he Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians has a new ambassador. Kristina Hyatt won the 2011 Miss Cherokee title at the annual pageant held at the Cherokee Cultural Arts Center on Saturday, Oct. 1.

"I feel so honored," she said after being crowned. "I am looking forward to the year and being able to work with many people."

Hyatt , 22, is the daughter of Lavon and Gloria Hyatt. She is a senior at UNC – Asheville and is from the Big Cove Community.

For her talent, Hyatt performed the Cherokee Horse Dance. During the public speaking portion of the pageant, she spoke on the importance of family.

Karyl Frankiewicz was named 1st runner-up and Trae Crowe was named 2nd runner-up. Frankiewicz described various Cherokee arts and crafts for her talent and spoke on the Cherokee Matriarchal Society. Crowe performed the Cherokee Peace Pipe Dance and spoke on mentoring youth.

Eddie Swimmer served as the master of ceremonies for the event and Regina Swimmer sang the "Star Span"I feel so honored. I am looking forward to the year and being able to work with many people."

INAUGURATION 2011

"Today is not a day we have made. It is a day we have realized."

- Principal Chief Michell Hicks from his Inaugural Address

By SCOTT MCKIE B.P. ONE FEATHER STAFF

Join us today for a day of joy, thanksgiving and pride," said Brandon Stephens as he opened the 2011 Inauguration of the leaders of the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians. The event, held in the Council Fire Ballroom at Harrah's Cherokee Casino & Hotel on Monday, Oct. 3, included the swearing-in ceremonies for the offices of Principal Chief, Vice Chief, Tribal Council and three Cherokee School Board members.

"You will not find another community like this anywhere," said Tribal Elder Jerry Wolfe who gave the opening prayer. "We have it right here in Cherokee."

Principal Chief Michell Hicks and Vice Chief Larry Blythe were sworn in for their third consecutive terms in office marking the first time in the Tribe's history that has occurred.

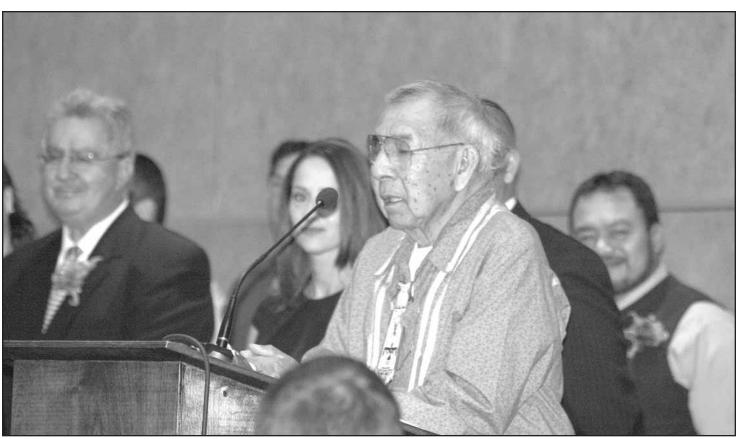

Eleven of the twelve members of Tribal Council were sworn in at the event including: Big Cove Rep. Perry Shell, 5th term; Big Cove Rep. Bo Taylor, 1st term; Birdtown Rep. Jim Owle, 7th term; Birdtown Rep. Gene "Tunney" Crowe, 2nd term; Cherokee County – Snowbird Rep. Diamond Brown, Jr., 2nd term; Cherokee County - Snowbird Rep. Adam Wachacha, 2nd term; Painttown Rep. Tommye Saunooke, 7th term; Wolftown Rep. Bill Taylor, 2nd term; Wolftown Rep. Mike Parker, 5th term; Yellowhill Rep. David Wolfe, 4th term; and Yellowhill Rep. Alan "B" Ensley, 9th term.

Painttown Rep. Terri Henry related that she disagreed with the location of the event and chose to be sworn in prior to the inauguration at the Tribal Council House.

Three members of the Cherokee School Board were sworn in at the Inauguration including: Painttown – Charlotte Saunooke, Big Y/Wolftown – John Dick Crowe and Yellowhill – T.W. (Price) Saunooke.

Prior to giving his inaugural address, Chief Hicks thanked his wife Marsha. "She's my backbone. I want to thank her for her support."

He also thanked his children, "I love you guys and I love our Tribe." Chief Hicks said one thing the Tribe has been doing well is reaching out to others on the state and federal level. And, that was apparent as a number of dignitaries were in attendance at Monday's event including: former Principal Chiefs Joyce Dugan and Jonathan "Ed" Taylor; Congressman Heath Shuler (D-NC); Cara Cowan Watts, acting speaking of the Cherokee Nation Tribal Council; State Senator Jim Davis; former State Senator John Snow; North Carolina Lieutenant Gov. Walter Dalton; Troy Wayne Poteete, Cherokee Nation Supreme Court Justice; Asheville mayor Terry Bellamy; and NASCAR legend Harry Gant.

"Today is not a day we have made," said Chief Hicks in his address. "It is a day we have realized."

He said he dreams of a day when Cherokee people will not be divided by tribal lines or political factions. "As you're sitting here today or travel home to your families, I ask you to carry one question with you – one essential consideration; does true Cherokee blood run through your veins?"

Chief Hicks went on to say, "The promise we seek of unity and prosperity requires more of us than an official title or government-issued ID card. It requires binding blood of Cherokee courage; the blood that courses through our veins and enables us to act when we're called."

He stressed the importance of working together for the future of the entire Tribe. "We are a new generation of Cherokees with a resounding voice."

Vice Chief Blythe thanked his family and the members of the Tribe and said he wants to concentrate on several issues in the next term including housing, employment opportunities and education.

"I'm very honored, he said. "I'm very humbled."

To thunderous applause from the audience, Vice Chief Blythe did send a message to Gov. Beverly Perdue during his remarks. "She needs to sign our compact agreement."

He went on to thank his church and told of his recent Baptismal. "I want to thank my God."

"I consider every single one of you in this room my friend," said Vice Chief Blythe, "And, it's a pleasure to work for you and work with you."

The Steve Youngdeer American Legion Post 143 Color Guard presented the colors at the opening and closing of the inauguration. Musical selections

Inaugural Address by Principal Chief Michell Hicks

s da su na le i (Good Morning,) u do hi yu ga lv gwo di yu tsi' tsi lu gi (I'm honored by your presence/attendance.) u li he li sdi a gv ya di tlv ni ga dv na de gv i hia de ga si'ta'di sgv i (I am grateful to take this oath before you).

Today is not a day we have made. It is day we have realized. It is a small piece in a much larger plan, but it is a day that also comes with immense responsibility. I have sworn an oath before you and (the) Almighty God (Creator), an oath long understood, if not recorded, by our ancestral leaders, an oath of honest, forthright, and just leadership. An oath that does not name me your leader, but instead names us all partners in discerning the future direction of the Eastern Band.

We celebrate today, a moment not of political victory, not of prescribed ceremony, nor merely of inevitable transition. Instead, we are summoned here today to acknowledge an eternal promise, the celebration of one people, not of one person; and together, reconcile all things... to realize our mutual destination.

Before the Cherokee were a collective, before our identity as one people was written into the soil of this earth, a promise was spoken. This promise assures us that one day all Cherokees will return to the place of our ancestral birth, Kituwah, and once again join together as brothers and sisters to protect the eternal flame as one blood; no longer Eastern Band, Western Band, United Kituwah; no longer divided by political factions or selfish wants. This day, though yet unrealized, colors our horizon and plots our path.

As you assemble here today or travel home to your families, I ask that you carry one question with you, one essential consideration. Does true Cherokee blood run through your veins? No... I'm not asking you to examine your enrollment card or take a blood test. I'm not asking you to research your family tree. I'm asking you if your heart beats with pride when Walker Calhoun leads a morning song. I'm asking you if your muscles have the survivor scars of Tsali. I'm asking you if your body can adapt without compromising your soul. If your mind and spirit can excel when called to excel. You see, the promise we seek of unity, of prosperity, requires more of us than an official title or government issued I.D. card. It requires the binding blood of Cherokee courage, the blood that courses through our veins and enables us to act when called.

Never in the history of the Cherokee people, have leaders governed solitarily. Never have our War Chiefs, Peace Chiefs, Beloved Women, or Principal Chiefs acted on behalf of this tribe without the advisement and wisdom of their councils and each other. Centuries ago, our ancestors dealt with the danger of unchecked power and brought forth the service government we enjoy today. It is this form of community progress and courageous commitment that is essential to our future... to our very existence.

We are a new generation of Cherokee with a resounding voice. For the first time in history, we have re-elected a Principal Chief and Vice Chief for a third

"The blood that travels through our veins is untouched by fear and resignation. It is hopeful. It is unifying. It is Cherokee blood." consecutive term. This generation has proclaimed that these choices are not an indication of stagnation, but one of sustained progress, one of faithful vision, one that anticipates and prepares for the twists and turns of the road ahead.

The wisdom and courage of past leaders to define and protect our sovereignty has assured the Eastern Band's unique position of success in a time of great struggle for our neighbors. We have embraced our role as friend and ally to other governments and their citizens, even enjoyed dual citizenship, while maintaining our own national integrity and cultural individuality. With faith in the eternal promise, we have remained Anikituwah... the people of Kituwah... "the people of the soil that belongs to the creator."

There is no doubt that the days ahead of us are marked with challenges. We cannot exclude ourselves from the wars of nations or the uncertain tides of a global economy. We can, however, negotiate these obstacles in the Cherokee way, with Cherokee courage. That is, we can discover the possibility in the otherwise impossible.

Moving forward, renewal is the visible, tangible result we seek. We search it out daily on the news, in our bank accounts, in the hopes for our children and grandchildren. However, in order to witness the result of renewal, we must regenerate our collective body from its foundational source. It is our Cherokee blood flowing through each member's veins that allows the Eastern Band to be a living body, a body capable of forward movement and reflective spirit, a body that will rise from battle stronger and more determined.

We will continue to rise from the disease of a fearful society that is sickened by a stifling national economy and other turmoil. We will rise and strike forth with ancestral fortitude, foresight, and vision. Most importantly we will, because we must, rise together in the spirit of those who came before us and those who will come after. The blood that travels through our veins is untouched by fear and resignation. It is hopeful. It is unifying. It is Cherokee blood.

May God bless our journey and may God continue to bless the Eastern Band. Sgi.

New CPF grant application will be explained at meetings

Cherokee Preservation Foundation has announced plans to use a new grant application, beginning with the Spring 2012 grant cycle. The Foundation staff will be explaining the new grant application process to current and prospective grantees at community meetings in the month of October.

This new, streamlined grant application process will save applicants time, while also helping both the Foundation and grantees track project results to know if the grants were successful after completion.

The application will also help grantees gauge where they need to be spending the most time during the implementation of their grant projects in order to achieve their desired grant outcomes.

With this new approach, Cherokee Preservation Foundation is joining with other western North Carolina grantmakers to use a common grant application, which will make the grant seeking process simpler and more efficient for applicants who are submitting grant proposals to more than one regional funder.

Meetings schedule: * Oct. 11 from 2 – 3 p.m., United Community Bank at 732 Main Street, Andrews NC * Oct. 14 from 10 – 11 am. Quall

* Oct. 14 from 10 – 11 a.m., Qualla Arts & Crafts at 645 Tsali Blvd., Cherokee, NC

* Oct. 17, from 2 – 3 p.m., Jackson County Public Library at 310 Keener Street, Sylva NC

Congressman Heath Shuler (D-NC) administers the oath of office for Tribal Council to Painttown Rep. Terri Henry in the Tribal Council Chambers on Monday, Oct. 3.

Rep. Henry's Inauguration

Painttown Rep. takes Oath of Office separately from other Reps

By SCOTT MCKIE B.P. ONE FEATHER STAFF

Reven of the twelve Tribal Council Representatives took their oath of office during the EBCI Inauguration on Monday, Oct. 3 at Harrah's Cherokee Casino & Hotel. One took her oath of office, but in a different place.

Painttown Rep. Terri Henry, starting her second term in Council, disagreed with the Inauguration on several fronts. She decided, instead, to take her oath of office at the Tribal Council House on Monday prior to the official Inauguration held at the casino.

Congressman Heath Shuler (D-NC), who happened to be passing through the Council House on Monday morning, was asked by Rep. Henry to administer the oath of office. He agreed, and she took the actual oath of office in front of around 30 people in the Council Chambers.

"I believe that the backdrop of where our government is sworn in is just as important as the swearing-in itself," she said. "And, as a government official and a person who was elected by the people, I feel like it is important that we do this in our public places that are supported by our government."

Rep. Henry went on to say, "The second reason is that the Chief had issued a cost containment memo. I'm not exactly sure what the costs were of having that (Inauguration) at the Casino, but I felt like, as a steward of the public trust, I believe that if the Executive has taken the steps to put cost containments on the Tribe, then we should follow that."

She said she realizes there is reason to celebrate an Inauguration, "But, I also believe that the cost containments are there. There are reasons for that to have happened, and we should be proper stewards."

"The other thing is that I had people tell me that they weren't going to go to the casino because whether they go to church or they have the same concerns that I do."

Bear Harvest information sought

In an effort to better understand the black bear population on Tribal lands, the Cherokee department of Fisheries and Wildlife Management is giving blaze orange hats to hunters who report harvest data and submit premolar teeth for aging. Report forms and tooth envelopes are available at the Fisheries and Wildlife Management office (Tribal Utilities Building, 1840 Paintown Rd.) and the Resource Enforcement office (517 Sequoyah Trail). BUS SAFETY CLASSES

The Boys Club has started their annual school bus safety classes for the students of Cherokee Schools. This week students from Pre-K, STARS and 1st through 5th grades will board a school bus and ride to the Cherokee Boys Club to watch a video and get instruction on safety issues.

Everyone should note that as the days get shorter, students may be catching the bus in the morning or riding the bus home in the evening without as much daylight as before. Please watch out for these students and encourage your children to watch out for the traffic.

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations to Terry Bradley, the Boys Club's IT Coordinator, for being appointed to the Board of Advisors for Cherokee Broadband Enterprises. Terry's appointment was confirmed by Tribal Council Resolution on September 28.

Congratulations to Kristie Hyatt for being named Miss Cherokee and to all the young ladies that vied for the royalty titles. We are proud of all of you! Thanks to everyone who participated in and coordinated the pageant activities. Thanks also to Miss Cherokee 2010, Tonya Carroll, for her excellent service and representation of the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians.

Congratulations to the Varsity Braves Football Team for their win over Rabun Gap. Please support your Braves this Friday night as they travel to Swain County to compete against the Maroon Devils.

Congratulations to Principal Chief Michell Hicks, Vice Chief Larry Blythe, all of Tribal Council and the Cherokee School Board who were sworn in at the Inauguration Ceremonies on Monday. The Club supports our leadership and will provide assistance any way we can to help our youth, our school, our leaders and our community.

Congratulations to Abigail Long for being named the Homecoming Queen for Cherokee High School.

Congratulations to the Lady Braves Cross Country team for their recent wins!

Healing and Wellness Coalition meeting and upcoming events

SUBMITTED By BETH FARRIS HEALING & WELLNESS COALITION

The next meeting of the Healing and Wellness Coalition will be Tuesday, Oct. 11 from 11:30am – 1pm at Living Waters Lutheran Church on Locust Road off Goose Creek Road. Bring your own lunch.

For those of you who do not know the Coalition, our mission statement is: We are committed to enhancing the lives of people by honoring and reclaiming the seven Cherokee core values, especially by the reduction of substance abuse in a comprehensive manner primarily focusing on youth. The seven core values are: spirituality, harmony, education, sense of place, honoring the past, strong character and sense of humor.

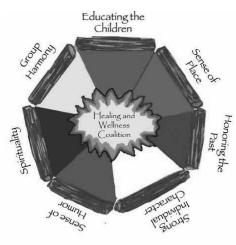

For those who do know us and may not be active we invite you to join us. You may not know that we are involved in several exciting endeavors and would welcome your input. We are currently holding a raffle of several pieces of jewelry and other items. See them on our web site: www.cherokeehealingcoalition.org. Look for us at the fair to purchase tickets.

The Healing and Wellness Coalition will be sponsoring Community Day on Oct. 22 at Tsali Manor Pavilion. This will be a day to reconnect with traditional ways through culture and gathering around foods and entertainment.

The Coalition is also planning a collaborative effort with the Cherokee Nation and United Keetoowah Band to do a Forgiveness Journey and conferences both in Okla. and Journey back to North Carolina. Another project has us pursuing grant funding to assist in the reduction and prevention of substance abuse among our children and adults.

Please let us know if you have ideas, energy or means to help. Info: Beth Farris (828) 421-9855.

A Cherokee Fairytale

I had the special opportunity this weekend to judge the 2011 Miss Cherokee competition. As I entered the Cultural Arts Center, a wonderful display of woven baskets glowed in a pine forest created on stage. This Cherokee fairytale setting warmed me up to the difficult job of scoring from among the three contestants. The four categories of competition that followed flowed seamlessly one into the other, with traditional accompaniment and non-traditional musical interludes. The Royalty Board did a great job producing such a professional show.

Each contestant was uniquely talented. Of the five categories, my favorites were the Personal Interview and the Traditional Dress. I loved getting to hear a little bit about what is important to these young Cherokee women, and I loved learning about what they were wearing. Trae Crowe's goose feather piece and silver necklace were so glamorous - I loved them. Karyl Franciewicz looked great in the traditional dress with the finger woven belt, which I was impressed to learn that she made herself, and Kristina Hyatt's detailed bead work was exquisite.

Thank you Deb West for inviting me to participate, and thank you Tonya Carroll for letting me interview and write about you during your reign. Congratulations Kristina Hyatt Miss Cherokee 2011, and I wish you the best in carrying out your duties.

Madison Crowe (right), the 2010 Cherokee High School Homecoming Queen, puts the crown on Abigail Long who was named the 2011 Queen on Friday, Sept. 30.

Braves win homecoming over Rabun Gap 35-16

The Braves almost doubled the net yards of Rabun Gap and the scoreboard reflected it as Cherokee won their homecoming game 36-16 on Friday, Sept. 30.

Caleb Queen gained 107 yards on 14 carries and scored once. Queen, along with Jeremy Saunooke, was named co-Player of the Game by the CHS Coaching staff. Cory Johnson gained 69 yards on 14 carries and scored twice as the Braves totaled 248 yards on the ground.

The passing game was on as well as QB Ray Smith completed 7 of 11 passes for 95 yards and a score. TE Greg Tisho led the receiving corps with five catches for 72 yards.

Cherokee now has a kicking game to speak of. Derrick Ledford has been working overtime in practice and it paid off Friday night as he went 5 for 5 on extra points.

Rabun Gap turned the ball over three times (two fumbles, 1 INT) and Cherokee lost two fumbles. The Braves were penalty-happy though with 11 for 91 yards.

The game was a tale of two halves. Cherokee scored all of its points in the first half and Rabun Gap scored all of its points in the second.

The Braves got things going in the first quarter as Smith hit Poncho Ramirez on a 38-yard touchdown pass. Derrick Ledford added the extra point and Cherokee led 7-0 midway through the quarter.

Two minutes later, Queen ran 63 yards for his score. Ledford added the extra point and Cherokee extended its lead to 14-0 at the end of the first.

The Braves added three more scores in the second quarter. Johnson scored twice on runs of 3 yards and 13 yards and Tisho recovered a Rabun Gap fumbled and returned it 86 yards for a touchdown. Ledford added all three extra points and Cherokee took a 35-0 lead into the locker room.

Now, it was Rabun Gap's turn.

Late in the third quarter Morgan Souder kicked a 29-yard field goal to put them on the board 35-3.

A few minutes into the fourth quarter, Perez Knowles ran for a 31yard score. The extra point kick was no good and Cherokee led 35-9 with nine minutes left in the game.

Then, with just two minutes left, Knowles ran 29 yards for his second score of the game. Jake Gajda added the extra point to make it 35-16 which is how the game would end.

Tisho led the way for the Braves with 13 tackles followed by Forrest Stamper with 11 and Gabe McMillan with seven. Tisho also recovered two fumbles including the one he took back to the house in the second quarter.

The Braves (3-4) travel to rival Swain (6-1) this Friday, Oct. 7. Swain is coming off a big win against Hayesville 43-6. Kickoff is scheduled for 7:30pm.

Toineeta leads Lady Braves to another Cross Country win

MURPHY - Kendall Toineeta may be a freshman, but she's running like a seasoned veteran. She won her fourth cross country race of the season at a meet in Murphy on Wednesday, Sept. 28 and led her team to its third straight victory in a row.

Toineeta finished first with a time of 21:07.84 – beating the second place runner by 32 seconds. Ansley Vardeman, Towns County, took 2nd with a time of 21:40.05 followed by Katie Bowden, Hayesville, in 3rd with a time of 22:29.93.

Shayna Ledford and Avery Mintz, both of Cherokee, took 5th and 6th places respectively with times of 22:38.78 and 22:48.81.

Other Cherokee runners included: Jordyn Thompson, 13th, 23:43.68; Alea Tisho, 30th, 25:44.24; Deija Burgess, 37th, 26:47.05; Alexis Maney, 43rd, 28:22.34; Priscilla Squirrell, 44th, 28:38.52; and Miranda Smith, 46th, 28:55.49.

The Lady Braves won the team competition with a score of 53. They were followed by Hayesville 66, Towns County 71, Robbinsville 91, Murphy 93, and Union County 106. Four schools did not place scores.

On the boy's side, Dylan Johnson, Hayesville, took 1st place with a time of 16:53.27. He was followed by Frank Cline, Robbinsville, 17:07.34 and Robert Vinson, Hayesville, 17:28.43.

Cherokee had three runners in the field including: E.J. Carroll, 29th, 20:57.78; Gerald Mahan, 30th, 21:04.08 and Levi Swearengin, 34th, 21:14.99.

Murphy's boys won the team competition with a score of 53. They were followed by Robbinsville 69, Hayesville 76, Union County 78, Swain 116, Towns County 132 and Hiwassee Dam 240. Three schools, including Cherokee, did not post scores.

Cherokee plays host to several upcoming meets including the Smoky Mountain Conference Championship on Wednesday, Oct. 19 and the Regional Cross Country Meet on Saturday, Oct. 29.

Middle School

Shadrick Wolfe finished 6th for the CMS boys with a time of 13:18.43. Kurt McClure, Hayesville, won the middle school boys division with a time of Pendergraft recognized for role of 'Alice'

SUBMITTED By SHAN GOSHORN

ULSA, Okla. – Neosha Pendergraft, an EBCI tribal member, received an annual Rubye Award from Encore! Theatre Production Company in Tulsa, Okla. on Sunday, Sept. 25. She won the prestigious award, voted on by patrons, in the category of "Favorite Actress in a Lead Role" (youth division) for her role of 'Alice' in "Alice in Wonderland".

This play featured both adult and youth actors and was performed in August to sold-out audiences in downtown Tulsa's Performing Arts Center. Pendergraft bleached her hair for the eight performances and memorized over 500 lines.

She is currently a 9th grade student at Booker T. Washington High School in Tulsa. Pendergraft is the daughter of Shan Goshorn and Tom Pendergraft and the granddaughter of Edna Goshorn of Whittier.

Jarden within 10 days. When the seedlings are large enough, remove the weakest, and leave about 15 inches between plants. Water frequently with a watering can at the base of the plants, not on leaves. Harvesting can begin at 8 to 12 weeks, and can continue for months. Chard is high in vitamins A and C, and provides fiber. Its stems and leaves are edible, and come in all sorts of color combinations. Source: www.kiddiegardens.com

Grandfather Mountain excursion

Last week, seniors from Tsali Manor, Snowbird Senior Center and the John Welch Senior Center in Cherokee County traveled to Grandfather Mountain. Nearly 80 seniors enjoyed the beautiful scenery and breathtaking views from atop the mile high swinging bridge and the peak of the mountain. The seniors also visited the animal habitat, museum and enjoyed a lunch at the restaurant.

CELEBRATIONS

Lloyd Arneach

Who would have thought the little boy growing up Would become the elder we know today The boy at Grandma Arneach's, the teen at Grandma Lula's. Miz Kram would be shocked to know that beyond a fork and tan line was a man the country would listen to As Charky watches from above the man she knew and loved. The statesman her father knew you to be From family past to future friends Happy Birthday Lloyd, Dad, Grandfather Oct. 6
