Principal Chief Michell Hicks will be distributing the Chief's Cherokee Family Garden Kits on Thursday, March 12 at 11:30am at Tsali Manor in the Pavilion for senior citizens with the main event being later that night at 5pm at the Yellowhill Outdoor Gym. The event at Yellowhill is a centralized location for all Cherokee communities.

The Costa Rica Eco Study Tour student travelers will be holding a fundraiser next to the gym with Costa Rican coffee and fry bread dinners for sale.

This year the kits contain: Garden seed - sweet corn, sugar snap peas, cucumbers, beets, green beans, yellow squash, turnips, mix of red and green leaved lettuce, and creasy greens; Flower seed - 1 pack; Plants - 6pk cabbage and strawberry plants. Darnell Farms donated the cabbage and strawberry plants.

The kits will be in an insulated cooler that can be used to carry healthy, fresh foods for pot-lucks, lunches, groceries and picnics.

The theme this year is "Love is Here" (phonetics = Ha-ni A-da-ge-yu-di). These Garden Kits provide seeds that everyone can grow to provide healthy, fresh food for their family. A garden is an opportunity

Lady Braves win fifth straight Sectional Championship

SCOTT MCKIE B.P.
ONE FEATHER STAFF

The Cherokee Lady Braves (24-3) won their fifth straight 1A West Sectional Championship at home on Tuesday, March 3. Four Cherokee players were in double figures as the Lady Braves defeated the Robbinsville Lady Black Knights 76-55.

"It's awesome," said Chris Mintz, Lady Braves head coach. "You have to give all of the credit to the girls. They listened to us. They came out tonight, and they did a great job executing what we wanted them to do."

Coach Mintz praised the girls for executing their game plan against a tough Robbinsville squad. "We tried to use some of our size that we have now. We pounded the ball inside a lot, and we were really successful in being able to do that."

Peri Wildcatt, Lady Braves senior center, played tough inside all game and pulled down 12 rebounds and scored eight points. Kendall Toineeta, Lady Braves senior point guard, led Cherokee with 16 points and had an amazing 16 assists on the night.

Robbinsville actually got the first two baskets of the night, but Cherokee came back and scored nine straight to take the lead – one they would never relinquish. The Lady Braves extended their lead to 17-6 with just over one minute left in the first, and they would lead by ten (19-9) at the end of the period.

The Lady Black Knights scored the first five points of the second period to tighten the ball game up some. Five minutes into the period, Cherokee led 24-20, but they were able to pull away in the last minute before the half.

Reagan Barnard drilled a three-point shot with 1.6 seconds left in the period to put the Lady Braves up 31-24 at the half.

Robbinsville scored the first four points of the third period to cut Cherokee's lead to three points, but the comeback was short-lived as Toineeta was fouled while shooting a short jump shot that went in. She hit her free throw for a traditional three-point play. Seconds later, Wildcatt caught a pass off a steal and made a layup to put Cherokee up 36-28 at the 5:39 mark of the third.

The Lady Braves kept the pressure up on both ends of the court and led 55-37 at the end of the period.

Both teams were pretty even in the final period with Cherokee outscoring Robbinsville by three (21-18), but their lead was too large and they took the big win 76-55.

Other Cherokee scorers included: Macie Welch 2, LeLe Lossiah 7, Shelby Wolfe 10, Reagan Barnard 7, Tiffani Riggen 15 and Timiyah Brown 11.

Robbinsville's scorers included: Erin Maennle 17, Katie Walsh 4, Kinsley Orr 11, Madison Cole 5, Maddy Garland 2, Bailey Brooms 6 and Paige Collins 10.

Braves lose squeaker in Sectional Final

ALBEMARLE – The Cherokee Braves (24-3) lost a squeaker (65-64) to the Albemarle Bulldogs in the Sectional Final on Monday, March 2. Three Braves were in double figures including Dustin Johnson (19), Jason McMillan (15) and Eli Littlejohn (11).

Littlejohn led Cherokee with seven rebounds followed by Johnson with six. This game was even in almost every statistical category, including the score.

Each team had a total of 17 turnovers. Cherokee shot 64 percent (21 of 33) from the floor and Albemarle shot 67 percent (18 of 27). Both teams shot 50 percent from the free throw line (Cherokee was 7 of 14, Albemarle was 11 of 22).

Albemarle took a slight 18-15 lead at the end of the first period. The Bulldogs outscored the Braves 20-16 in the second period to take a seven point (38-31) lead into the locker room.

Albemarle came out for the third period and extended its lead, and they led by as many as 12 points in the third. But, Cherokee came back with a vengeance and ended up outscoring Albemarle 22-17 in the third to only trail 55-53 going into the fourth.

The Braves outscored the Bulldogs again in the fourth period (11-10), but ended up one point shy.

Other Braves scorers included: Brandt Sutton 7, Kennan Panther 8 and J.J. Benjamin 4.

Albemarle scorers included: Terrance Ellis 28, Shawn Baldwin 5, D.J. Swaringen 14, Laquavius Ratliff 6, Adafe Price 5 and Lee Autry 7.

Toineeta pours in 36 as Lady Braves roll in semis

SCOTT MCKIE B.P.
ONE FEATHER STAFF

WINSTON-SALEM- Kendall Toineeta, Lady Braves senior point guard, has been on a mission and she proved it Friday night. She scored 36 points to lead Cherokee to a 66-53 win over the Albemarle Lady Bulldogs in the 1A West Regional semifinals.

“We felt really good with the way we played,” Toineeta said after the game.

With the win, the Lady Braves advanced to the 1A West Regional finals on Saturday, March 7 against Winston-Salem Prep.

“We focused on number 32 (Jadia Robinson – Albemarle’s leading scorer and defender),” said Chris Mintz, Lady Braves head coach. “I think we did a pretty good job defending her. I knew we weren’t going to hold her to no points, but we tried to hold her to at least 15 or so points and then try to make the other ones beat us.”

“Early on, we didn’t make the baskets that we needed to,” said Coach Mintz. “It’s a tough arena to shoot in. I thought we played hard, and we just kept the speed up.”

The game started slowly with both teams dealing with some nerves, but Cherokee took an early 5-4 lead about three minutes in. It went back-and-forth for more of the first period, and the Lady Braves took a modest two-point lead (13-11) into the second period.

Both teams exchanged some early baskets in the second, and Albemarle pulled to within one (21-20) with 2:40 left in the half when Toineeta converted on a traditional three-point play to make it 24-20. Cherokee ended up taking a 30-24 lead into the locker room.

Coach Mintz told his team at halftime to relax and focus on their shots. “I told them to not just throw the ball up for three every time. Let’s get some layups and short baskets. We told them at halftime that we wanted to get some easier shots and get into a rhythm, and then we’ll start shooting the threes like we normally do.”

His advice worked, and the Lady Braves moved the ball around much better in the third. By the midway point of the third, Cherokee had pulled ahead by 10 points (40-30), and they extended that lead to 15 (51-36) by the end.

The Lady Braves kept the pressure up in the fourth and outscored Albemarle 8-2 in the first four minutes. With 3:16 left in the game, Cherokee led 61-42, and they would hold on for the 13-point (66-53) victory.

cluding Shelby Wolfe (9), Reagan Barnard (8) and Timiyah Brown (8).

Lady Braves are Runner-Up in Western Region tourney

SCOTT MCKIE B.P.
ONE FEATHER STAFF

WINSTON-SALEM – The Cherokee Lady Braves (25-4) ended their season in the 1A West Regional Finals on Saturday, March 7 in Winston-Salem. Cherokee took the Runner-Up plaque in the Region after losing to the Winston-Salem Prep Phoenix 63-34.

Lady Braves seniors Kendall Toineeta and Reagan Barnard were named to the All-Regional Tournament team for their play on Friday and Saturday.

After the game, Chris Mintz, Lady Braves head coach, reflected on the Lady Braves season. “It was a really nice season. The kids are great, and they did everything we asked them to do. I was proud of them and their effort all year long. To be able to get this far is a testament to them because we’re lacking size, and it is just hard to get here every year.”

In looking ahead, Coach Mintz related, “We’re losing a bunch of players in a good set of five seniors. We have three freshmen that played a lot this year, and we have a middle school team that went 17-1 so we have some talent coming.”

Cherokee fell behind early in Saturday’s Regional final. Winston-Salem scored the first six points of the game. Toineeta scored the first basket of the game for Cherokee at the 5:27 mark in the first. She would finish the game with 11 points. The Phoenix extended their lead to 13-3 at the 3:41 mark and ended up leading 29-5 at the end of the period.

The second period was much the same with Winston-Salem taking a 30-point (39-9) lead midway through. They would go on to lead 52-16 at the half.

Not much happened on either side of the ball in the third period. Neither team scored until the 2:53 mark, and Winston-Salem barely outscored Cherokee 5-4 for the period to take a 57-20 lead into the fourth.

The Lady Braves didn’t quit though and actually outscored the Phoenix 14-6 in the final eight minutes, but it was too much of a lead as Winston-Salem took the win 63-34.

Excitement is building around the upcoming 2015 Cherokee High School men's golf season as the team welcomes a promising new crop of young talent to complement the familiar faces of the 2014 NCHSAA Regional qualifiers from last year.

"I'm excited about the season," said Head Coach Andrew Maney. "There's a lot of promise in the guys returning from last year. We've only had a couple days of practice, but from what I see, it looks like they have gotten better."

"I feel like we can be competitive in the matches we play and win a few for sure. We've made it to Regionals over the past few years, and I feel that is definitely something we can achieve again."

The team looks to build on the success of the past several years with the lofty expectations of returning to the state tournament with returning juniors Christian Ensley, Steven Straughan, and sophomore John Lossiah.

"I feel like Christian Ensley can be the 1 or 2 guy in most matches," related Coach Maney. "When he's on his game, he can play really well. He's hitting the

IRON: A Necessary NUTRIENT

'Bite Into a Healthy Lifestyle' this theme of National Nutrition Month encourages the public to adopt dietary and physical activity habits that promote a healthy lifestyle.

Iron is a component of hemoglobin, a protein that helps transport oxygen to cells throughout our bodies. Iron deficiency, the most common nutritional deficiency in America, is also the leading cause of anemia. Iron deficiency anemia can lead to severe fatigue, shortness of breath, frequent infections, brittle hair/nails, and a myriad of other health problems. Those most at risk for iron deficiency include infants and pregnant women due to increased needs during a period of rapid growth; young children frequently due to excess milk consumption; and adolescent girls and women of child-bearing age due to menstruation.

Eating a healthy, well-rounded diet with good sources of iron is key. Sources of iron can be divided into two broad categories: heme sources and non-heme sources. Heme sources are best absorbed by the body and include lean meats and seafood. Non-heme sources of iron include beans, nuts, certain vegetables (spinach, broccoli, etc.), and fortified grain products. In addition to eating healthful sources of iron, inclusion of a vitamin C-rich food along with a meal rich in iron can enhance absorption of iron by the body. Vitamin C-rich foods include citrus fruits (oranges, grapefruits, etc.), tomatoes, bell peppers, and dark leafy greens.

If you suspect you are deficient in iron, consult with your primary care provider rather than self-diagnose. A discussion with a Registered Dietitian can help you identify specific iron needs and how to incorporate healthy iron-rich foods into your diet.

ON THE SIDELINES

Thanks to Braves, Lady Braves for a great season

SCOTT MCKIE B.P.
ONE FEATHER STAFF

From the first tip-off at Blue Ridge in December to the final buzzer at the 1A West Regional Finals in Winston-Salem this past weekend, fans of Cherokee High School basketball got a treat this season. The Lady Braves finished the season 25-4, won their fifth consecutive Sectional Championship, and were Runner-Up in the 1A West Region. The Braves finished at 24-3 and were Runner-Up in the Section.

Let's put those numbers into perspective. Out of a total of 56 games this season, Cherokee only lost seven. That's incredible, and is a true testament to the work ethic of the players and the coaches. Speaking of coaches, a great big round of applause is due to head coaches Willis Tullos and Chris Mintz for their great work this season.

We all got to see some milestones this year as well. Kendall Toineeta, senior point guard, broke the all-time Lady Braves scoring record previously held by her friend Avery Mintz. After breaking the record, she kept going and surpassed the 2,000 career points mark.

Dustin Johnson, senior point guard, passed the 1,000 career points mark. Both he and Toineeta, along with senior Reagan Barnard, have been selected to play in the Blue-White All-Star game set for Saturday, March 21 at Roberson. In the coming days and weeks, I'm sure many more post-season awards and recognitions are coming the way of the Cherokee players.

Even beyond all of the games won and the awards gathered this year, the most important thing for me to see is that the Cherokee players won (and sometimes lost) with class, dignity and smiles on their faces. It is nice to be on the sidelines watching the Cherokee teams warm up because I always catch them smiling. Some mistake that for a lack of focus. Trust me, that is not even close. The Cherokee players are some of the most focused out there. They are just having fun because they love the game of basketball, and that's really the most important thing.

Good season Braves and Lady Braves!

Sporting must-sees for March 13-15

Well, it is still chilly outside, but it is technically March so we all know what that means. This weekend will be dominated with conference tournaments. There's too much action to list here so just check ESPN, ESPN2 and ESPNU starting on Friday night for their coverage.

List of EBCI athletes

Miss Cherokee report for February

TAYLOR WILNOTY MISS CHEROKEE

Siyo nigada! Hello everyone! February was an interesting month for me as I traveled to Washington, D.C to represent the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians at the 2015 U.S.E.T Impact week! It was my very first time to Washington and my first time flying!

My first day, I attended the opening ceremony, and I got to meet many leaders from all of the other tribes in attendance. Shortly after the opening ceremony, my mom, Teen Miss Cherokee Madison Long, her parents, and myself decided to go sight-seeing. We made our way to the Arlington Cemetery and took a small tour of the grounds, and then made it to the changing of the guard at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier. That night, I attended the Close-Up reception where groups from many different tribes came to present their Close-Up Initiatives to the boards of U.S.E.T. I was so inspired and proud of all of their hard work and dedication to this program.

My next day in Washington, I got to attend meetings on Capitol Hill with Principal Chief Michell Hicks, and our council members with our Congressmen and leaders of the BIA. It was a very amazing feeling to walk the same halls my grandpa Jonathan Taylor did when he was once Principal Chief of the Eastern Band to make lives for our people better, and I will never forget that day. My last day in Washington, my mom and I went to the National Museum of the American Indian and the Holocaust Museum. Going through both museums put a lot of things in perspective for myself, both Jewish and Native American races have been put through terrible genocide but have come back and proved we cannot be broken. I will forever cherish my culture, and will forever respect other people's beliefs. I had an amazing time with my mom and tribe in Washington, and I am very grateful to have gotten to go and represent my great tribe.

If you would like for me to attend an event, please contact Tooter Rose with your request!

Sgi, Thank you!

Osley Bird Saunooke Jr.

Osley Bird Saunooke Jr. 71, died March 2, 2015 with his loving bride of 50 years sitting by his side.

Osley, affectionately known by his friends as "Butch", was born in Jacksonville, Fla. on April 6, 1943. He was the son of the Chief of the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians. His mother was the first woman member of the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians Tribal Council. From them, he learned how to build and serve his Native American family. Butch grew up in western North Carolina on the Eastern Cherokee reservation where he attended and graduated from Swain County High School. An all-around athlete, Butch was a standout in every sport which ultimately led him to attend Brigham Young University where he was a place kicker for the BYU football team.

Butch served in the United States Navy and was honorably discharged shortly after the untimely death of his father Chief Saunooke. Shortly thereafter, he traveled west to Provo where he attended BYU under a scholarship from the American Indian program. While at BYU, Butch met the love of his life - an Australian beauty named Elizabeth Anne Hodson. They married in 1964 and began a wonderful life together which resulted in six children, 24 grandchildren, and three great grandchildren. A member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints ("LDS"), Butch served in every capacity within the church as Home Teacher, President, Bishop, Teacher and Temple Worker.

Butch attended the University of New Mexico School of Law graduating in two years. He moved his family to Florida becoming the first director of the newly created United Southern and Eastern Tribes in Sarasota, Fla.. He continued in that position assisting tribes throughout the southeast including the Seminole, Miccosukee, Cherokee, Poarch Creek and Mississippi Choctaw. His efforts led to new economic development that helped pull the Tribes out of poverty and into self-determination and their own economic success. Butch began planting seeds of financial independence that spread throughout Indian Country resulting in the successful casino, manufacturing plants, agro business and energy resources now a permanent fixture with Tribes.

Butch helped create the Florida Governor's council on Indian Affairs with then Governor Rueben Askew and was its first Director. He served as First Vice President of the National Congress of American Indians, was nominated for Assistant Secretary of the Interior, received numerous honors and awards throughout the Native American community and spent his entire life working to help improve the lives of Native Americans throughout the United States. Just prior to his passing, the United Southern and Eastern Tribes honored Saunooke with its highest honor, the "Earl Barbry Lifetime Achievement Award".

Butch loved life and, most importantly, loved his children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren. When not working tirelessly for Native Americans, he spent every free minute spending time with them teaching them the importance of serving others and making the world a better place. His love for life and his people were evident in his spirit and example as a true Native American Warrior

Services will be held in Sarasota, Fla. with a viewing on March 13 from 6-8pm at Toale Brothers Funeral Home, 6903 South Tamiami Trail, Sarasota, FL. Services will be March 14 at 10am at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints 7001 Beneva Road, Sarasota, FL. A fund has been set up at the University of New Mexico through the American Indian Graduate Center in his name.

At his request, donations in his honor may be made to the American Indian Graduate Center, Inc. 3701 San Mateo Blvd., NE #200, Albuquerque, NM 87110 or by going to www.aigcs.org, 505-881-4584

Hospital seeks local artists

Cherokee Indian Hospital would like to feature local art in the public areas of their new hospital opening Oct. 14. The CIH Art Committee is working with Distinctive Art Source, healthcare art consultants specializing in helping hospitals create healing art programs that feature artwork created by local artists.

CIH has determined they will consider, for purchase, original works by Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians (EBCI) and other Cherokee artists as well as regional artists that visualize aspects of regional and national Cherokee culture and reflect the beauty of the landforms found within the EBCI boundary. Artwork will be selected and placed based on content, style and cost. Distinctive Art Source will accept all artists' submittals on behalf of Cherokee Indian Hospital and will present all submitted artwork to the art committee for consideration.

Distinctive Art Source has issued a Call to Artists on behalf of Cherokee Indian Hospital. For more information about required criteria, acceptable mediums, eligibility and submittal instructions, please visit <http://www.distinctiveart-source.com/wp-01/wp-content/uploads/2015/03/Call-to-Artists-Cherokee.pdf>.

Submittal forms may also be picked up from Megan Donham at the Hospital Construction office in Cherokee.

Interested artists are invited to meet with the art consultant to learn more about healthcare appropriate artwork and the required criteria. Artists will have the opportunity to view the space and ask questions.

Cherokee Indian Hospital news

Lab accreditation

The Accreditation Committee of the College of American Pathologist (CAP) awarded accreditation recently to Cherokee Indian Hospital Laboratory, based on a recent onsite inspection.

The laboratory's medical director, Wm. L. Selby, Sr., MD was advised of this national recognition and congratulated for the excellence of the services being provided. Cherokee Indian Hospital Laboratory is one of more than 7,000 CAP-accredited laboratories worldwide.

During the CAP accreditation process, inspectors examine the laboratory's records and quality control of procedures for the preceding two years. CAP inspectors also examined laboratory staff qualifications, as well as the laboratory's equipment, facilities, safety program and record, in addition to the overall management of the lab. This stringent inspection program is designed to specifically ensure the highest standard of care for all laboratory patients.

Laboratory staff members include: Chad Cooper – Laboratory Manager, Janet Shuler – Microbiology Supervisor, John Hughes – Hematology Supervisor, Julia Lossiah – Chemistry Supervisor, Tina Melon – Urinalysis Supervisor, Brady Davis – Blood Bank Supervisor, Glen Wolfe – Immunology Supervisor, Cheryl English – General Technologist, Juanita McCoy – Phlebotomist, Alicia Lambert – Phlebotomist.

Museum offering workshops on feather capes, traditional fabric twining

The Museum of the Cherokee Indian will offer three workshops on March 12, 13, and 14 at the Museum, on making feather capes, twining, and recreating an ancient Cherokee skirt. Each workshop is limited to ten participants and each workshop costs $25. The instructor will be Deborah Harding from the Carnegie Museum of Natural History in Pittsburgh. Harding has collaborated with the Museum on the feather capes, fingerweaving, and fabric for the past ten years. Sign up by contacting the Museum Store at 497-3481 x2, or come into the Store.

The workshop on Thursday, March 12 "Feather Capes" will be from 9am - 4pm. Participants will learn how to sort feathers and attach them to a netted base. Participants can purchase a netted base for the cape for $50 at the time of the workshop. Bring scissors, artificial sinew, a quilting needle, and your feathers. Purchase goose satinette feathers in any color from www.smileyme.com. About one-half pound of feathers makes a cape. Finishing the cape will require additional hours at home. Traditional colors were those of native songbirds.

The workshop on Friday, March 13 will be "Introduction to Twining," from 9am - 4pm. Participants will learn how to "twine" which is the ancient, traditional Cherokee form of weaving. Participants will make a small bag in the traditional style by twining a rectangle of fabric and sewing edges together to make a bag. Bring scissors or a knife. If you have never done twining, you will need to attend this workshop before starting to make a skirt in the Saturday workshop.

Kara Martin, an EBCI tribal member, models a traditional Cherokee feather cape and twined skirt that she wore at the 2014 Miss Indian World pageant.

(SCOTT MCKIE B.P./One Feather)

The workshop on Saturday, March 14 will be "Making a Cherokee Twined Skirt," from 9am - 4pm. Participants will learn how to make the traditional Cherokee twined skirt, which was a knee length wrap-around skirt. Kara Martin wore a reproduction of this skirt in the Miss Indian World pageant in 2014. This skirt is based on an artifact found in East Tennessee in the original Cherokee territory, now in the collection of the Smithsonian. If you have never done twining, please attend the Friday workshop first.

Bring the following: the measurements of the person you are making the skirt for, around the hips and from waist to knee; a wooden dowel $\frac{1}{4}$ inch in diameter and 48" long; scissors; and the hemp yarn for the skirt. You can order the yarn from www.hempbasics.com. You will need Item #4403 three-strand natural yarn for the weft (threads that run horizontally) and Item #4406 six-strand natural yarn for the warp (threads that run vertically.) You will also need a frame to construct your skirt in. For the workshop this could be a portable clothes rack, but to finish the skirt at home you will need to make a frame the size that the finished skirt will be. More information on making a frame will be included in the workshop.

In the workshop, you will start the most complicated part of the skirt, which is the tunnel for the drawstring. The rest of the skirt involves simple twining and adding decorations, which you will complete at home.

In addition to the workshops, the Museum is sponsoring a panel discussion March 13 with Cecile Ganteaume from the National Museum of the American Indian and Penelope Drooker, an archaeologist who has studied Cherokee textiles including the twined skirt.

Participants must sign up in the Museum Store and pay the $25 fee to be registered for the workshops. Size is limited to ten people for each workshop. Info: Barbara Duncan 497-3481 ext. 306 or bduncan@cherokeemuseum.org

CHEROKEE HISTORY

The Last Ball Game in Cheoah

TJ HOLLAND
JUNALUSKA MUSEUM

The following came from the records at the Junaluska Museum. It is an undated manuscript written by C.R. Harwood. I've made notes at the bottom. As of this writing, we do not know what issue caused this game to be played or the exact location of ball field.

In 1845, the Cherokees gathered at Tallula to participate in the last ball game that was played in Graham County. There was no town there then. The western team was composed of Valley River and Cheoah Indians, and the other team included Indians of Qualla Town, Bird Town, Big Cove and Ocone Lufty. Several hundred Indians were present and several thousand dollars worth of horses, cows and other property were bet on the game.

Harry Morris, a son of Gideon Morris whose mother was a full Indian and his father white, made the winning run for the west team. On this final run, some of the Lufty Indians ran two horses in front of Morris in an attempt to check him. He ran around one and jumped the other.

In the game, three players were killed and numbers injured. Some of the injured were kept on the ball ground for a short period until they were able to travel. A few of these passed by Thomas Shepherd's home on Mountain Creek nine days after the game.

Notes

[1] Tallulah Town was about four miles east of Cheoah, Present-day Robbinsville, NC. A future article will touch on the history of this town.

[2] Harry Morris' mother was Rebecca Catatahee. Her brothers were Junaluska and Wachacha. At the time this game was played, the Morris family lived near the present-day Andrews Airport.

Cherokee Tribal Child Care Services report

Cherokee Tribal Child Care Services (CTCCS) has started the month off with many fun activities for families.

Monday, March 2, CTCCS celebrated Dr. Seuss's birthday! Each child was given a Dr. Seuss themed hat. Lindsey Konieczka, the Literacy Coordinator, went from classroom to classroom reading a Dr. Seuss book. All the children enjoyed their day.

Tuesday, March 3, CTCCS held a School Readiness Activity. The activity was to enhance the child's cognitive development. School Readiness Activities are held monthly at CTCCS.

Wednesday, March 4, the Cherokee Children's Coalition Committee met at CTCCS to discuss preparations for the upcoming Week of the Young Child Fair in April.

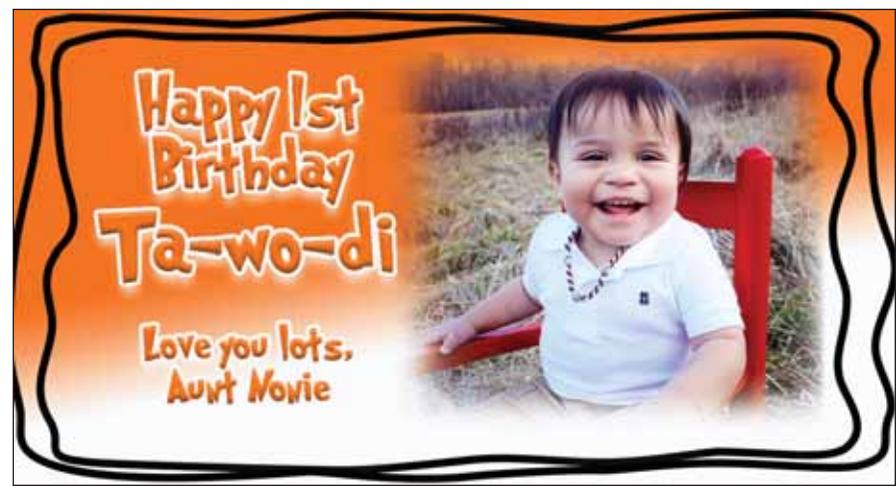

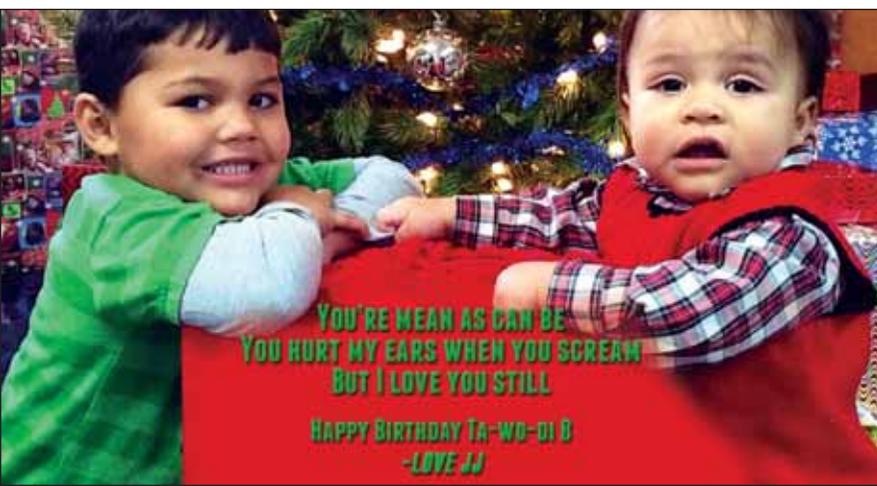

Thursday, March 5, CTCCS held vision screenings for the children and also held the Early Head Start Transition Ceremony for the children that will be transitioning to Head Start.

Friday, March 6, CTCCS celebrated National Dentist Day. Each classroom at CTCCS talked about the dentist and how to properly care for their teeth.

CTCCS would like to thank all parents, guardians, and children for participating in activities and meetings. All of your effort is very much appreciated!

WCU Cherokee Center update

The search committee for the WCU Sequoyah Distinguished Professor has announced that two candidates for this position will give presentations on April 7 and 14 at 5pm at the Museum of the Cherokee Indian Ken Blankenship education wing. Community members are invited to attend these presentations and ask questions of the candidates and the committee.

All WCU students from Cherokee are invited to attend a gathering, with food, on March 26 at 6pm in Illusions located in the University Center. This will be an opportunity for all Native American students to come together and decide the future of Digali I, the Native student organization at WCU.

THANK YOU LETTER Thank you for thoughts and prayers

I would like to express my sincere appreciation to everyone who said a prayer, called, came by to visit or asked about me during my time of illness and hospitalizations. It was the thoughts and prayers that got me and my family through this hard time. I would especially like to thank Bethabara Baptist Church, Cherokee Boys Club, and Mona Smith for the beautiful plant and flowers and for helping in any way that you could. Just please continue to pray as I continue my journey to a full recovery.

With sincere appreciation,
Nancy Taylor (Mernie and Kitty)

What to Look for in a Turkey Vest

One of the most important items turkey hunters can own is a good turkey vest. Turkey vests are important in helping to keep your gear organized and accessible.

Most come with a variety of pockets designed for calls, strikers, extra shells, a face mask, gloves, binoculars, rangefinders, a knife, and even a snack in case you get hungry. Some even have attachment systems that allow you to add more accessories to your vest. Large pouch pockets in back work great for decoys, stakes, and even a monster gobbler.

My favorite vest has a built-in seat with back support that allows me to set up anywhere and be comfortable and still. Some vests have features such as padded flip-down seats, fold-out safety-orange strips, and adjustable padded straps.

I have hunted turkeys for a lot of years and sometimes I wonder how I ever got along without a vest that had back support.

The Garden Bug

Coltsfoot

Using this plant in medicinal treatments was once so popular that French pharmacists painted its image on their doorposts. American colonists treated whooping cough by wrapping blankets soaked with its essence around the ill. The plant can be found in abundance around river banks and watery ditches. Its bright yellow, dandelion-like flowers emerge in early spring before its leaves appear.

Jones-Bowman

Leadership Award Program Fellows

Serving Others and Enriching Their Community

The holiday season is always a busy time filled with work, shopping, gatherings and family traditions. For the Jones-Bowman Leadership Award Fellows, the holidays provided a time to make new traditions – giving their time to a worthy cause.

"During the middle of December, the Jones-Bowman Fellows spent time giving back to elders in the community for their group project," said Jones-Bowman Leadership Award Program Coordinator Alicia Jacobs. "They wanted to give back to elders this year by sharing in the holiday spirit. It was time spent giving back and an opportunity to gain knowledge for our students."

The 2014/2015 Jones-Bowman Fellows are Kayla Smith, Carmen Johnson, Alexa Armachain, Josh Gossett, Devyn Smith, and Tim Swayney.

The Fellows spent time with Ms. JoAnn Catolster Eslinger from the Yellow Hill Community. They decorated her tree and also a tree they had bought.

"Miss JoAnn also offered her advice for us anytime we needed," said Jones-Bowman Fellow Kayla Smith. "This year's project was a wonderful one and allowed us to give back and spend time with this amazing lady."

The Fellows also presented Ms. Eslinger with a Jones-Bowman handmade Christmas ornament, made by Fellow Josh Gossett, along with a Christmas gift basket. "The group project this year was amazingly beneficial and enriching," said Gossett.

"The group project was an awesome experience for me as a member of Jones-Bowman," said Fellow Tim Swayney. "Ms. Eslinger gave me great wisdom on never giving up on my dream that I have my mind set on."

Fellow Alexa Armachain agrees. "Ms. Eslinger expressed how she was proud of us and our accomplishments which helped encourage me to keeping working hard toward my own goals," she said.
