pouring rain or freezing cold. They are beyond troopers. Lastly, when honored, in Lakota language, we simply say, 'Wopila Tanka'."

Happy Valentine's Day To My Elizabeth

Love is a feeling where there should never be any fear Love is a feeling that is so amazing when it comes to be clear What is love "I ask" if you are not here with me? It is a bond between two hearts over a distance loving free There is always a question of whether it will be for sure I answer of course it comes in all forms equally pure And if the world as we know it was to end today I would be thankful (my love) that you did come my way Is it truth with an honesty that's for real Yes you know it for in my heart it's the way I feel With my eyes open. I see all that is around Thanking God my prayers have been answered When you were the one that I found Throughout the universe beyond the stars, moon, and sun That is how far I would go, knowing that you are The One Everything within me points to where you stand More beautiful than the morning sunrises Bringing light to this land You make me feel so free when you love and lighten my heart I knew from the first day I was yours from the very start You complete the wholeness that makes up this life One day with God's blessing to become husband and wife Nothing compares to what we have found or to what we share I give me entirely to you, forever I will always care And when the days comes for us to finally be I will hold you in my arms for all the world to see It is with the memories, the moments, to be faithful With honesty, I write this poem to be true With all of my heart, I promise forever I will Love You!!!

Happy Valentine's Day

Great Smoky Mountains National Park officials invite the public to four open house opportunities to meet and welcome new Superintendent Cassius Cash to the Smokies.

Banquet Room in Gatlinburg, Tenn..

Cash most recently served as Superintendent of Boston African American National Historic Site and Boston National Historical Park where he developed many partnerships with the surrounding community. This will be the first opportunity for the public to meet the Superintendent who begins working at the Smokies on Feb. 9.

"Great Smoky Mountains National Park is surrounded by incredible communities with a long tradition of supporting the park," said Superintendent Cash. "I look forward to meeting and working with park neighbors as we continue building relationships and partnerships that enable us to protect this special place together."

The open house events are hosted by Friends of the Smokies, Great Smoky Mountains Association, the Townsend-Walland Business Alliance, the City of Townsend, and the Historic Calhoun House. Light refreshments will be served.

WCU Cherokee Center report

The photo shows international students from Elon University who, travelling with their professor, Dr. Betty Morgan, stopped for a day in Cherokee with Roseanna Belt, Director of the WCU Cherokee Center. As shown. the stops included Cherokee High School, greeted by Principal Deb Foerst, and welcomed to Laura Pinnix's Cherokee Language class which was instructed that day by Jakeli Swimmer. The students presented the visitors with a corn bead necklace which was greatly treasured and appreciated. A presentation by Garfield Long at the New Kituwah Academy and a talk and tour by Jerry Wolfe at the Cherokee Museum finished off the morning visit. Paul's Diner, serving bean bread that day, was the selected lunch stop. The next day the group was hosted by the Mountain Heritage Center in Cullowhee.

Furthermore -

Movie night at the Cherokee Center: Beginning Feb. 17 at 5:30 pm, we will host an open-to-thepublic free event for all interested. Depending on the attendance and/or comments, this will become a regular event. On Feb. 17, the film will be First Language – The Race to Save Cherokee. This hourlong feature documents the extraordinary fight to rescue the very heart of Cherokee identity. It was produced by Walt Wolfram, creator of the NC Language & Life Project. It is a film by Neal Hutcheson and Danica Cullinan, with associate producers from the WCU Cherokee Language Program, Hartwell Francis and Tom Belt.

At the first evening, suggestions and requests for films and documentaries will be taken for future scheduling. Also, popcorn will be served.

s part of this series, we'll be lookling at some notable folks in our history. These notes are not meant to be a full biography, but will include highlights and accomplishments in the lives of those who came be-

Salola, or Squirrel, was born in 1805 and lived in the Birdtown Community. A metalsmith by trade, Sa-lola has been described by historian John Finger as "almost a mechanical genius". In the 19th century, a metalsmith was a very important person to the community. They made and repaired farm tools including shovels, plows, and horseshoes. Salola extended his abilities to include gristmills and even

As an example of his abilities, Salola invented a firing mechanism for a rifle. On one of his many trips to Washington, D.C., William Holland Thomas deposited a rifle made by Salola to the U.S. Patent Office.

A curious event involving Salola occurred in early October 1852. The story made its way over the newswire from the Asheville News to the New York News, and then was published in Scientific American on Oct. 9, 1865.

Here is the story: "A Cherokee Indian, named Salola, captured a snake on the Smoky Mountain... of the usual size of Diamond Rattle Snakes found in the mountains of this country, of a dark color—on its tail it has ten rattles, on its head two forked horns of about three fourths of an inch long. The Indians said it seemed to be a king among snakes of its species."

Salola died on May 10, 1893.

Are You Prepared for a Dental Emergency?

Thousands of dental emergencies, from injuries to a painful abscessed tooth, take place every day. Would you know what to do if your child broke a tooth or had a tooth knocked out while playing outdoors? What if you had a bad toothache in the middle of the night and couldn't get to the dentist until the next day? Knowing what to do can lessen the pain and save a tooth that might otherwise be lost.

Call the dentist immediately for instructions on how to handle a dental emergency.

Cherokee Public Health and Human Services Children's Dental Program

Mellie K Burns, RDH Program Manager (828) 359-6197 mburns@nc-cherokee.com

Toothache: Rinse the mouth with warm water to clean it out. Gently use dental floss or an interdental cleaner to remove any food or other debris that may be caught between the teeth. Never put aspirin or any other painkiller against the gums near the aching tooth. This could burn gum tissue. If the toothache persists, try to see the dentist. Don't rely on painkillers. They may temporarily relieve pain but your dentist should evaluate the condition.

Broken tooth: Rinse your mouth with warm water to clean the area. Use cold compresses on the outside of the cheek to help reduce the swelling.

Knocked-out (avulsed) tooth: Try to find the tooth! This may not be as easy as you think if the injury took place on a playground, basketball court or while skateboarding, so try to stay calm. Hold the tooth by the crown and rinse the root in water if the tooth is dirty. Don't scrub it or remove any attached tissue fragments. If it's possible, gently insert and hold the tooth in its socket while you head to the dentist. If that's not possible, put the tooth in a cup of milk and bring it to the dentist. Time is critical for successful reimplantation, so try to get to your dentist immediately.

Thank you from the family of James Smoker

he family of James Smoker would like to thank everyone who helped in our time of sorrow. Thank you to the doctors and nurses for taking care of him during his stay in the hospital. We also want to thank Long House Funeral Home for doing their part in the service. Thanks to Rev. Noah Crowe and Pastor Scot McGeary for their words of comfort. Also, thank you to the Church of the Lamb for everything they did for the family and friends. We appreciate the grave diggers for digging the grave and for all who brought food and flowers and said a prayer for the family. Thank You! May God bless.

VETERANS CORNER

Nimrod Smith served in the Thomas Legion

imrod Jarrett Smith, Tsala-di-hi, was born on Valley River near present day Murphy around 1838.

After the outbreak of the Civil War, First Sergeant Smith enlisted in the Thomas Confederate Legion on July 18, 1862 at the age of 25. He led as sergeant over his Indian Company with members of Eastern Cherokee members. He was mustered into Walker's Battalion as a Private from Cherokee County. On Sept. 1, 1862, he was transferred from Company A to Company B 69th NC Infantry as a First Sergeant and served in that capacity until the close of the war between the States. First Sergeant Smith was discharged from active duty in May 1865.

The company was stationed on the North Carolina and Tennessee border to apprehend conscripts and deserters to suppress disloyalty of East Tennessee Tories. They constantly had men out on scouting expeditions and rendered considerable service in this particular. His company was of valuable service in the field. He mustered in as a volunteer for the Confederate States Service in Col. William C. Walker's Battalion of Col. William H. Thomas Legion for three years for the War for Local Defense of the Carolinas, East Tennessee, southwestern Virginia, and the Cumberland Mountains in Kentucky.

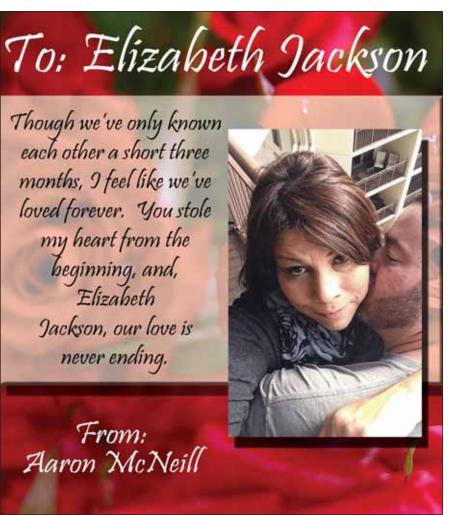

Approximately 10 years after the conclusion of the war, Sergeant Smith was elected Principal Chief of the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians, a position he held by successive re-elections until almost the time of his death. During all these years, he was an active worker on behalf of his people, both at home and in Washington, and always at great personal sacrifice to himself, as by reason of the refusal of the band to join the main body of the tribe in the west. They were denied any share in the tribal funds, so that most of his service was performed at his own expense.

Through his efforts, the first schools were established among the Eastern Cherokee and the landed interests of the tribe established on a secure basis.

He died in August 1893. In person, Smith was of manly and lovable disposition, dignified bearing, and magnificent physique, being 6'4" in height. He was a master of both Cherokee and English.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) There could be some negative reaction to your tough stance when making a recent decision. But overall, your efforts result in well-earned recognition and all that can follow from that.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Your financial situation seems confusing, even for the fiscally savvy Bovine. Maybe it's the conflicting advice you're getting. Check it out before things get too tangled to unknot.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) A relaxed attitude goes a long way in helping you deal with any of life's irritants that might be popping up this week. You're also a reassuring role model for others in the same situation.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Your aspect favors creativity, which should persuade you to work on your artistic projects. If time is a problem, prioritize your commitments so that your work isn't compromised.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Scrutinize all the job offers that interest you. Most are honest and worth considering. But a few might not be completely forthcoming about what the job is and what the salary and benefits are.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) An unexpected snafu could delay the completion of a project you're eager to finish. Find out what's causing it, fix it, and if you need help, don't be shy about asking for it. Good luck.

The next time you're getting ready for a day on the water, make a list of everything you need to do before you slide your boat in the water or put your waders on. Then organize the list in the order you need to accomplish each task.

Turn that into a checklist and follow it until you're doing all of those things by instinct and don't have to make a list. When it becomes second nature to check things like the air pressure in your trailer tires, your waders for leaks, your rod guides for nicks, line for kinks, inventory your tackle box and anything else you can think of, you'll be well on your way to having the most fun and the least worries every time you go out.

A fresh snip from a mint plant in your garden can be used to garnish plates, desserts or drinks. Cabbage and tomato plants are said to increase their yield if mint is grown nearby. Moths, ants and mice can be repelled by its scent.

Mint plants can spread quickly if left unattended, so keep them cut back weekly during growing season.

REQUEST FOR PROPOSALS

The Cherokee Tribal
Court seeks competitive proposals for a Certified Transcriptionist on an as-needed basis. These services will be paid on a contractual basis as needed by the Cherokee Tribal Court.
Interested individuals should submit a brief letter proposal including the following:

- 1. Name and contact information.
- 2. Copies of certifications.
- 3. Relevant work experience.
- 4. The amount the individual proposes to charge the Cherokee Tribal Court per page or any other charges the individual may foresee charging.

Proposals may be submitted at any time, but those received on or before APRIL 6, 2015, will receive priority over later submissions.

Please mail to: Cherokee Tribal Court ATT: Donna Toineeta-Lossiah, Court Administrator, P.O. Box 1629 Cherokee, NC 28719, Phone 828-359-1075.

This is a solicitation of proposals and not an offer to contract. The Cherokee Tribal Court reserves the right to decline any proposals received. 2/26pd

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

The offices of PHHS and Family Support
Service will hold a public meeting on Thursday, February 12, 2015 to receive community input on the development of the Tribe's Low Income Heating Energy Assistance Program (LI-HEAP) application process now in progress.

This is a Tribal-wide session to offer dialog between the Community, Tribal officials and planners that will ultimately result in the development of a new LIHEAP program.

The meeting will be held from 5:30-7:00 at the Tribal Council House. Input and comments will be documented and considered in the process of developing the LIHEAP program.

If you have any questions or comments, please call Barbara
Jones or Tammie Welch at 828-497-6092 or via e-mail at barbjone@nc-cherokee.com or tammwelc@nc-cherokee.com

If you have internet access, you may review the federal document at http://www.liheapch.acf.hhs.gov/Tribes/manual.htm
