After 16 community workshops involving over 1,000 western North Carolina residents, Southwestern North Carolina's Opportunity Initiative – or Opt-In – came together to discuss the future of the region at the Opt-In Regional Summit held on Thursday, May 8 at Harrah's Cherokee Casino Hotel. Over 225 people attended the event.

"We had to make sure that the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians was successful for many reasons," said Principal Chief Michell Hicks in welcoming the Summit attendees, "for the children, for the elders, but to do that, we knew that we also had to make sure that the region was part of that success. And, we committed to that, and we're still committed to that."

Gavin Brown, Mayor of Waynesville and chair of the Southwestern Commission, served as the emcee for the evening. "Tonight, we have a chance to create a legacy, and I really think that's going to happen. The event tonight is trying to bring together the possibility of planning for the future."

Opt-In is funded by the Appalachian Regional Commission, the Federal Highway Administration, and the North Carolina Department of Transportation. It is overseen by the Southwestern Commission Council of Governments.

An 11-person Steering Committee helps drive Opt-In's mission of "Working together to better understand and inform choices facing local governments, businesses and families in North Carolina's seven westernmost counties, and in the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians."

Vice Chief Larry Blythe serves on that Steering Committee, and he spoke at Thursday's event. "When I was asked to participate in the Opt-In program on behalf of the Eastern Band, I immediately saw an opportunity. I felt through interactions with surrounding counties and communities as a member of the Opt-In team, I would be in a position to tell the Tribe's story and tell the story as it presently relates to our interest and involvement in western North Carolina."

"The Tribe's story is not unlike our neighbors in the surrounding area of western North Carolina," he went on to say. "We know that everything – the region's economy, its infrastructure – begin and end with the mountains and river valleys, and they're the source of our advantages and they're the source of our challenges. And, one of the challenges is connectivity in terms of roads, bridges, internet, etc., but also in terms of connecting community to community over these mountains and these hollers."

WCU chancellor David O. Belcher gave the keynote address and said that collaborations and partnerships are needed for the future of the region. "If we, in western North Carolina, are to be successful, we must partner with one another and form a general compact."

He praised the Opt-In project and said it has "engaged the region's citizens repeatedly in various forums to identify priorities to chart the regional path forward".

Some of the sponsors of Thursday's Summit included: Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians, Harrah's Cherokee Casino Resort, Duke Energy, Land Trust for the Little Tennessee, Drake Enterprises, Phillips & Jordan, Great Smoky Mountain Railroad, Smoky Mountain Host, and the Macon County Economic Development Commission.

Tribe to receive over $4.8 million in federal grants

SCOTT MCKIE B.P.
ONE FEATHER STAFF

The Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians is set to receive over $4.8 million in federal grants for highway repairs and economic development. Two Federal Highway Administration (FHWA) grants totaling $4.7 million have been awarded for road repairs due to flooding in 2013. The rest of the funding is in the amount of $145,000 from the Economic Development Association (EDA).

The highway funds will be used to repair numerous tribal roads that were damaged in the January 2013 flooding including: Towstring, Jenkins Creek, Dobson Ridge, Paul Owle, Sherrill Cove, Big Cove Loop, Smiley Littlejohn, Eugene Littlejohn, Bales Lane, Hicks Hollow, Becks Br., Lisa Parker Drive, Bunches Creek, Mount Noble, Lambert Branch, Old #4 (lower), Shut In Creek (Falls), Black Rock (lower), and Washingtons Creek.

The EDA grant will be used to develop a CEDS (comprehensive economic development strategy) for the five-county area including: Cherokee, Graham, Haywood, Jackson and Swain counties.

According to the EDA, "The CEDS process is designed to bring together the public and private sectors in the creation of an economic development roadmap to diversify and strengthen the regional economy."

Doug Cole, EBCI Planning Office, said their office was notified several weeks ago by Rep. Mark Meadows (R-NC) that the Tribe's three-year grant application had been approved. "The EBCI will receive $145,000 in planning assistance over the 2014-16 time period to support the goals and objectives of the Tribe's current five-year CEDs which was developed and approved in 2012," said Cole. "The development and maintenance of an EDA-approved CEDs is a condition of receiving this grant. The EBCI has had a long-standing relationship with the EDA and has been the recipient of annual Partnership Planning Grants for many years."

Cole related that the EDA grant will be administered by the EBCI Planning Office which is in the EBCI Division of Commerce.

Qualla Boundary participates in Special Olympics Spring Games

SCOTT MCKIE B.P.

FRANKLIN – The cloudy skies didn't dampen one smile or spirit at the annual Special Olympics of North Carolina Far West Spring Games. Over 250 athletes participated in the event held Friday, May 9 at Macon Middle School.

"I enjoy the Special Olympics," said Tony Wolfe, a member of the Qualla Boundary team which consisted of nearly 30 athletes. It's gives people with special disabilities a chance to prove what they can do and who they are. I just enjoy being a part of it."

Lana Lambert, Qualla Boundary Special Olympics program coordinator, related, "We're excited to have a team of our regular athletes plus a lot of new athletes here competing today, and they're making the entire Qualla Boundary very proud."

The athletes competed in various track and field events ranging from the softball throw and tennis ball throw to traditional events such as the long jump, shot put and running events.

Macon County Sheriff's Office ran the torch into the stadium to help start Friday's event. They were followed by the procession of athletes representing area counties including: Cherokee, Clay, Macon, Graham, and the Qualla Boundary.

Derek Roland, Macon County manager, welcomed the athletes and coaches to the event, "Today's the product of a lot of hard work by a lot of agencies, but, at the end of the day, it's all about the athletes here."

Boy Scout Troop 235 and the Knights of Columbus posted the colors and led the Pledge of Allegiance which was followed by the National Anthem sung by Macon County's Singing Angels.

LeAnne Webb, a member of the Macon County team and a Special Olympics global messenger, led the athletes in the Special Olympics Oath to start the games, "Let me win. But, if I cannot win, let me be brave in the attempt."

WRESTLING

McCoy wins MAAC Award

EBCI tribal member Spencer McCoy, a junior at Swain County High School, won the White & Williams Co. Award for the top 1A/2A Male Athlete in an Olympic Sport at the 53rd Annual MAAC (Mountain Amateur Athletic Club) Awards Banquet.

"It is a great honor to have received this award," said McCoy. "I would be where I'm at today if it wasn't for the support of my family and friends and, most of all, my lord and savior Jesus Christ. I was up against some serious athletes in the voting, and when the MAAC chose me, it was very humbling."

He completed the 2013-14 wrestling season with an undefeated record of 29-0, and he is currently the two-time defending NCHSAA 1A Regional and State Champion. McCoy has also collected three straight Smoky Mountain Conference Championships and has a career record of 97-12.

Additionally, he received an Honorable Mention in the March 2014 issue of Wrestling USA Magazine. The publication ranked the Top 30 high school wrestlers from across the nation in the 195lbs. weight class, and he was also named one of 16 rising names for the tough 195lbs. division.

GOLF

Braves season ends at Regional Tournament in Linville

AMBLE SMOKER

ONE FEATHER STAFF

LINVILLE - On an unusual cool and windy day, the American Flag towering high over the Linville Golf Club clubhouse thrashed violently in the wind as members of the Cherokee Braves golf team approached the first tee. The practice round from a day prior confirmed the challenge these young men would face on the sloping fairways and crowned greens, reminiscent of the famous Pinehurst #2 course.

The Cherokee Braves golf team finished their season on Tuesday, May 6 at the 2014 1A Men's Regional Golf Championships at the Linville Golf Club. The Braves finished in ninth place after carding a combined team score of 404 on the Par -72, 6,620-yard course.

"(I) really hated for our season to have to come to an end," said coach Andrew Maney after the match. "I know we didn't play as well as what we were capable of playing but that is golf and you have to move on."

The final team results from the tournament were as follows:

1st place - Avery 330
2nd place - Pine Lake Prep 337
3rd place - Lincoln Charter 341
4th place - Swain 361
Tied for 5th - Murphy and Highland Tech 366
7th place - Highlands 376
8th place - Hayesville 379
9th place - Cherokee 404

The individual results from the Cherokee players were:

Tagan Crowe 84
Christian Ensley 94

Logan Teesateskie 113

John Lossiah 113

Derrick Ledford 122

Steven Straughan 131

Senior Tagan Crowe led the way with another stout performance to close out his high school career by shooting just 12-over par. He finished tenth out of a field of sixty two players and only missed qualifying for the NCHSAA State Championships by a single stroke.

"I was heartbroken for him in the end; he was only one stroke from qualifying as an individual for the State tournament next week," said Maney. "After his round, we waited for two and a half hours thinking he was going to be in a playoff and then the last group has a kid turn in an 83 to slip past him. I am extremely proud of Tagan's effort and hard work he put in throughout his four years as a player for this program."

Maney went on to say, "Christian Ensley was another bright spot at this tournament as he carded a 94 on an extremely difficult golf course. I'm really going to miss this group of boys as they were fun, exciting, and coachable. We lose Tagan and Derrick. They're going to be hard to replace, not only as golfers, but for what they brought to the team in other aspects. I am already looking forward to next season as we return a solid group of boys."

"I would also like to say thank you to all the Braves families and fans we had show up to this tournament and other matches in support."

Hayesville students learn about Cherokee Culture

SANDY NICOLETTE CCCRA

Did you know “yonah”, as in Yonah Mountain, means bear in Cherokee? EBCI tribal member Diamond Brown taught students Cherokee words during his recent visit to Hayesville. Diamond Brown, or better known as Go-Sti, which means Green Leaf in Cherokee grew up in the Snowbird Community of Graham County.

As a native educator and native culturist since 1992, Go-Sti travels all over the United States teaching and sharing his knowledge about the Cherokee culture. The Hayesville fourth and sixth graders benefited from that experience when Diamond spoke to them at the Clay County Schools amphitheater on Friday, May 2.

Brown, who was dressed in a style of clothing that would have been common after the Europeans arrived on this continent, described how Cherokee traditions were passed down from the elders and knowledge was learned orally. The Cherokee learned to respect all natural things, as they relied on nature for their food, medicine, clothing, and shelter. Animals were killed to provide food and clothing for the hunter's family. Other parts of the animal would be used to make items needed for daily living. Horns might be fashioned into spoons, needles, or instruments. Antlers might become buttons or used as a hammer. Plants were used for food, shelter, clothing and medicine. It was important to take only some of the animals and plants at one time, because they would be needed in the future.

Brown clarified the correct drum beat rhythm the Cherokee and other native peoples use by comparing the native drumbeat to our own steady heart beats. It might be slow, medium or fast depending on the tempo of the singers and dancers.

He took the time to commend Hayesville and the Clay County Communities Revitalization Association (CCCRA) for their efforts to share the Cherokee culture. He highlighted the winter and summer houses at the Cherokee Homestead Exhibit as outstanding as they are authentic and accurate representations of Cherokee houses.

Bill Taylor Scholarship accepting applications

The Bill Taylor Scholarship is available and is intended for students pursuing a degree in business administration or a business-related area. Applicants must be either EBCI tribal members or members of their immediate family. The application is available on line at this address: www.nccommunityfoundation.org/scholarships - then Search for "Qualla Reservation". Applications must be returned by June 1 to: Frela Beck, 854 Big Cove Road, Cherokee, NC 28719

The Bill Taylor Scholarship was established by Harrah's Casino to pay tribute to William R. Taylor. Jerry Egelus, former Harrah's Cherokee Casino General Manager said, "It's an honor to establish a scholarship in Bill Taylor's name.

Bill played a pivotal role in bringing new revenues, new jobs and new opportunities for Tribal members through his work in establishing gaming on the reservation".

The Scholarship is administered as a permanent endowment of the Eastern Band of Cherokee Community Foundation, one of 60 affiliates of the statewide North Carolina Community Foundation. Currently, the local Foundation holds 11 endowment funds, four of which are scholarship or award programs for higher education.

Horse owners urged to vaccinate animals against mosquito-borne diseases

RALEIGH – It's the beginning of mosquito season in North Carolina, which means it's also time for equine owners to talk to their veterinarians about vaccinating animals against mosquito-borne diseases.

West Nile Virus and Eastern Equine Encephalomyelitis are endemic across North Carolina and can cause illness or death in equine, but can be prevented with a sequence of two vaccines. Last year, there were two reported cases of WNV and 13 cases of EEE, but veterinarians expect that the actual number is higher.

"Now is the time to vaccinate against West Nile Virus and EEE," state veterinarian David Marshall said. "Mosquito breeding peaks in August, so starting the vaccination protocol now gives it time to take effect."

The EEE and WNV vaccinations initially require two shots, three to four weeks apart, for horses, mules and donkeys that have no prior vaccination history. Neither vaccination fully protects the animal until several weeks after the second shot, so it is best to vaccinate as early in the mosquito season as possible. Marshall encourages horse owners to talk to their veterinarians about maintaining the vaccination year-round in North Carolina, since the mosquito season is long.

"In addition to getting animals vaccinated, everyone needs to be extra vigilant now to reduce the breeding grounds for mosquitoes," Marshall said. "Take the time now to rid your yard and pasture of any standing water to reduce the risk."

Symptoms of EEE in equine include impaired vision, aimless wandering, head pressing, circling, inability to swallow, irregular staggering gait, paralysis, convulsions and death. Symptoms of WNV in horses can include loss of appetite and depression, fever, weakness or paralysis of hind limbs, convulsions, impaired vision or hyperexcitability.

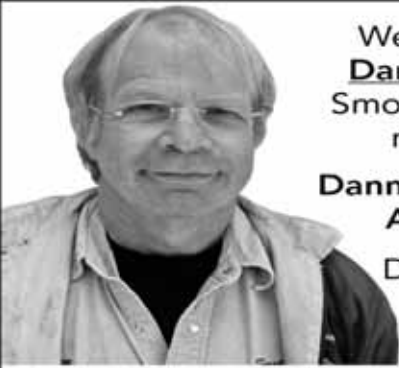

People, horses and birds can become infected from a mosquito carrying the diseases, but there is no evidence that horses can transmit the virus to other horses, birds or people through direct contact.

Diabetic Eye Exam Drive

The Cherokee Indian Hospital Eye Care and Diabetes programs have joined forces to increase the number of Diabetic Retinopathy (eye exam) screening provided in our community. Their goal is to do 500 exams before June 30.

If you are diabetic and have not had an exam in the last year, come by the Cherokee Eye Care center on Acquoni Road from 8am – 4pm Monday - Thursday, walk-ins welcome. Call 497-9163, ex. 6495 for more information.

You can also visit the Cherokee Diabetes Program – walk-ins welcome on Wednesday mornings and Friday afternoons. Info: 497-9191.

The eye exam takes about 15 minutes, and if you're diabetic, it can help prevent blindness. Diabetic Retinopathy occurs when there is a weakening or swelling of the tiny blood vessels in the retina or back of your eye, resulting in blood leakage, the growth of new blood vessels and other changes. If diabetic retinopathy is left untreated, blindness can result.

If you are diabetic and get a Diabetic Eye Exam before June 30, you will receive a $5 gift card and be entered to win a new iPod.

LOOK AT THESE SUPPORT BEAMS. THE REST OF THE SHIP MUST HAVE BEEN BURIED BY AN AVALANCHE.

CRACKLEEE FLASH, CAN YOU HEAR ME?

WHAT IS IT, ZARKOV?

THAT STORM FRONT IS MOVING IN FAST. YOU NEED TO TURN AROUND AND HEAD BACK TO SAFE CAMP NOW.

NO CAN DO, DOC. WE FOUND THE SHIP AND THERE MAY BE SURVIVORS.

FLASH, YOU WON'T BE ANY HELP TO THEM IF YOU GET CAUGHT IN THE STORM AND GET YOURSELF KILLED!

FLASH'S SEARCH PARTY EXAMINES THE REMAINS OF THE POWNED ARBORIAN CRAFT.

THIS IS ONLY PART OF THE SHIP. WHERE'S THE REST OF IT?

KING VULTAN, I'M READING FAINT LIFE SIGNS EMANATING FROM BENEATH US.

WE'LL BE ALL RIGHT, DALE. WE CAN WAIT OUT THE STORM IN THE PART OF THE CRAFT THAT'S STILL INTACT. THERE'S NO NEED TO WORRY.

DALE...? ARE YOU STILL THERE...?

BUT FLASH'S WORDS FALL ON DEAF EARS.

WATCHING THE DARK STORM CLOUDS BILLOW IN, DALE'S HEART SINKS...

...AS SHE REMEMBERS A FATEFUL WARNING GONE UNHEEDED.

The Garden Bug

Casa Blanca lilies are easily grown in well-drained soil, if located where the upper plant is in full sun and the roots are in shade. Mulch around the plants to keep the roots cooler. Remove flowers as they fade; cut plants back only after the leaves and stems have turned yellow. Its flowers are showy and very fragrant. The plants may need staking if exposed to strong winds.

Play Better Golf with JACK NICKLAUS

I'M MADE IN SUCH A WAY THAT I'VE ALWAYS GIVEN EVERY GOLF SHOT I'VE HIT MY BEST EFFORT.

THAT'S TRUE WHETHER I'M ON THE PRACTICE TEE OR CONTENDING FOR A "MAJOR."

TRYING HARDER NEVER TO HIT "QUIT" SHOTS, OR SWING AT THE BALL SLOPPILY, COULD LIFT MANY AMATEURS' GAMES.

THE THING TO REMEMBER IS THAT THE MORE YOU COP OUT, OF A HABIT, IT BECOMES.
