ONE FEATHER STAFF REPORT

A total of 225 volunteers completed 10 projects in 10 communities on EBCI trust lands during the annual Cherokee Day of Caring on Thursday, May 15.

“Our people have a long history of coming together to improve our community and to help our neighbors,” said Principal Chief Michell Hicks. “The Cherokee Day of Caring is the continuation of that tradition, and it remains one of the most important lessons we can teach our children. I am honored to be part of this organized effort to make the lives of our people better.”

The event is co-sponsored by the Office of the Principal Chief, the Cherokee Preservation Foundation, and Harrah’s Cherokee Casino Resort. The Preservation Foundation purchased the materials used in the projects and Harrah’s Cherokee provided lunch for all of the volunteers.

“I think the Cherokee Day of Caring is the best thing we do,” said Jo Blaylock, Harrah’s Cherokee vice president of human resources. “It brings us together with other community members to improve someone’s living environment. The caring and love that comes from these events is tremendous and brings us together as a community.”

Annette S. Clapsaddle, Cherokee Preservation Foundation executive director, commented, “An event such as this gives us the opportunities to lead in many different ways using our incredibly diverse sets of talents to collectively improve the quality of life for our community.”

Cucumber sentenced to three years for violating order, prob.

Clement Edward Cucumber Jr., 45, was convicted on Tuesday, May 13 in the Cherokee Court for two counts of Violation of a Domestic Violence Protective Order, and violating his probation for a prior Assault on a Female conviction. He was sentenced to three years imprisonment. The sentence, issued by the Honorable Kirk G. Saunooke, Cherokee Court Judge, was yet another multi-year sentence issued by the Cherokee Court following the implementation of the Tribal Law and Order Act which authorized criminal sentences of greater than one year in tribal courts.

Sentences of greater than two years in crimes of violence qualify Cherokee inmates for transfer to the Federal Bureau of Prisons for service pursuant to a program created as part of the Tribal Law and Order Act in which tribes can apply to the Federal Bureau of Prisons to have their inmates serving such qualifying active sentences transferred to Federal facilities. The Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians has previously utilized this program, thereby not only preserving Tribal resources, but opening up greater rehabilitation services for inmates through the Bureau of Prisons.

Tribal Prosecutor Jason Smith stated, "I want to thank Assistant Tribal Prosecutor, Justin Eason; Cherokee Probation Officer, John Nations; Cherokee Police Detective, Jason Cable; and Domestic Violence Advocate, Iva Key for their hard work and dedication to this case which made this outcome a possibility. There was a tremendous amount of investigation, legwork, and communication with the victim and witnesses performed by those involved with this case, allowing the system to work as it was intended."

Assistant Tribal Prosecutor, Justin Eason added, "Sentences like this are an affirmation that Cherokee will defend its more vulnerable members, those who are victims of domestic violence."

Although this case involved a defendant who was an EBCI tribal member, the Cherokee Court will soon be hearing cases involving non-Indian perpetrators of domestic violence pursuant to the reauthorized Violence Against Women Act of 2013 ("VAWA 13"). This unprecedented Federal law, in part, recognizes the original criminal jurisdiction of tribal courts, authorizing prosecutions in certain cases involving domestic violence perpetrated by non-Indians when certain specific requirements are met.

Once Cherokee laws are amended to comply with VAWA 13 requirements, these non-Indian perpetrators will also be subject to punishment in the Cherokee Court for the commission of domestic violence crimes against enrolled members on EBCI lands. These amendments are expected to be finalized by the end of this year.

Diane Humetewa named first American Indian woman federal judge

TEMPE, Ariz. - Diane Humetewa, Arizona State University Special Advisor to the President for American Indian Affairs, has been named the first American Indian woman to serve as a federal judge.

Humetewa won unanimous approval in the U.S. Senate in a 96-0 vote and will serve in the federal District Court of Arizona.

"I feel privileged to serve in this new capacity and I am certainly grateful for all of the support that President Crow and the ASU community offered me throughout the confirmation process," Humetewa said.

This isn't the first time Humetewa has made her mark in history.

She was the first American Indian female to be appointed as a U.S. Attorney in 2007. During a long career in public service, she also served as counsel to the U.S. Senate Indian Affairs Subcommittee, then chaired by Sen. John McCain. Before the Senate vote, Senator McCain informed the Senate body of the historic nature of the vote.

As a Professor of Practice in the Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law and Special Advisor to the President, Humetewa taught Indian law and worked to improve the retention and success of American Indian students at the university.

"Diane Humetewa has excelled in efforts to bring higher education to American Indian people on tribal lands throughout the state and to improve their academic experience at the university," said ASU President Michael M. Crow. "We look forward to following her progress as she continues her exceptional career in public service."

Humetewa, who will leave ASU to serve on the federal district court, was chairperson of the ASU Tribal Liaison Advisory Committee and a member of the Provost's Native American Advisory Council. She worked to promote higher education opportunities among Arizona's tribes, notably with the Tribal Nations Tour that brought university students and staff to reservation communities.

Humetewa, a member of the Hopi tribe, was born and raised in Arizona. She began school on the Hualapai Reservation and traveled throughout Arizona's Indian country with her father, who worked for the Bureau of Indian Affairs. She maintains close ties to her family and culture on the Hopi reservation.

Humetewa received her Juris Doctor degree in 1993 from ASU's Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law and her bachelor's degree from ASU in 1987. She has served on the Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law Indian Legal Advisory Committee since 1997.

Lady Braves lack offense in first round of playoffs

SCOTT MCKIE B.P.
ONE FEATHER STAFF

The Lady Braves just couldn't get much offense going as they hosted East Wilkes in the first round of the 1A state playoffs on Wednesday, May 14. East Wilkes' Melia Higgins put two in the back of the net as they defeated Cherokee 2-0.

"It was a great season, a winning season," said Lady Braves head coach Sebastian Brun. "I think a lot of people grew, and we had a lot of good moments and a lot of good wins. I'm just disappointed with how the season ended with the result of this game."

"We never took shots when we had the shots," he continued. "Without taking shots, you can't score, and I'm thinking if we had taken shots a little quicker and not held onto the ball, I think it would have been a little different. I think we played evenly, but just a couple of little mistakes in the back...I'm just disappointed we didn't take our opportunities."

Cherokee senior Avery Mintz had four shots on the goal in the match, but just couldn't land one. Overall, East Wilkes had nine shots and Cherokee had six.

The Lady Braves came out rolling and Mintz had her first shot on goal at Cherokee sophomore Sidnie Yanez (#8) wins a header against East Wilkes' Hannah Holbrook during a match at Cherokee on Wednesday, May 14.

38:57 in the first half. East Wilkes kept the pressure on Cherokee and Abby Reeves got a nice shot off at 33:47 that was scooped up by Cherokee goalkeeper Anna Cline who had a total of four saves in the match. Ten minutes later, Mintz was determined and drove through the East Wilkes defenders twice. At the 23:24 mark, she drilled a ball on the right side that was just saved, and one ing, and at the 17:41 mark, Mintz put another hard shot at the goal that was deflected by an East Wilkes defender just before going into the goal.

East Wilkes had a couple of shots before the half-time as Maggie Weatherman sent one at the goal at 14:02 that was saved by Cline and Higgins shot one at 12:33 that went just wide right.

The teams headed into halftime at 0-0.

East Wilkes struck fast in the second half as Higgins got her first goal at the 35:28 mark. There was some confusion over the goal at first as Cline saved the ball from going in, but the official said she had crossed the plane of the goal with the ball.

Cline had two more saves in the next ten minutes of the game as East Wilkes kept the pressure on the Cherokee defense in the second half.

Cherokee senior Taran Swimmer found some daylight in the East Wilkes defense and got a shot off at 22:38 that went wide right. Several minutes later, Higgins got her second goal of the match as she took a cross from a corner kick and dropped the ball just past Cline.

Swimmer had a shot with six minutes left that went over the goal and Higgins had a shot with only 39 seconds left that went over as well. The match ended with East Wilkes on top 2-0.

Lady Braves fall to Swain in first round of playoffs

AMBLE SMOKER
ONE FEATHER STAFF

The Lady Braves fell to the Maroon Devils 5-0 on Tuesday, May 13 at the Swain County High School softball field during the first round of the 1A state playoffs.

"The season wasn't justifiable," said Lady Braves head coach Barry Reed. "We were a whole lot better team than we played like. We just didn't play the game like we were supposed to, but we practiced well and everything. We just didn't play the game like we were capable of."

The Lady Devils threatened early in the first inning by getting runners on the corners, but starting pitcher for the Lady Braves, Dre Crowe, pitched her way out of trouble by retiring the next two batters to end the frame. After giving up a two-shot homerun in the second to Swain's Brianna Steep, Crowe was able to use her arm again to escape further trouble, once again leaving runners stranded on the bases.

Offensively, the Lady Braves were unable to get the bats going as they were held to just 3 hits and 4 strikeouts on the evening. The Lady Braves started to gain some momentum in the fifth when a double from Kristen Driver drove base runner Lacey Arch to third. However, the momentum was short lived as they were unable to capitalize when both runners were left stranded on base to end the inning. The Lady Devils tacked on three more runs in the bottom of the fifth to bring the game to the final score of 5-0.

While the 2014 campaign may seem disappointing on the surface, the team still has a bright future to look forward to.

After the game, Coach Reed explained, "I can't say anything bad about the team. We had a good time. We just didn't play good ball when it came time to play it. I've got one senior (this year), so next season looks good providing we come out with a chip on our shoulder and win some ball games. Right now, it (the future) looks good, it looks bright. We have some good girls with good attitudes...they know how to catch. They know how to throw, and we've just got to put everything together. We even had the best pitcher in the conference."

As Coach Reed alluded to, a major bright spot on the season was junior pitcher Dre Crowe who entered the game with 122 strikeouts on the season and added seven more during the game to bring her yearly total to 129. Understanding it takes hard work and dedication to continue getting better, Crowe works on her pitching year around and plans to hit the batting cages over the summer to improve on her batting average.

When asked about her goals for next year, Crowe stated, "I plan to get my batting average up, maybe get some college coaches attention, and get more strikeouts."

TRACK & FIELD

Sutton takes second at State

ONE FEATHER STAFF REPORT

GREENSBORO – Cherokee senior Stevi Sutton took second place in the girls shot put at the 1A State Track & Field Championship at North Carolina A&T in Greensboro on Friday, May 9 with a throw of 35-7.50. She placed just inches behind Samantha Welborn, Starmount, who threw 35-10.75. Sutton also took fourth place in the girls discus with a throw of 105-03. Welborn won the discus event as well with a throw of 112-10.

"I am honored to have been Stevi's coach," said CHS field coach Miranda Long Stamper. "She is a great student athlete. She shows great sportsmanship to all of her competitors. She has worked hard all year en route to a state championship, but it just wasn't her day that day. I look forward to watching her continue her education and throwing endeavors at Wingate University!"

Sutton took first place at the Smoky Mountain Conference championship with a personal best throw of 36' 6", and she also won the 1A West Regional championship.

She was joined at the state meet by teammates Kendall Toineeta, a junior who took fourth place in the girls 800M run with a time of 2:24.28, and Anthony Toineeta, a freshman who took eighth place in the boys pole vault with a vault of 10-00. Malia Ellington, Community School, won the girls 800M with a time of 2:15.87 and Cooper Reinert, Swain County, won the boys pole vault with a vault of 12-06.

CHS head track coach Eddie Swimmer was very pleased with his team's efforts. "One performance doesn't quantify an athlete's ability and character. It's the work habits and the way they respond to a challenge both on and off the field. All of my state athletes are great representatives of Cherokee High School and the Cherokee Nation as a whole."

He is also looking to the future of CHS track, "I couldn't be more proud of each of them. I am proud of the whole track and field and cross country program. We have some state contenders and up-and-coming superstars. Just stay tuned and try to keep up! Go Braves!"

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations to the Pre-Kindergarten Braves Achievement Award winners! Reggie Thompson-Hyatt and Jamee McMillan were honored Friday, May 16 at Cherokee Central School's Pre-K Awards Program held in the Gathering Place.

Each year the Boys Club sponsors the Braves Achievement Awards to recognize students from Pre-K through 12th Grade who have shown the most achievement in their class over the course of the school year. These are students who have worked hard to advance their level of learning and participation in their class. One boy and one girl from each grade receive an award.

MEMORIAL DAY HOLIDAY

The Boys Club will be closed on Monday, May 26 to observe the Memorial Day Holiday. Memorial Day is a US Federal Holiday where the men and women who died while serving in the United States Armed Forces are remembered. This holiday, celebrated each year on the last Monday in May, was also known as Decoration Day and started after the Civil War to commemorate the Union and Confederate soldiers who died in the Civil War.

Many people visit cemeteries and memorials in rural areas, notably in the mountains, to put flowers on graves of ancestors as well as those who were recently deceased and buried. Sometimes families reunite for a family reunion and hold a "dinner on the ground". We appreciate all those men and women who died for our country and we appreciate all those men and women who continue to serve our country today.

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations to Gina Lambert, daughter of Patrick and Cindy Lambert, who graduated from the University of North Dakota on Saturday, May 10. Gina received her Juris Doctor degree along with a Certificate of Indian Law. Gina also received an Indian Law Certificate which is awarded to students who complete a minimum of 17 course hours in federal and tribal law.

Gina has been a recipient of the Club's Beck Scholarship for the past few years. This scholarship is awarded to students pursuing a law degree. We are very proud of Gina's accomplishments!

CONGRATULATIONS

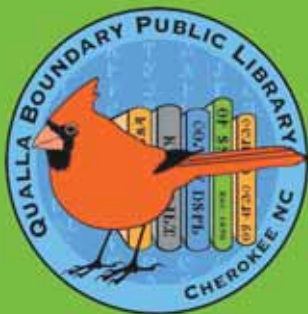

Congratulations to Lady Braves Runner Kendall Toineeta who placed 4th in State competition in the 800 meter run. Congratulations to Braves Pole Vaulter Anthony Toineeta for an 8th place finish in State competition with a 10.00 foot vault. This is a CHS Record and a great showing for this freshman! Congratulations also to Stevi Sutton who placed fourth in discus with a 105'8" throw and for placing second in shot put. Great job!

THOUGHTS AND PRAYERS

Please keep Robert Lambert in your thoughts and prayers. Robert underwent knee replacement surgery Monday and will be out for several weeks. Robert is the Assistant Manager of the Shop, a full-time bus driver and Vice President of the Club's Board of Directors.

Our sincere sympathy goes to the friends and family of Donna Sue West who passed away on Monday, May 12. Donna is survived by her husband of 50 years Johnnie Ray West. CPF launches website redesign

The Cherokee Preservation Foundation (CPF) announced its newly designed website at www.cherokeepreservation.org. The website's fresh new look, user-friendly navigation, calendar of current events and search functionality are some of the features making the new site easier to learn about what the CPF does, why they do what they do, and how to get involved.

The redesigned site has several easy to use drop-down menus with updated information about CPF's major initiatives and programs. The new design allows users to quickly find content and easily access news, events and resources.

"Our rebranding, new slogan and new website comprise the new face of the CPF. Beneath this new exterior, our core remains the same. When you have a few minutes, please review our new site. You will feel the commitment, the passion, and dedication of everyone in the CPF family," said CPF's executive director Annette Clapsaddle.

"We hope you take some time to look around, and continue allowing us to keep you up-to-date on all you need to know about the CPF."

George Vernon Sneed went home

We wanted to let everyone know how grateful we are for the heartfelt words and kindness we were shown when Dad went home to heaven. Our family could not have gotten through one day without the Good Lord and all of your prayers. It was obvious by the remarkable doctors, nurses, flowers, singing, Long House Funeral Home, friends, last call by Cherokee Fire Department and last ride with all the motorcycles that George Sneed was loved. All of you together made it easier to accept that he had gone on to a better place and we could rest easier knowing we will hug him again one day in Gloryland.

Family is always a blessing and incredible source of strength for us. Thank you Chase Sneed and Calloway Ledford for making those important calls. That last call for 201 touched our hearts. The roar of the bikes would've brought a big smile to Dad's face. It was touching and meaningful. We are thankful Leenard brought the Colorado Quartet even though they forgot their music.

Rock Springs Baptist Church is an amazing church family! The singing, sermon, and hugs made us realize why it was easy for Dad to love you all. We are thankful to God for sharing Dad with us for 72 years. We know he is without pain in a beautiful place listening to Poncho and Lefty in a Carolina Blue Mansion walking the streets of gold. We love you all and hope that one day we can repay all the kindness we were shown.

Always Grateful,

The Family of George Vernon Sneed, Sr.

Memorial Day 2014: We Remember

CDR. LEW HARDING

AMERICAN LEGION POST 143

On Memorial Day, Monday, May 26, our nation honors its fallen heroes. In Cherokee, at the Yellowhill Veterans Memorial Cemetery, our ceremony will be at 11am. Please come and be with us as we pause to remember those who gave all of their tomorrows to ensure that ours would be free. We are all indebted to them. Their names are chiseled in stone on thousands of white markers standing in uniform rows around the world.

In World War II, 16 million Americans served, and 406,000 fell. Around the world, over 53 million lives were lost. In Korea, over 43,000 Americans died. In Vietnam, 58,267 and Iraq/Afghanistan took the lives of 4,494 military men and women plus tens of thousands of other civilians and military casualties.

Some of the motivations for these wars were misguided, some would say foolish, not very well thought out and poorly led. Planning for the aftermath of these conflicts in caring for our veterans has been, in some quarters, criminally-deficient. Our veterans sacrificed because many back home would not, going about their business as if the nation were not at war.

Now, after spending about a trillion dollars on the last two conflicts, scandals have exploded at six regional Veterans Affairs Centers. The bureaucracies allegedly used creative sleight of hand to obscure the fact that some of our seriously wounded warriors were not getting the medical help that they needed, and were promised, in a timely manner. Some 40 veterans have died while waiting. This is unconscionable, a national tragedy. Fortunately, the leadership and staff of our Charles George Medical Center in Asheville has not been part of this process and has responded to our needs in an excellent manner. We are thankful for that, and we ask that it continue.

The promises we made, we have to keep. Healing the wounds of war is many times a very long process. The sacrifices that we honor on Memorial Day should never be taken for granted. The spirit of patriotism and love of country is not buried with our loved ones up on Yellowhill and around the world. It lives on.

On this Memorial Day, let us pledge ourselves anew to our Country and be the friend and brother, son and mother to those who have lost loved ones. They won freedom for friend and foe alike, and we are forever in their debt. We are all beneficiaries of their love of country, and we will never, never forget.

CCS approved as free feeding site

Cherokee Central Schools has been approved as a free summer feeding site for the Seamless Summer Option Program from June 10-30. Breakfast will be served from 7:30-8am and lunch from 11:30am – 12pm. The summer feeding program operates under the USDA.

All individuals who are 18 years of age and under, as well as those over 18 who meet the state agencies' definition of mentally or physically disabled, may receive free meals which will be served in the school cafeterias at Cherokee Elementary and Cherokee High Schools. Participants with special diet needs must turn in a written diet order from their current health care provider to the child nutrition director or the cafeteria manager in advance. You are asked to provide a proper notice so that they can ensure meals are available upon your arrival.

EBCI WIC to implement new computer system

The EBCI WIC Program will be utilizing a new computer system called Crossroads. North Carolina is one of several states that will be changing to the new system.

All the foods, except formula, will be grouped together for everyone in the family who is on WIC. The parent's or guardian's name will now appear on the WIC checks, not that of individual participants. The check color is the same. The "Issue Date" will change to "First Date to Spend". The "Participant Must Use By" date will change to "Last Date to Spend". The wording may look smaller and different and the foods may be described in a different way, but you will receive the same amount of food each month as before.

The EBCI WIC staff will be starting the new system on Monday, June 23.

EBCI WIC officials related, "We ask that you please be patient with us while we are starting this system. As you know, practice makes perfect and starting anything new takes some time. Eventually, we will be used to the system and can operate faster and more efficiently for our clients."

The EBCI WIC Program is a special supplemental Nutrition Program for Women, Infants, and Children and is open to all eligible persons regardless of race, color, sex, national origin or disability.

Diabetic Eye Exam Drive

The Cherokee Indian Hospital Eye Care and Diabetes programs have joined forces to increase the number of Diabetic Retinopathy (eye exam) screening provided in our community. Their goal is to do 500 exams before June 30.

If you are diabetic and have not had an exam in the last year, come by the Cherokee Eye Care center on Acquoni Road from 8am – 4pm Monday - Thursday, walk-ins welcome. Call 497-9163, ex. 6495 for more information.

You can also visit the Cherokee Diabetes Program – walk-ins welcome on Wednesday mornings and Friday afternoons. Info: 497-1991.

The eye exam takes about 15 minutes, and if you're diabetic, it can help prevent blindness. Diabetic Retinopathy occurs when there is a weakening or swelling of the tiny blood vessels in the retina or back of your eye, resulting in blood leakage, the growth of new blood vessels and other changes. If diabetic retinopathy is left untreated, blindness can result.

If you are diabetic and get a Diabetic Eye Exam before June 30, you will receive a $5 gift card and be entered to win a new Ipod.

E-cigarettes: The new poison

ANDREA CRISP, RN, BSN
CHEROKEE COMMUNITY HEALTH

It has long been known that cigarette smoking is bad for your health. Since the 1960's, warnings about cancer and dangers to unborn babies has made the news. Manufacturers have looked for ways to help people quit smoking. One of the most popular growing trends is e-cigarettes or vapor cigarettes. These cigarettes are battery powered and most deliver a dose of nicotine, as well as some other flavor which may appeal to younger teens and children. Many people believe these have been taunted as safer than traditional cigarettes.

Vapor cigarettes became

available in the United States in 2007. These vapors are not regulated by the Food and Drug Administration(FDA). Because of this lack of regulation, nicotine content can vary in these vapors from 0 to 7.2 percent per 100 milliliter bottle. Most states have no laws concerning the sale of e-cigarettes to minors. Vapor can be sold in small vials and large bottles.

Calls to US Poison control centers have risen sharply in recent years. In 2010, they received one call per month.

Recent reports quote as many as 215 calls per month. The majority of calls are about children under 5 ingesting the liquid. The product is not required to have childproof lids.

Nicotine can be lethal to a child even in small quantities. Problems have occurred from inhaling the vapors for extended periods, spilling the vapor liquid onto skin or ingesting it. While there have been no known reported deaths, it is estimated that as little as a teaspoon could be lethal to a small child.

Always keep the number to Poison Control available. 1-800-222-1222.
