New Children's Home construction progressing, funding still needed

SCOTT MCKIE B.P. ONE FEATHER STAFF

Ground was broken around two years ago on the new Cherokee Children's Home, and construction is moving along. The new home is being built on 28 acres located on Goose Creek Road in the Birdtown Community. When finished, it will consist of two cottages each with nine beds and other amenities.

"The first home is 60 percent complete," said Cristopher Weatherford, Cherokee Children's Home director. "This is the larger of the two homes as it houses our administrative offices as well as a 3,000 square foot multi-use finished basement. The Cherokee Boys Club (CBC) construction department is working with Western Builders to install the siding of the first home as the sheetrock is being installed. Once siding installation is complete, nearly all of the work will be interior."

Weatherford said the second home is 30 percent complete. Roof work is currently being done as well as inside electrical and plumbing work. Once that work is finished, CBC crews will shingle the home.

"There is still a great deal to be accomplished for the project to reach completion," noted Weatherford who said the estimated funding needed to finish the project is around $400,000. The total cost projection for the project is $1.6 million and Weatherford said they have raised $1.2 million.

An opening date has not been set yet, but Weatherford hopes to be in the first home by Feburary 2015. "Since we are operating out of one home currently, I can hopefully hire and train new staff in the first home to be ready for the second home to open, maybe late spring." Weatherford said fundraising has been "steady" and he is happy with several grants they have received from the Cherokee Preservation Foundation and the HUD Indian Community Development Block Grant. Other funds have come from the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians in the form of a $400,000 donation.

"The dedicated employees of the Cherokee Boys Club responded with 76 percent participation in a payroll deduction campaign in 2012," he said. "We have been working during the Tribe's open enrollment season to offer this cent complete.

deduction campaign opportunity to all tribal employees. We are not asking for a lot, though our need is great. If every tribal employee could contribute $1 to $3 per pay period, it would add up to a sizable donation."

Tribal employees wishing to participate in a deduction can obtain the forms from the Cherokee Children's Home office or at the Tribal Payroll Office.

Weatherford said fundraising for the Home is sometimes difficult. "Many in this area assume we are a tribal program and that the Tribe should just build us this building. We are not a tribal program or in their budget structure."

He added, "Despite this, we still feel blessed and hopeful that this project will be completely timely. There are children in our community and children who have been placed outside of this community that need a safe, stable, nurturing environment to live while those work to strengthen their future."

The Cherokee Children's Home was established in 1969 and has been the permanent or temporary home for over 1,700 Cherokee youth over the years.

Two Cherokee ladies were at the forefront of the effort to have the new home built. Francine Watty and her aunt, Gunnie Bradley, approached Tribal Council several years ago and asked that funds be found for a new facility.

H.C.D REHAB COLD WEATHER TIPS

 Replace dirty Air filters in heating & cooling systems for better performance this is the cheapest and simplest way to save money Set your thermostat at 68 or below and then forget about it .If you change the temperature a lot during the day you will be wasting energy

 Get your heating equipment checked out before we get too deep into winter. If your equipment does need repair or replaced do not wait. Today's energy efficient units is likely to pay for itself by saving energy

• Most ceiling fans have a reverse mode for winter that pulls the warm air down towards floor level

 Check well house to make sure heat tape is working properly & replace light bulb.

Cover drafty windows with a plastic sheeting. Install weather stripping around drafty doors

 Have gutters cleaned to keep water from freezing & backing up on to the roof

 In extreme cold weather it's best to keep the faucets open to allow water to flow this will keep your pipes from freezing

And always keep your pets in mind when cold weather hits!!!!!!

Panther named Cherokee Indian Hospital's Employee of the Year

ach year, Cherokee ✓ Indian Hospital recognizes one of its employees as "Employee of the Year", and the winner for 2014 is Christina Panther, manager of the Supply Department. A criterion for this award is integrity, responsiveness, teamwork, and innovation. Nominations are made by co-workers. The nominations are copied and distributed to a panel of reviewers who score them individually and finally the scores are tallied and ranked. Prizes include a coveted employee parking space, gift cards, education funding, and a Cherokee Indian Hospital desk clock.

"When Christina is faced with a job she doesn't understand, she researches and learns about the job and gets it done," Hospital officials said. "This includes the purchase and implantation of the MRI, the new Hospital Equipment and Capital acquisition, and the Renovation of the Immediate Care Clinic." In 2009, annual supply costs escalated approximately $150,000 in a single year and since that time Panther and her team have brought that back into control and minimized the growth to approximately $25,000 over the past five years.

"She is vital to all of our special projects, like the Pharmacy Renovation, Eye Clinic, and Pediatrics Clinic. In addition to all of her other duties, she is the hospital's lead on furniture, fixtures and equipment for the new facility. She has saved the project a significant amount of money using our vendors and purchasing power for equipment acquisition reducing some department expense by more than 10 percent. She is diligent, committed to the success of the organization and a role model for stewardship."

Other nominees this year included: Chenoa Gass, leader for the Healthy Heart Initiative; Kayla Holland, nurse educator; Brenda Johnson, billing department; Amanda Ledford, physical therapy department; Angela Long, diabetes program; Sally Penicks, infection control and employee health nurse; and Darlene Walker, diabetes program.

Same-sex marriage ban introduced to Tribal Council

A n ordinance amendment that would ban same-sex marriages on tribal lands of the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians has been submitted to Tribal Council. The amendment to Cherokee Code Section 50-1, submitted by Denny Crowe, Bo Parris, Ben Reed and Gilbert Breedlove, was deemed read and tabled during the regular Tribal Council meeting on Thursday, Nov. 6.

The amendment, if passed, would add the following sentence to the end of Section 50-1, "The licensing and solemnization of same sex marriages are not allowed within this jurisdiction." The legislation submitted by Crowe, Parris, Reed and Breedlove states, "The Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians for generation upon generation have recognized a marriage to consist of the union between a man and a woman."

It goes on to state, "Recent court cases throughout the country on this topic have triggered the local review and response of strengthening the laws within this jurisdiction to best protect the institution or marriage."

Ordinances that have been deemed read have a 30-day period before they can be acted upon. - One Feather staff report

FOOTBALL Mintz nets 167 total yards in back-up status

SCOTT MCKIE B.P. ONE FEATHER STAFF

OBBINSVILLE – Tye Mintz, filling in at guarterback for an injured Brandon Buchanan, netted a total of 167 yards on Friday, Nov. 7 as the Braves (3-8) traveled to Robbinsville to take on the undefeated Robbinsville Black Knights (11-0). Mintz completed 19 of 34 passes for 136 yards and 1TD and ran 10 times for 31 yards and another score, but the Black Knights were just too much on the cold night as they came away with the victory 50-20.

Logan Teesateskie led the Braves defense with 15 tackles followed by Jaron Bradley with 14 and Kennan Panther, who is second in the state in tackles, with 12. Teesateskie also had two interceptions in the game.

The first half was all Robbinsville as they scored five times with Skyler Matheson being involved in three of those. He started out with a 54-yard touchdown run less than a minute in. Then, later in the first quarter, Cruz Galaviz ran it in from 9 yards out for the score.

Two minutes into the second quarter, Matheson threw a 14-yard touchdown pass to Lane Milsaps and five minutes later Matheson ran for a 17yard score. Millsaps followed that with a 4-yard run with just one minute left in the quarter and Robbinsville took a 36-0 lead into the locker room.

Cherokee came back in the third quarter firing. They started the first possession at their own 35yard line and put together an 8-play drive that culminated in a 15-yard touchdown run by Mintz. The two point conversion was no good and Robbinsville led 36-6 at the 8:17 mark of the third.

Robbinsville started their next possession at their own 42-yard line, but they wouldn't have it long as Teesateskie intercepted the ball at the Robbinsville 45. Nine plays later, Mintz hit Jason McMillan in the dark corner of the end zone for a touchdown. McMillan then caught the two-point conversion from Mintz to make it 36-14 at the 3:34 mark.

Robbinsville had great field possession following an onside kick try by the Braves, and on the next play, Matheson hit Chandler Jumper for a 6-yard touchdown pass. The point-after was good and Robbinsville extended its lead to 43-14 with three minutes left in the third.

The Braves had to turn the ball over on downs on the next possession, and Robbinsville started from their own 41-yard line. Three plays later, Matheson ran it in from 12 yards out for his third rushing touchdown of the game. The point-after was good and Robbinsville led 50-14 with 9:44 left in the game.

Braves fans got a chance to warm up though as McMillan took the ensuing kickoff 84 yards to the house. The two-point try failed and Robbinsville led 50-20 which is how the game would end.

The Braves travel to Pine Lake Prep for the first round of the 1A state playoffs on Friday, Nov. 14 with a scheduled kickoff at 7:30pm.

AMBLE SMOKER ONE FEATHER STAFF

INEHURST - The Lady Braves Golf team made school history at Cherokee High School by sending two members to the NCHSAA State Finals on Oct. 27 and 28. The 36-hole tournament was held on the 5,703 yard, par-72 Red Fox (West) Course at the Firefox Resort and Golf Club in Pinehurst.

Seventy-eight golfers, out of a field of over 1,200 ladies from across the state, qualified for the opportunity to play in the two-day 1A/2A tournament. Cherokee's Bree Stamper and Peri Wildcatt were among those who qualified. "Bree and Peri had excellent play on both days with the exception of one or two holes, which killed their overall scores," said Coach Sharon Bradley. The course was beautiful with hat a difference a week makes! The 2014 Cracker Bowl, postponed from last weekend due to snow and ice, was played on a beautiful, sunny day at Ray Kinsland Stadium on Saturday, Nov. 8. The Pee Wee Braves were the runner-up in their division to the Robbinsville Pee Wee Black Knights who edged Cherokee 6-0 in a defensive struggle.

Grace Yatawara, from Salisbury High School, finished in first place in the two-day tournament onestroke over par with a 145.

"We've come a long way from the first practice to now," said Brian Thompson, Pee Wee Braves head coach. "These guys have improved a whole lot, and I'm proud of each and every one of them. It's unbelievable how much they've improved. This was the first year for some of them. I'm looking forward to next year and getting back in this championship game."

Robbinsville scored on their first possession, a 10play drive that ate up almost seven minutes on the clock and culminated in a 15-yard touchdown run by Isaac Collins. The twopoint conversion failed and the Black Knights led 6-0 with 1:42 left in the first quarter.

half was a series of punts. The third quarter was much the same with both teams having drives that stalled and resulted in punts.

Following a Robbinsville punt, Cherokee started from their own 26yard line with just over four minutes left in the game. On first down, Javon Garcia, Pee Wee Braves running back, broke several tackles and ran the ball 74 yards down the right sideline into the end zone for the apparent game-tying score. But, a holding penalty negated the score.

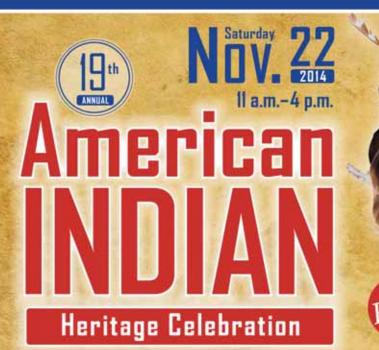

Cherokee was unable to move the ball following the penalty and turned the ball over on downs with just over a minute remaining in the contest. Robbinsville simply ran out the clock to take their second consecutive Cracker Bowl Championship.

Inaugural Christmas Celebration kicks off in Cherokee

ROBERT JUMPER ONE FEATHER EDITOR

he Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians will premiere its first multi-week Christmas event on Friday, Nov. 28. The holiday season is fast approaching and the Tribe will celebrate with an event titled "Cherokee Lights and Legends Christmas" at the Cherokee Indian Fairgrounds from Nov. 28 to Jan. 3, 2015. The event will feature "larger-thanlife" custom light displays, a synthetic 40' x 80' ice skating rink, local food vendors, musical entertainment including live bands, carnival rides and more.

"We are very excited to offer this new event to our community and visitors," said Jason Lambert, EBCI Commerce Division director. "Christmas is a wonderful time of the year and deserves to be celebrated. We hope that the unique Cherokee twist will be enjoyed by all who visit."

The centerpieces of the event will be the uniquely-Cherokee light sculptures. Planned for the event are a mountain top clan feature (24 feet in height), life-size elk herds and depictions of Cherokee legends like "How the Bear Lost His Tail" and more. These sculptures are professional renderings with sharp detail. Traditional Christmas light displays will also be on hand, including a life-sized Nativity scene.

Ice skating will be located on the Fairgrounds. Synthetic ice is commonly used throughout America. It is durable, slick and is not affected by changes in temperature. You may bring your own ice skates or rent those at the Fairground.

Live entertainment will be on hand for the event. On Saturday, Dec. 13, nationally-known blue grass band Balsam Range will perform at Fairgrounds. Elvis tribute artist Chris Monteith, who has won several awards for his impersonation of the King of Rock and Roll, will be on stage on Thursday, Dec. 6, Thursday, Dec. 20 and Saturday, Jan. 3.

Several other local artists, individuals and groups, are scheduled to perform throughout the month. Of course, Santa will also be in attendance.

There will be a Christmas Bazaar in the Exhibit Hall throughout the event. Local crafters and artisans will fill the Hall with items perfect for the holidays and "Christmas is a wonderful time of the year and deserves to be celebrated. We hope that the unique Cherokee twist will be enjoyed by all who visit."

holiday gift giving.

The event coordinators are still taking vendors for the Bazaar and entertainment for the nightly performances. To sign up, contact the Cherokee Welcome Center 554-6490 or stop by the center at 498 Tsali Boulevard across from the Fairgrounds.

Cherokee Lights and Legends will be held Wednesday through Saturday starting Friday, Nov. 28 and concluding Jan. 3, 2015 (closed December 24 and 25). Wednesday and Thursday hours of operation will be 5-9 pm. Friday and Saturday hours will be 5-10 pm. Special hours will be observed on New Year's Eve with gates opening at 5pm and closing at 12:30am.

General admission will be $5 for 13 years old and older. Ages 6 years to 12 years old will be $3. All children 5 years of age and younger may enjoy the event free. Nov. 28, Dec. 6 and Dec. 31 will be designated as "Community Nights" and EBCI tribal members and members of any other federally recognized tribes will receive free admission. Tribal ID card or other proof of enrollment will be required.

To kick off the event, a specially-designed, 40-foot Christmas tree will be erected at the Fairgrounds. There will be a tree lighting ceremony at 5:30 on opening day, Nov. 28.

If you would like to know more about Cherokee Lights and Legends Christmas, contact the Cherokee Welcome Center or visit www.visitcherokeenc.com.

veterans corner Charles George, Cherokee hero

n Tuesday, Nov. 11, American citizens from around the country celebrated the heroism of active and retired military soldiers from the United States Armed Forces. Nov. 11 is a day to remember and celebrate all military veterans who selflessly served their country. While there are countless US veteran heroes from around the globe, Cherokee was home to one, out of the many, brave soldiers, Private First Class Charles George.

The Charles George name emblazons several structures in and around the Cherokee community in honor and reverence for the quite man from Birdtown. The most notable structures include the recently dedicated Charles George Memorial Bridge, the Charles George Arena at the Cherokee Central Schools, and the Charles George VA Medical Center in Asheville.

While many are familiar with the name, it is imperative to remember the brave gallantry of the man who sacrificed his own life to defend his country and save the lives of his friends in his unit. Charles George enlisted in the United States Army at the age of 18 in March 1951. George received his basic training at Fort Jackson, SC, infantry training at Ft. Benning, Ga., and advanced combat training in Japan before being assigned to Company C, 179th Infantry Regiment, and 45th Infantry Division. Soon after completing his training, he was sent to Korea in September 1951 to fight in the Korean War.

According to a biography in "One of Many Feathers" by the U.S. Department of Veteran Affairs, "Charles George was born in the Birdtown community of Cherokee, North Carolina on August 23, 1932. A full-blooded Cherokee and member of the Bird Clan, Charles George (Charlie) grew up alongside the Oconaluftee River with his family, living a simple mountain life. Charlie attended the Indian School in the Qualla Boundary of Western North Carolina, and he spent most of his free time hunting and fishing."

"His parents named him Tsali, which translates into English as Charlie or Charles. In Cherokee history, Tsali is a name synonymous with self-sacrifice. In 1838, during the midst of Cherokee removal to Oklahoma, the legendary hero Tsali selflessly gave his life, so that some of his people could remain in the ancestral homeland. Carrying the name of an ancient hero of his people, Charles George was a quiet young man growing up in the small, isolated mountain community of Birdtown. The George family home place was situated beside the Oconaluftee River, and Charles (or Charlie, as his family and friends called him) would often spend his afternoons swimming and fishing in the river. Always taking time to speak to passers-by and offer them fish he had caught that day, Charlie was someone who thought beyond himself. It was instinctual. He was of the Bird Clan, he was Cherokee, and he was an American. When his country went to war, Charlie could not stay in the Qualla Boundary. He was compelled by honor, tradition, and instinct to take up arms and protect his country."

THANK YOU! SHERIFF CURTIS COCHRAN

An Honest, Dependable, and Experienced Sheriff

First and foremost, I want to thank God for allowing me to be your Sheriff again. Thanks to my family who stood by me through the good times, as well as the rough times, and to all my friends and supporters that believed in our vision; without you this victory would not be possible. Thank you for the vote of confidence in this election. Thanks to everyone who worked hard on Election Day at the polls. THANK YOU and I look forward to another 4 years as your Sheriff.

Thank you from the family of Brianna Bradley

e would like to express our deepest gratitude during the devastating time of our loss. Thank you to everyone who called or came to visit, brought food, sent flowers, and those who kept us in your thoughts and prayers in our time of loss; we are very grateful. A special thanks to Long House funeral home for arranging and conducting a beautiful service and to Pastor Jimmy Lambert for officiating the service and burial. Thanks to Tribal Construction and the grave diggers for preparing Bri's final resting place at Saunooke Family Cemetery and to all the groups who came to sing. Thank you to Cherokee Indian Hospital ER department, Cherokee Police department, and to Tribal EMS for your service and assistance during this difficult time. To thank everyone individually would be a struggle because so many people were there for us and we would hate to leave anyone out. We are very grateful for all of the people who were there for us during this tough time. Words cannot express the appreciation we have for all of our extended family and friends who helped us get through our time of sorrow. Please continue to keep our family in your thoughts and prayers as we continue to struggle with our loss each and everv day.

WCU Cherokee Center Update

he EBCI day at Catamount football held on Saturday, Nov. 1 saw the coldest day of the year so far. Although the Catamounts lost to Chattanooga and we had 120 left over hotdogs from our tailgating, I still send thanks out to everyone who braved the cold to come to this game. The football program was still excited that we have gotten this underway, and we've already started talking about next year. Former Principal Chief and current member of the Board of Trustees for WCU, Joyce Dugan, performed the coin toss and is shown in the accompanying photo.

Reader agrees with importance of voting hank you Mr. Jumper for the article on the importance of voting. This is one of the most important rights that we have as Americans whether we are Cherokees, other tribes, etc. This hopefully keeps the politicians forewarned and aware of the power of the vote.

We, as Cherokees, must, must exercise our right to vote, both in Tribal elections and the national elections. We also must research the facts and the folks that are running for office on the national scene as it pertains to moral, ethical, civil, and what is just plain right for the electorate.

I personally served along with millions of others in the military and one of the reasons among many is that we served and fought for American's right to exercise their vote and for basic freedoms. This Veteran's Day and all through the year remember the sacrifices that all of our brothers and sisters in uniform made for our respective Tribes and for the country as a whole.

Request for Proposals (RFP) Website Developer INTRODUCTION

The National American Indian Housing Council (NAIHC) is looking for a website developer. NAIHC has a website created approximately 6 years ago which consists of static website pages and has about 50 pages, with approximately 3 photographs per page at www.naihc.net.

SCOPE OF SERVICES

NAIHC is interested in receiving proposals to create a dynamic website with approximately 50 pages to be stored on our server.

The finished product should accomplish the following:

• Provide visitors with information about NAIHC and the services and programs NAIHC provides.

• Have a consistent look and feel to all pages (fonts, graphics and color schemes).

- Load rapidly and provide easy navigation between pages.
- Contain links to other related websites and social media outlets.
- Be registered with the major search engines to ensure the website is listed
- Be Search Engine Optimized so the website can be found when Internet users search for the website using keyword phrases.

• Have the capabilities for email newsletters, fundraising, petition signing and other methods of civic engagement, blogs for major NAIHC programs and areas of interest,

• Use a Content Management System (CMS) capable of being maintained and updated by NAIHC staff.

• Allow NAIHC staff to upload images and place into website pages when needed.

• Allow NAIHC staff to easily create and add new website pages when needed.

• Expected launch date of new website is early January 2015.

Please submit electronically by 5:00 P.M. eastern time, Wednesday, November 19, 2014 to: dsanborn@naihc.net. 11/13
