Author donates Books to Qualla Library

Fred B. Lunsford graciously donated his three books "Glory in the Morning", "God's Messengers from the Mountains", and "Golden Nuggets from the Mountains". Fred was born and raised in Marble, North Carolina.

He has been preaching for around 60 years and is married to Gladys Green Lunsford and they have two sons, Danny and Tony. Fred has pastored several churches successfully and has traveled all over the United States sharing the message of Jesus Christ. He has served as Director of Missions for almost 26 years in the Truett Baptist Association in Western North Carolina. "Golden Nuggets" are stories that Fred experienced in his life and God has blessed him by letting him share them with us.

The second book "Glory in the Morning" are stories from his own life and his third book "God's Messengers from the Mountains" is an attempt to Georgia and North Carolina. Fred has written some information about some of the men who have demonstrated deep dedication to their call from God to preach the Gospel.

"We at the Qualla Boundary Public Library are grateful to Mr. Lunsford for donating this set of books to the library," said Robin Swayney, Qualla Boundary Library manager. "If you are interested in reading these books, stop by the library and check them out. You will truly get a blessing from them. Thank you again Mr. Lunsford for your contribution. May God continue to bless you."

- Robin Swayney,

4 – Stars

That's what Agelink gets! According to Kara Jones, Child Care Consultant for the Division of Child Development and Early Education, Agelink Child Development Center will be a 4-Star Center. They received six points in program standards and four points in staff education for a total of 10 points! The rating package for the school age program is not complete as of this time but we will share that news as soon as it arrives. Congratulations to Tammy Bradley and her staff for their hard work and dedication to reach this level.

WELCOME NEW ARRIVAL! WESTON CASH SWIMMER

Congratulations to Brandi Lambert and John Swimmer on the birth of their son, Weston Cash Swimmer, who was born on July 10, 2011 at 12:00 Noon. Weston weighed in at 7 lbs. 3 oz. and was 21" long. Baby Weston is the grandson of Cindi Squirrel in the C&F Department and the nephew of Trista Welch of the Graphics Department. Our best wishes to them all.

BAKE SALE AND COOKOUT

Agelink will have a Bake Sale at the Agelink Conference Room on Friday, July 15, beginning at 10:00 a.m. This fundraiser is being held to assist the School Age students with their end of summer trip to Dollywood.

On Friday, July 22, Agelink will have a Cookout Fundraiser to raise money for the trip to Dollywood also. The two menus will be: Hot dog with chili, baked beans, slaw, potato chips, dessert and drink OR Hamburger, cheese, lettuce, tomato, onion, potato salad, potato chips, dessert and drink. Both menus are $7.00 each. Call 497-6726 to order your lunch on that Friday. Thanks for your support!

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations to all the candidates for Council, School Board, Vice Chief and Chief who advanced in the primary election last week. Thanks to all of the candidates for their hard work and commitment to our Tribe and our communities.

A special thanks to the members of the Election Board for their hard work and dedication in this year's election process.

SEQUOYAH CLASSIC GOLF TOURNAMENT

The 6th Annual Sequoyah Classic Golf Tournament will be held on Thursday, August 25 and Friday, August 26 at Sequoyah National Golf Club. Registration will begin on Monday, July 25. If your company or organization would like to help sponsor this event, please call Jeannie Arkansas at 497-5645 for information.

Manage Your EBCI Money User report as of July 7

In accordance with the newly enacted online financial education requirement, recent activity on our Manage Your EBCI Money website has been significant and noteworthy. As of noon today we have had 168 EBCI youth log on to the online curriculum as follows:

- 10 graduates from the Class of 2010
- 148 graduates from the Class of 2011
- 10 rising seniors from the Class of 2012

Of this 168 student total 93% have successfully completed the program with a score of 80 or better. Moreover the vast majority of these students appear to be completing the program in a single session as only 11 students have yet to finish. All I can think of to say to the class of 2011 is "WOOOO" Way to go guys.

- Keith Sneed

Braves Big Payoff

Cherokee High School is holding a "Braves Big Payoff" event to raise funds for various activities to be held during the 2011-2012 school year, including the junior/senior prom and the senior trip. This big fundraiser will be held in lieu of many 'little' fundraisers normal held throughout the year. [Note: Seniors will still sell oranges in the fall.]

Each ticket costs $100 and entitles the buyer to one steak dinner and one prize drawn from a reverse raffle to be held on Saturday, Aug. 13. The dinner will begin at 5pm and the drawing will start at 5:30. Buyer must be present to win. Top prize is $3,000! Other prizes include smaller cash prizes, gift certificates, Cherokee Braves game tickets, t-shirts, etc.

Rising juniors and seniors are encouraged to come by the school to pick up their tickets to sell. Tickets will be on sale throughout the summer. Info: 554-5030

Eastern Band Fund accepting Applications

The Eastern Band Fund for Financial Literacy and Children's Health Issues committee is now accepting applications for grants that provide for programs dealing with financial literacy in middle and high school students, children's health issues and other issues related to the welfare of children. Grant applications are available by calling Sue LeLievre 800-201-9532. The deadline for submitting applications is July 31.

The fund began in 2004 with a gift from First Citizens Bank and has grown through donations and investment income. The committee is excited to be able to offer grants to help with these deserving issues. If your organization works with children and youth issues, please take this opportunity to apply for these funds.

Tax-deductible contributions can be made by any organization or individual who wishes to increase the principal of the Literacy Fund, which is managed and allocated for the benefit of children and youth. Contributions should be made payable to the Eastern Band Fund for Financial Literacy and mailed to North Carolina Community Foundation, 4601 Six Forks Rd., Suite 524, Raleigh, NC 27609. Donors also can establish endowment funds to fulfill their own charitable objectives with an investment of at least $10,000.

Info: Ellison Rudd@ 828- 497-2041 or Sue LeLievre, Regional Associate at 800-201-9532.

WCU Cherokee Center

By: Roseanna Belt

The Right Path Adult Leadership Program invites EBCI members to consider making application for the 2011-2012 program. Individuals may nominate themselves or others as participants. The Right Path Program provides opportunity to develop culturally-based leadership abilities to help members serve successfully in leadership roles. The program, now entering its second year, is based in Cherokee culture with a focus on tribal identity, values, and history. Elders and community leaders are engaged in the program as teachers, mentors, planners and advisors.

Participants must make a commitment to meet for two full days each month from October 2011 through September 2012. Those accepted as participants will need to secure approval and release time from employers to allow full participation. Those who would like to participate or would like to nominate someone to participate should express their interest in an email message to Mara Bird Nelson at maranel@nc-chokeee.com no later than July 21, 2011, ONE WEEK FROM NOW. Or you may call the director at the WCU-Cherokee Center, Roseanna Belt, for information as well. Call 828 497-7920.

Big Cove News

Community Web Page is live and ready to view. Happy to inform everyone that the Big Cove Community web page is live and ready to view. Please visit www.kolanvyi.com to see what is happening in Big Cove. The web page is in the beginning stages, but we hope to bring up-to-date information by just logging on. Currently it has contact numbers and upcoming events as well as a genealogy of our Big Cove families. Not only can you get information about the Community Watch but also Kolanvyi Kids have a featured section. There is a blog section for the latest happenings and a forum section for anyone who wants to discuss issues. The website was created by Workplace Solutions, which is owned and operated by Rich Panther who is also a member of the Big Cove community. The site was designed to incorporate all the major communities but Big Cove is the first to go live. If you would like to have information put on to the site please contact Bo Taylor at kolanvyi@gmail.com or Call 828-538-0044.

Kolanvyi Kids Youth Group will be holding the 1st annual Kolanvyi Quack Race on July 16, 2011. Ducks can be purchased from our Kolanvyi Kids for $5.00 a piece and the race will begin @ 2:00 from the Straight Fork Bridge and the finish line will be at the Big Cove Recreation Center. Prizes will be awarded for 1st, 2nd and 3rd place door prizes and refreshments will be served after the race.

Bingo Night at Big Cove Recreation Center sponsored by Kolanvyi Kids Friday 15, 2011. Games will begin @ 6:00 pm.

Big Cove Community Social – The community will be holding an Old Time Community Social on Thursday 28th 6:00pm. More details in next weeks paper.

Blankenship graduates from Marine Corps Training

On July 1, PVT Curry Allen Blankenship graduated from Marine Corps recruit training in San Diego, California. Curry is the son of Karen and Perry "Binker" Blankenship of Tahlequah Oklahoma and the Grandson of Wally and Sue Allen of Tahlequah Oklahoma and Robert and Laura Blankenship of Cherokee.

Colonel M.J. Lee said that "Marine Corps recruit training is the most difficult recruit training in the nation and a tough undertaking for all who accept the challenge to become a United States Marine."

"During the past twelve weeks, your young man has been prepared physically, mentally, and emotionally in a time-tested process whereby he has been transformed from civilian to Marine." "He has labored intensively for the past three months; personally sacrificing much in the process to ensure each new Marine is instilled with the essential fitness, character, and values necessary for success on and off the battlefield."

"Each of the new Marines recognized today has met the test, exceeded the standards and earned the title Marine. The lessons learned in recruit training, coupled with these core values, will serve them well for their time in the Marine Corps... and for the rest of their lives. Several family members attended the graduation from Oklahoma, Cherokee and Texas and all of Curry's family is extremely proud of him."

Thank You

I would like to express my gratitude to the Cherokee Housing and Community Development Summer Rehab program. They recently completed a renovation to my home that was badly needed. The Church group that was sent completed the work within a week of starting, and I am extremely pleased with the outcome. It's like a new home. I was able to meet with the group and they were all very happy to be here on the reservation "doing the Lord's work for those less fortunate" as one of the ladies told me. I think some people here on the reservation take for granted many of the social programs and services that our leaders have in place. Often times they complain about the help they are receiving. I for one am very pleased that these folks (a lot of whom are young teens or older retired people) took time out of their busy summer to come to the Qualla Boundary to help those "less fortunate". They left me with a smile, a Bible, and a home I'm very proud of. A special thanks to Darrell Brown and Robert Gahagan for setting everything up for both myself as well as the Church groups.

Sincerely
LeeBo Griffin

No Endorsement

To Those Who Supported My Campaign,

I want to thank you for your support in the July 7 Primary Election. I am honored you stepped up and put your trust and hopes in our campaign, your campaign. It was said from the beginning that this campaign was yours and that it "was a movement, not a moment."

I feel it is my responsibility, as we look toward the General Election on September 1, that I inform you that in good conscience I cannot and will not endorse any candidate for Principal Chief. So that this decision is not interpreted as "sour grapes" let me explain. We know that the leadership of the Tribe must change, not just the people in the positions of leadership, but the philosophy of leadership. The games and self-promotion must stop and concern for all EBCI members must be the prevailing principles of leadership. I cannot abandon the principles of our campaign nor the trust you placed in the campaign.

Just as you took a critical look at our campaign's principles and goals, I trust you will do so with the two candidates. I have no bitterness because I was blessed to get to know you, visit in your homes and hear your dreams for the future of our Tribe. One day our dreams will be the reality.

I would also like to extend a very heartfelt thank you to my family for your unfailing support! I love you very much.

I pray God's continued blessings upon you. It's onward and upward.

Sgi,

A grateful Juanita Plummer Wilson

*Have a child born in the year of 2010

*The child must be an enrolled member

*Be willing to meet with Baby FACE parent educators twice a year.

If you would like more information or would like to be a part of the control group please contact the Hope Center at 554-5101.

Your Vote is Greatly Appreciated

For many months I have been asking many of you for your vote in the primary election. I attended the Meet the Candidate meetings, visited homes, came to family gatherings and tried to speak personally with as many registered voters as I could.

Words cannot begin to express my sincere gratitude and appreciation to each of you. I could tell after talking to so many tribal voters that you are more than ready for change. You spoke loudly and clearly on the 7th and I am proud to be the candidate you chose.

It was an honor to seek this office along side Peanut and Joey. We maintained good communication. We were able to present our platforms without insulting each other and our people. We focused on the issues. I appreciate both of you and your families because I know how much time all of you sacrificed seeking this Primary. Thank you. We ran a clean Vice Chief campaign. Thanks to the new Election Board for meeting regularly, following the Election Ordinance, and restoring integrity to our Tribal election process. Your hard work and the work of all of the poll workers are to be commended by all. Thank you.

The General Election is on September 1st. I hope each of you will step up again and vote to make the change we all deserve. We all deserve a responsible, accountable and effective Vice Chief's office.

Thank you again and again to all who voted in the Primary. Voting is a privilege my father fought for like so many of our veterans have and still do. Fifty one per cent of us turned out to vote! What a great way to honor them. In closing, I sincerely wish to say Thank You all! See you September 1st. Sgi.

Submitted with Gratitude and Respect,
Teresa McCoy, Vice Chief Candidate

Retraction

Dear Editor Jones:

I am writing you this letter both as notification and complaint of dissatisfaction.

I purchased a quarter-page for a political advertisement in the last edition of the Cherokee One Feather. The published advertisement was not what I submitted, nor what I paid for. The advertisement reeked of unprofessionalism and the end result produced a premeditated sabotage on my professionalism with an unsatisfactory image of incompetence.

The typography and grammatical errors were numerous and unacceptable. The presentation of the type-set and the representation and competence the journalist leads the reader in, jests at the information presented.

My political advertisement is for an elected position within the educational segment of my tribe. This premeditated sabotage of my personal image is an attempt to discredit my representation as a knowledgeable and competent forerunner for this position. I have no appreciation for this kind of journalism; as the printed copies are in excess of 10,000, and the unlimited access via the world-wide web in innumerable!

As the election primary is this week, the damage and discredit to my image and reputation has been done and is non-reversible and unsalvageable. I demand an explanation for these erroneous damages that could have been avoidable had the journalist took the time to proof-read the advertisement before the print-copy was submitted for publishing. I also desire a retraction statement of apology published at no cost to myself, and I want a refund of the full purchase price of one-hundred United States dollars for a quarter-page advertisement.

Respectfully,
Damian Solis

Editor's Note: Grammatical and spelling errors did occur in Mr. Solis' ad in the June 30th edition of the Cherokee

One Feather. We apologize for the errors; all errors were not intentional and were not an effort to sabotage your professionalism.

Thank You

I want to take this opportunity to thank everyone who came out and voted in last week's primary election. Our government only works when we all participate and take an interest in our future. I would also like to thank Peanut Crowe and Joey Owle for conducting this campaign with respect for me and my family. I also want to commend them for their willingness to serve our people. I would also like to say thanks to those who have supported me and acknowledged my work on behalf of our tribe. I am committed to the betterment of our tribe and believe my work speaks for itself.

Sincere Thank You

Thank You Emergency Room, EMS, and Haywood County Hospital

On July 3rd, I stopped at the emergency to get my blood pressure checked and to get help for chest pain. The next I knew, I was being transported to Haywood County.

I stayed there until late on the 5th and was released to come home. I was extremely relieved and grateful to learn that I did not have a heart attack. What did I learn from this experience? When you are in pain, go to the hospital. It may be nothing, but it could mean the difference between life and death. Go.

I want to thank the emergency room staff for quickly taking care of me. Thank you, Stacy Smoker, for your help.

Thank you to the EMS workers who got me to Haywood safely and for doing their jobs. Your training is appreciated.

Thank you to the nurses and cardiologists at Haywood for caring for me so well.

Thank you for the calls and visits from family and friends. Thank you, Johnny, Jim and Mike.

I know sometimes situations arise that we question. But I can say and will that our encounter with the above mentioned people and health programs were handled by professional and knowledgeable people. I am grateful, and my family is too that all of you were there for me when you were needed.

I have spent the days since just being reminded how precious each of us is, and that each day is a gift. I am also humbled that we have so many dedicated people to help us when we need them most.

Once again, thank you everyone.

Sgi.
Signed,

Thank You

First, I want to thank everyone who came out to vote in the Primary Election last week. I believe we had a great voter turnout. Participating in Tribal Elections is a very important civic duty that I encourage all registered voters to do.

I am grateful to the voters in Painttown for your confidence in me as your Tribal Council Representative and thank you for your vote in the 2011 Primary Election. I am also grateful to those individuals not in Painttown for your support.

Respectfully,
Terri Henry

Smoothie Magic with the Cherokee Community Wellness Team & Food Lion

The Cherokee Community Wellness Team had a Smoothie Station at Cherokee Food Lion on Monday, June 20th from 4:00-6:00pm. This was the fourth of a series of monthly healthy cooking demos presented by the Cherokee Community Wellness Team to promote healthy living by introducing community members to healthy foods, recipes, and health information. On average each month approximately 75 participants enjoy a healthy taste testing, receive a free recipe packet, and have a chance to win a $25.00 Food Lion gift card or fruit basket.

The Cherokee Community Wellness Team is comprised of community members and health representatives working to make Cherokee a healthier place to live, work, and play. Their vision is Duyukdv, balance. Being true to self, family, community & tribe through spiritual, cultural, mental, and physical wellbeing for all generations.

Cherokee Community Wellness Team member, Jennifer Brown, RD, CDE talked to community members about ways to get enough Vitamin D and Calcium in their diet, through foods such as Greek yogurt, smoothies, and almond milk- which participants had a chance to taste. Look for these healthy foods to promote good strong bones and manage your weight, and many more healthy foods to come. Food Lion is working to provide more healthy options to the people of Cherokee to help people manage their weight, diabetes, blood pressure, and cholesterol.

The Cherokee Community Wellness Team would like to thank their members Jennifer Brown, Mollie Littlejohn, Joan Parks, Sean Grady, and Renee Mulligan for working the event; and Cherokee Food Lion for donating the food, prizes, and for supporting the vision in making Cherokee a healthier place to live, work, and play. Try out one of the crowds favorites the Green Smoothie, you'll be amazed how the banana hides the kales taste (don't have flax seed or coconut oil- no worries it's just optional)

THANK YOU TRIBAL FISH AND GAME

On behalf of the Kituwah Preservation & Education Program, we extend a huge thank you to Robert Blankenship and his staff, Mary Jumper, and Marsha Jackson for their assistance with our summer camp. Students enrolled in the Immersion Summer Camp enjoyed a visit to the trout hatchery in Big Cove. Robert and his crew stocked the ponds for the children before they went fishing.

The Fish and Game program are always supportive of the immersion program and willing to lend a hand. Thank you again for your assistance!!
