Harrah's Cherokee Casino Resort unaffected by Caesars Chapter 11 filing

Caesars Entertainment Operating Company (CEOC) announced on Thursday, Jan. 15 that it has voluntarily filed for reorganization under Chapter 11 of the United State Bankruptcy Code. Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians officials assure that this move will have no effect whatsoever on the Tribe's casino operations.

"The Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians has been made aware of today's filing of Chapter 11 by Caesars Entertainment Operating Company ("CEOC"), a subsidiary of Caesars Entertainment," said Principal Chief Michell Hicks. "Harrah's Cherokee Casino Resort is not owned by Caesars Entertainment or its subsidiary CEOC, and is not part of the filing. The Harrah's Cherokee Casino resort property will continue to be operated as normal."

Chief Hicks added, "Our planned opening of the Harrah's Cherokee Valley River Casino in Murphy, NC is moving ahead of schedule and we plan to open that business in the fall of 2015. We are confident that our current gaming operation and our planned expansion to the Murphy, NC property will be successful not only for our Tribe but for the entire region of western North Carolina."

CEOC filed in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Illinois in Chicago. All Caesars Entertainment properties, including those owned by CEOC, are open for business and are continuing to operate in the ordinary course.

"Today, with the overwhelming support of our first-lien bondholders, we are moving forward to implement our previously announced restructuring plan, which is intended to strengthen CEOC's financial condition and significantly reduce debt," said Gary Loveman, CEOC chairman. "We believe this restructuring is in the best interests of all of CEOC's stakeholders and will result in a sustainable capital structure for CEOC and value creation for all stakeholders."

Loveman continued, "The restructuring of CEOC is the culmination of a years-long effort to improve the health of CEOC's balance sheet, which has included substantial investment in new and upgraded assets, especially in Las Vegas. I am very confident in the future prospects of our enterprise, which will combine an improved capital structure with a network of profitable properties."

Randall S. Eisenberg, a managing director at AlixPartners, has been named Chief Restructuring Officer of CEOC. In this role, he will oversee the Chapter 11 cases and implementation of the restructuring transactions at the operational level.

Lambert retires as Executive Director of Tribal Gaming Commision

ROBERT JUMPER
ONE FEATHER EDITOR

At the Jan. 8 session of Tribal Council, Patrick Lambert announced his retirement from the Cherokee Tribal Gaming Commission. This will end his 22-year history with the commission.

Lambert stated, "Over the past few weeks, I have been wrestling with making a decision on a very important question. And, out of respect to Council and all enrolled members, I wanted to come before you today and officially and publicly announce my decision. I am going to retire from my position as Executive Director of the Cherokee Gaming Commission after almost 22 years".

Lambert highlighted accomplishments during his tenure as Executive Director, including being the only Executive Director for the organization since its inception and drafting many pieces of tribal legislation that impact gaming. He also participated in several of the negotiations with the state on the gaming compact. Lambert's comments included his stated intent to run for Principal Chief in EBCI's upcoming elections.

It now falls to the Commissioners Donald Rose, Bob Blankenship and Sheila Davis to seek a new Executive Director for the Tribal Gaming Commission (TGC). There was no word at press time as to when that process will begin.

The TGC is an independent tribal gaming regulatory authority.

Patrick Lambert is retiring after 22 years as the Tribal Gaming Commission's executive director.

It was originally established in 1989 as part of the tribal government's Executive Committee. It became an independent agency through the passage of Cherokee Code Ordinance #238 (www.cherokeegamingcommission.com). According to the commission's official website, "We are charged with the duty to ensure fairness and integrity of the gaming activities within our facilities and to protect the assets for the Tribe and the public health and safety of all who work and visit our facilities".

Work on WCU mixed-use facility to begin this spring

CULLOWHEE – The next phase of a project on the Western Carolina University campus to build a new mixed-used facility on the site of a structure damaged by fire in November 2013 is expected to get underway this spring, university officials said.

The current timetable for the project, which will result in a 120,000-square-foot building featuring a mix of residential units and commercial and dining establishments on the ground floor with student residential spaces on the upper floors, calls for construction to begin in May. The facility is expected to include a total of about 380 student beds.

The Board of Trustees of the Endowment Fund of Western Carolina University, which owns the commercial strip along Centennial Drive in the center of campus where the blaze occurred, has selected Ambling University Development Group to develop the new mixed-use facility.

Fire broke out in the morning hours of Thursday, Nov. 21, 2013, severely damaging three restaurants on the ground floor of the two-story structure – a Subway sandwich shop, Rolling Stone Burrito, and Mad Batter Bakery and Cafe. The second story of the building, which had contained apartments until several years ago, was unoccupied. The section of the building that houses Bob's Mini Mart was not damaged, nor were other nearby commercial properties. No injuries were reported.

Notices have been sent to all current tenants of the remaining businesses in the commercial strip that existing leases will terminate March 1, said Mary Ann Lochner, general counsel for the university. "This will enable the Endowment Fund to turn the site over to the developer in order to have sufficient time for the site work that needs to be done, including asbestos abatement, as part of the demolition process," Lochner said. "We expect construction to get underway in May, with the target for occupancy in August 2016."

Owners of the affected businesses and other existing establishments along the commercial strip have the right of first refusal for commercial space in the new building, she said. "The current tenants are engaged in direction communication with the developer regarding potential leases in the new space," she said.

The developer is conducting market research to determine what commercial interests would be successful in the new building, Lochner said.

Ambling University Development Group is completing final plans for the building and developing schematics for the project. The building is expected to be between three and four stories in height, with living space for 350 students on the upper floors. The residential space will provide suite-style, double-occupancy living arrangements, with a small number of single-occupancy loft-style rooms. In addition to a mix of retail and dining establishments, the ground floor is expected to include residential space for another 30 beds or so.

The building damaged by the fire was formerly the site of the Townhouse restaurant, a longtime campus landmark and popular gathering place for students, faculty and staff from the late 1940s to the mid-1980s.

The Board of Trustees of the Endowment Fund decided in February 2014 against replacing or repairing the structure after reviewing cost estimates, tax assessments and anticipated insurance settlement proceeds, choosing instead to proceed with demolition of the property followed by private development of a new mixed-use facility on the site.

The board weighed factors such as the historic significance of the property to the campus community, the contributions to WCU culture made by private businesses operating in the center of campus, and ongoing support by members of the campus community for owners and employees of the affected businesses.

An independent architectural and engineering firm estimated the cost to replace or repair the damaged building, including additional expenses associated with bringing a structure originally built in the 1940s up to current building codes, would be more than $1.5 million. According to Jackson County records, the tax value of the structure is assessed at $254,430.

Lady Braves double Rosman's output in road win

ROSMAN - The Cherokee Lady Braves (13-0) extended their undefeated campaign by defeating the Rosman Tigers 74-37 in an away game on Tuesday, Jan. 13. Kendall Toineeta, Lady Braves senior point guard, led Cherokee with a game-high 26 points as Reagan Barnard contributed 15.

"I thought we played well," said Cherokee head coach Chris Mintz. "Our defensive intensity was really, really good. We were frustrating them and made them turn the ball over a ton. That was a big-time key for us."

The Lady Braves took the lead early but accumulated four team fouls early with their potent and stingy defense. Initially, the Lady Tigers had a tough time navigating through the Lady Braves' traps and full court press; only scoring seven well-contested points in the first quarter. The Lady Braves were able to move the ball very well and scored 19 points.

During the second quarter, Rosman was able to finally move the ball down the court but had a tough time getting it to the basket as the Braves defense remained resilient in a "bend-don't-break" approach, only allowing eight second quarter points. The Braves offense remained effective by pouring in 22 second quarter points taking a 41-15 lead into halftime.

As action resumed in the third quarter, the Lady Braves scored 11 unanswered points to extend their lead but calmed the dogs and transitioned to a half court press. Still, the Lady Braves were able to pick the pockets of the Lady Tiger ball handlers and created scoring opportunities via the fast break and led 65-27 at the end of the third.

The NCHSAA mercy rule would be applied early in fourth quarter as Rosman outscored Cherokee 10-9.

Cherokee scorers included: Kendall Toineeta 26, Reagan Barnard 15, Timayah Brown 11, Tiffany Riggins 7, Bree Stamper 6, Brionna Jumper 5, Shelby Wolfe 2 and LeLe Lossiah 2.

Rosman scorers included: Callie Chappell 17, Holden 6, Curtis 4, Parker 7 and Owen 3.

Even as their perfect season continues to roll, the Lady Braves know they still have a lot of work to do. Coach Stamper commented, "They are starting to believe, and we're starting to gel. It's coming along really well. Everybody's getting along. They realize they have a target on their back and everybody wants to be the team to beat them. That helps them to stay humble and ROSMAN - The Cherokee Braves (14-0) recorded their first 100 point game as they defeated the host-ing Rosman Tigers 103-71 on Tuesday, Jan. 13. The high scoring affair was highlighted by an impressive second quarter 40-point performance from the Braves.

"We gave up way too many easy baskets," said Braves head coach Willis Tullos. "We didn't play very good defense, but we played pretty good on offense. It was two good shooting teams out there."

Cherokee took a commanding lead out of the gate, building a double-digit lead in the opening minutes of the first quarter. The resolute defense of the Braves flustered the Tigers early as Rosman tried to match the intensity of the Braves but struggled to find a handle on the ball.

The Dustin Johnson and Kennan Panther led defense besieged Rosman ball handlers, forcing the Tigers to resort to inbound-ing the ball with Hail Mary type passes to the opposite side of the court. However, late in the opening quarter, the Tigers were able to find a soft spot in the Braves defense and, with the help of the 3-point shooting by Zach Stroup, close the gap to 10 points as Cherokee took a 28-18 point lead to the bench.

Cherokee came off the bench with the same unrelenting offensive intensity by knocking down field goals and 3-pointers to accumulate an eye popping 40-point second quarter performance. The Tigers put up a respectable 13 points during the same quarter but were just simply unable to keep pace as the Braves took a 68-31 lead into the locker room at the half.

As the teams entered the court after the 10-minute intermission, the Tigers were able to find their footing by scoring early to chip away at the tremendous Cherokee lead. However, after a Coach Tullos timeout, the Braves found their rhythm and picked up where they had left off in the first half. Late in the quarter, the NCHSAA mercy rule went into effect and a mandatory running clock would be utilized for the remainder of the game. Both teams put up 21 points to draw the third quarter to a close with a score of 89-52.

Cherokee would go on to add 14 points through the final eight minutes as the Tigers added 19.

Stats for the game were unavailable at press time.

BRYSON CITY – The Cherokee Lady Braves (14-0) remained unbeaten on the season with a big win at Swain on Friday, Jan. 16 as the Lady Braves topped the Lady Maroon Devils 87-35.

"I thought, defensively, we didn't play that well in the first half, but in the second half we played a lot sounder," said Lady Braves head coach Chris Mintz who is getting his team ready for a push towards the playoffs. "We just have to keep building. We have a couple of key games coming up that are going to be pretty tough. We did a great job in the second half, and we just have to keep building on what we're doing."

The game started out slowly with both teams missing shots early. LeLe Lossiah, Lady Braves senior forward, got things going with a three-point shot at the 5:55 mark in the first period. She ended the game with 12 points.

Cherokee got it going from there taking a 12-2 lead midway through the period.

Kendall Toineeta, Lady Braves senior point guard, hit a couple of three-point shots at the end of the period, and led 24-8 at the end of the first. She led the Lady Braves with 23 points on the night.

Cherokee kept it going in the second period and extended their lead to 32-11 just a few minutes in. They went on to take a 46-22 lead into the locker room.

The second half was all Cherokee. They came out of the blocks in the third and took a commanding lead, and with just over a minute left in the period Timiyah Brown hit a three-point shot to give the Lady Braves a 71-29 which invoked the NCHSSA mercy rule whereby the clock ran continuously for the remainder of the game. Cherokee led 75-30 after the third period. They went on to dominate the fourth outscoring Swain 22-4 to take the big win.

One awesome moment came with just over one minute left in the game as Peri Wildcatt, Lady Braves senior forward, entered the game. It was her first game time all season as she has been out with a serious knee injury.

Shortly after entering the game, Wildcatt took a pass underneath and made a lay-up to thunderous applause by Cherokee fans.

“We played up and down – no consistency at all,” said Braves head coach Willis Tullos. “We didn’t play very good defense.”

When asked how the Braves are preparing for the remainder of the regular season and pending playoffs, he related, “We’ve got to get a lot sharper. We’ve got to play better defense. If we’re going to go deep in the tournament, we’ve got to play great defense. So, that’s the main thing we have to focus on.”

Cherokee came out swinging in this game and took a 7-0 lead at the 6:27 mark of the first. At the 3:37 mark, they had extended that lead to 15-2. Logan Teesateskie, Braves forward, hit a three-point shot to end the period as the Braves lead 26-12 after one.

The young Lady Braves had a seesaw battle, falling behind in the early minutes of the first quarter. However, they were able to overcome their slow start and gain the lead midway through the second quarter, which they held until the final buzzer.

"We knew Robbinsville would give us a tough game; they gave us a good game at home," said Lady Braves assistant coach Ahli-Sha Littlejohn-Stevens. "We come to do work. We come to do what we do best. Will Poolaw is a shining example

This is the first installment in a weekly sports column where I'll highlight Cherokee athletes and coaches, provide some "insight" (or my take on insight) on games, sometimes discuss national sports news, and give my "sporting must-sees" for the weekend which will include my picks for live and televised events not to miss.

For my first column, I'd like to talk about someone that we see at just about every Cherokee sporting event – Will Poolaw.

Will serves as the manager for several of the Cherokee High School teams including the JV and varsity football teams and the varsity boys basketball team. For football season, Will is there...rain or shine, hot or cold, day or night, he is there...on the sidelines.

Will is not only a diehard Cherokee Braves fan. He is a true sports fan, and he remembers what team just about everyone he knows pulls for. Each week, on the sidelines of football games, Will asks me how my Packers are going to do in the upcoming game.

Each season, I enjoy seeing Will and watching his enthusiasm for the game and the Braves.

Will not only loves watching sports, he is also an active member of the Qualla Boundary Special Olympics program and frequently wins medals at the area games.

But, everything else aside, the most important aspect of Will is the respect he shows to everyone around him. He is a shining example of how to be a contribution to a community.

CHEROKEE HISTORY

Place names in Graham County

TJ HOLLAND

JUNALUSKA MUSEUM

Si yo! The Junaluska Museum is continuing a series of articles about Cherokee history and culture to run in the Cherokee One Feather. One of the projects that we've been working on is documenting place names in western North Carolina. Creeks, rivers, roads, towns, throughout the traditional Cherokee territory still bear the names of Cherokee people and places.

This week we will look at a few of the place names in Graham County. Over the next few weeks, we will continue to look at place names in western North Carolina.

Dick's Branch is Named after Dickageeska,

Chief of Buffalo Town. Dickageeska was originally from north Georgia and later moved with his parents and brother to Sugar Town, in what is now Franklin. Dickageeska moved to Buffalo Town around 1820. During the Removal, or Trail of Tears, Dickageeska hid in the Snowbird Mountains along with over 100 other Cherokees to avoid capture by the U.S. Army. Dickageeska remained Chief of Buffalo Town until his death around 1860.

Stecoah, u sdi go hi. The original Stecoah Town is in Whittier and means "little place". It was destroyed in 1761 by the Grant Expedition, a British military campaign against the Cherokee. Stecoah was destroyed again by American forces in 1776, and again around 1780. Many of the people who lived there moved away in the 1780's to a more secure location west of the Little Tennessee River. As was tradition, the people who moved to this new location kept their town name. The Stecoah Community is about 10 miles outside of Robbinsville.

Sweetwater, a ma u ga na sti. Sweetwater is named after a Cherokee man who lived there in the 1830's.

Tallulah, tululu. The name Tallulah translates roughly to "Frog Place", and supposedly comes from the cry of the "dulusi" frog. Tallulah was made up of about 32 households at the time of the removal according to Army records.

Planning begins on Tribal Substance Abuse Treatment Facility

Initial discussions have begun on the development of the new Tribal Substance Abuse Treatment Facility site and facility plan. Cherokee Indian Hospital staff has been visiting other facilities, gathering information and meeting to discuss building design and function have started.

Current proposals include an integrated substance abuse (SA) residential unit serving males and females with addiction, including those with co-occurring disorders. The facility will be based on themes of cultural care, client centered care, skills building, community supported prevention, treatment programs, recovery programs, and healing traumas for recovery. The goal is to facilitate long term engagement (1 year or more) in treatment at the level and location appropriate to individual need, which may include detox, residential treatment in Snowbird, residential support, outpatient and recovery services.

Length of stay in the Snowbird Unit will vary based on individual need, willingness, and progress. Recommended capacity is 20 to 40 individuals, with dual occupancy to allow for private or semi-private rooms. This will allow for longer length stays and could provide additional capacity for contract care.

Proposed guidelines for the Snowbird facility include:

- An aesthetically pleasing structure reflecting the pride and status of the EBCI.
- Safe for clients and staff
- Warm therapeutic atmosphere
- Functional for identified activities
- Flexible to accommodate future change and growth.

What is a pap test?

A pap test is a test for women that can determine the health of the cervix. It can find cervical cancer or those early changes that can lead to cervical cancer. This can lead to treatments that can prevent cervical cancer.

What is an Adult Women's Health Exam (Yearly exam)?

It is an exam that can include a pap test, breast exam, and general physical. It may include screening labs or labs to monitor existing health problems. It may include scheduling a mammogram or other X-ray tests. It often is when medications for birth control, diabetes, high blood pressure or other health issues are renewed.

When should I start these exams?

Pap tests should be started at age 21. A yearly exam is often started when a woman desires birth control or just wants a physical completed.

How often should I have these exams?

How often you have a pap test is determined by the results of your previous pap tests. That will be determined by you and your health care provider. The yearly exam should be every year around the same time each year.

What if I have had a hysterectomy?

You may or may not need a pap test. That depends on the reason for the hysterectomy and will be determined by you and your health care provider. You still need to have the yearly exam every year so other health issues can be addressed.

Please call your health care provider today and make an appointment for your yearly exam today. Info: Cherokee Women's Wellness Center 554-6240

Principal excited about CMS Parents in Education

It has been a great beginning to a new semester here at the Cherokee Middle School. One thing that would make it even more awesome is reviving a parent teacher organization. In the past, it was known as Parents in Education or PIE.

The Middle School is focused on fostering the relationship between parents, teachers and students. One way to achieve this is to have an organization to voice ideas. The intention is to come up with goals from involved individuals and to put them into action.

We would like to welcome all Middle School parents, School Board Members, and community members to our first meeting scheduled for Feb. 2 at 5pm at the Cherokee Middle School Conference Room. Refreshments from Zaxby's will be served and we will be drawing for door prizes. We are looking forward to this meeting! If you have any questions feel free to call me or our School Social Worker, Monica Wildcatt, 554-5026.

Sincerely,
Joel Creaseman,
Cherokee Middle School
Assistant Principal

Tribal Child Care report for January

SUBMITTED By AMANDA STROHM CHEROKEE TRIBAL CHILD CARE SERVICES

Cherokee Tribal Child Care Services (CTCCS) has been very busy by ending the month of December with fun filled activities and preparing for the New Year! On Monday, Dec. 1, 2014, CTCCS started a Blessing Tree. The Blessing Tree was created by Family Support Coordinators to help families during the holiday season. People had the opportunity to take a child's information off the tree and sponsor that child for Christmas. CTCCS would like to thank everyone that took the opportunity to sponsor a child; the event was a huge success.

- Dec. 18 and 19, 2014: CTCCS had a visit from Santa Clause. Each child visited with Santa and received a Christmas gift. Each classroom celebrated the Christmas holiday by making different Christmas crafts, singing Christmas songs, and inviting parents to their classroom Christmas parties.

- CTCCS was closed to children for the Christmas holiday from Dec. 22, 2014 until Jan. 2, 2015.

- Monday, Jan. 5: CTCCS celebrated National Bird Day. Each child was given a wooden bird whistle and birds were discussed in the classrooms.

- Tuesday, Jan. 6: CTCCS also celebrated National Bean Day by serving the children beans with their lunch.

- Thursday, Jan. 8: CTCCS hosted a Parent Activity. The children made penguins with their parents. Both the children and parents were served dinner and enjoyed the company of other parents, children and staff.

- Friday, Jan. 9: CTCCS celebrated National Popcorn Day. All the children were served corn puffs for snack.

- Tuesday, Jan. 13: CTCCS celebrated National Rubber Duck Day by giving all children a rubber duck.

- Wednesday, Jan. 14: CTCCS staff asked children to bring in pictures of their pet dressed up. The pictures were displayed around the classrooms and discussed with the other children.

WCU open forum scheduled to discuss Quality Enhancement Plan

CULLOWHEE – Western Carolina University will host a forum open to everyone interested in helping shape the university's next Quality Enhancement Plan – a plan centered around a single theme to improve the institution and enhance student learning – on Thursday, Jan. 29.

The event will be held in the theater of A.K. Hinds University Center from 10 a.m. to noon. After a presentation about what a QEP is and how its theme will become a focus campuswide, participants will have the opportunity to suggest and discuss possible topics that could guide the plan.

Sloan Despeaux, chair of the QEP topic selection committee and associate professor of mathematics, said the plan is a critical part of WCU's application for re-accreditation from the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges. WCU, which has been continuously accredited by the association since 1946, will undergo its next review in 2017.

The plan will be examined as part of the upcoming SACSCOC review of WCU. Successful reaffirmation of accreditation from the association not only ensures that WCU is offering high-quality programs for students but also is important for reasons such as preserving WCU's ability to be able to confer bachelor's, master's and doctoral degrees.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) You need to be certain that all the right conditions are in place before you take that first step. It can’t hurt to listen to good advice from those who have your best interests at heart.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Be careful not to get involved in other people’s disputes unless you know the facts behind the disagreements. That’s the best way to be assured of making wise and honest decisions.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) You still need to be careful about how you’re going to spend those energy reserves you finally got around to restoring. Best advice: Avoid overdoing it. Let things take their course.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Your aspect continues to favor travel — alone or with that special person. So if you’ve been putting off making those getaway plans, it’s still a good time to get started on them.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Those so-called golden opportunities that continue to dazzle the Lion still need to be carefully checked out. Be suspicious about anything that looks like the “perfect” prospect.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Changes at the workplace could make it more difficult to do things the way you prefer. But the wise Virgo who shows some flexibility could find it paying off in a big way.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) You might want to check out the explanation you were given for a sudden shift in your duties. There’s a possibility that you haven’t been told all the facts that you deserve to know.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Having confidence in your abilities is important, especially when you could be facing a new challenge, whether it’s in the workplace or in a personal relationship. Good luck.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) A new work-related opportunity might not be all that it seems. Before making any decisions, you might want to check with others who have had some experience in that area.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) A situation involving someone close could benefit from your timely intervention. Avoid being judgmental. There’ll be plenty of time later for those “little talks” you like to have.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Travel could be a surprise element in that new project. Be prepared for other previously undisclosed aspects that also might come to light as you proceed with the work.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Try to balance your work-related responsibilities with the time you’re spending on your recently revived social life. An old friend might be planning to return after a long absence.

BORN THIS WEEK: Your sensitivity makes you aware of the needs of others. Have you considered a career as a counselor?

How to Pattern Fish

No matter what fish species you pursue, it's smart to pattern your quarry. When you catch a good size fish, stop and think about what kind of structure or cover did it come from? What depth did I catch it at? What was the wind direction at the time?

You caught several nice fish off a corner or inside turn with wind blowing into a weedline at 8 feet. Look for similar conditions and bypass any other areas for an hour or two to see if you can duplicate your success.

Write it all down or remember it and look for the same conditions at other places on the lake or on other waters at other times.

Pattern fishing works on all fish and several patterns can exist at once. They can also change quickly so if you find one that is producing, fish it hard and fast.

Graptopetalums

BY BRENDA WEAVER

This succulent (a plant with leaves or stems that store water) comes from Mexico. The rounded, triangle-shaped leaves form a Fibonacci spiral. Those grown in partial shade tend to be blue-gray; in full sun, they are pinkish gray to yellow; in very hot sun, gray-pink. Graptopetalums bloom in spring, producing dainty sprays of star-shaped yellow flowers.

Get the Inside Knowledge

Every woman is different. What is normal for one is not always the same as what's normal for another. That's why it is important to pay attention to what is normal for you and see a doctor if something doesn't seem quite right.

Gynecologic Cancer Symptoms

Symptoms	Cervical Cancer	Ovarian Cancer	Uterine Cancer	Vaginal Cancer	Vulvar Cancer
Abnormal vaginal bleeding or discharge	●	●	●	●
Pelvic pain or pressure		●	●		●
Abdominal or back pain		●
Bloating		●
Changes in bathroom habits		●		●
Itching or burning of the vulva					●
Changes in vulva color or skin, such as a rash, sores, or warts					●

The only cancer the Pap test screens for is cervical cancer. It does not screen for ovarian, uterine, vaginal, or vulvar cancers. So, even if you have a Pap test regularly, see your doctor if:

- You have abnormal vaginal bleeding.
- You have any of the other symptoms listed above for two weeks or longer, and they are not normal for you.

It may be nothing to worry about, but find out for sure. See your doctor and ask about gynecologic cancer. Get the Inside Knowledge.
