"We are still here"

Annual Kituwah Celebration held

By SCOTT MCKIE B.P.One Feather Asst. Editor

ITUWAH – A light, constant breeze blew through the area as Cherokee songs were sung, anetso (stickball) was played, and Cherokee people came together to celebrate at Kituwah – the Mother Town of the Cherokee.

The Kituwah Celebration of the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians (EBCI), held annually to mark the return of the site to the Tribe, was held this year on the evening of Friday, June 6.

Kituwah, located just outside of Cherokee, N.C., near Bryson City, N.C., was placed into trust for the EBCI by the Bureau of Indian Affairs, U.S. Dept. of the Interior in 2021. The property was purchased by the EBCI in 1996, and according to the Public Notice to Acquire Land into Trust, the site totals 307.03 acres.

"Kituwah is not just a plot of land, or a quiet field, it is one of the most sacred places in Cherokee history," Renissa McLaughlin, EBCI Youth & Adult Education director, told the crowd. "It is our Mother Town, the regional village where our ancestors first gathered as people, where the first fire was lit, and where Cherokee life, government, and traditions began."

She spoke of the importance of Kituwah, "In 1996, the Tribe, our people, reclaimed and protected this sacred land. That moment was more than a land purchase. It was a homecoming. It was a return of something that could never truly be lost - our connection to our roots, our ancestors, and our identity. Today, Kituwah is alive - not with buildings or development, but with culture, ceremony, and community. Songs are sung. Seeds are planted, and prayers are offered. Kituwah Mound has become a living classroom and a place where everyone, young and old, can come to learn, remember, and celebrate."

McLaughlin added, "Let this place continue to bring us together to teach, to heal, to celebrate, and to remind us all that the Cherokee people are still here. We are strong, we are sovereign, and we are home."

EBCI Ugvwiyuhi (Principal Chief) Michell Hicks commented, "It's very exciting that we're recognizing, through this celebration, who we are as a people, our culture, our heritage, and especially the language.

We deal with a lot of things. We wear a lot of hats. It's not always easy. Sometimes you have to take a hard stand on things. Sometimes, it's just our diligence, it's our strength, and it's our resilience that's going to outlast any of our opponents or any obstacles that are working against us."

Ugvwiyuhi Hicks concluded

with, "We're strong. We're resilient. We're the Cherokee people, and this land is forever ours. It will never leave our hands again regardless of what happens."

2024-25 Miss Cherokee Moira George spoke along with 2024-25 Junior Miss Cherokee Misha Slee and 2024-25 Little Miss Cherokee Faith Panther. George noted, "I think it's important that we keep coming together and celebrating. We are still here."

Several activities were held during the event including Cherokee social dances by the Aniyvwiyahi Dancers, two exhibition anetso games hosted by the Kolanvyi (Big Cove) Indian ball teams, and a meal by Granny's Kitchen.

INFRASTRUCTURE PROGRAM SERVICES ON TRUST LANDS

Site Inspection: This process begins at Tribal Realty and is sent through the approval process to identify a buildable house site and road access.

House Lot Survey: Surveying requests for approved buildable house sites.

Site Prep: House site grading and driveway will be constructed on a buildable house site.

Hydroseeding: To help prevent erosion, hydroseeding will be done once site prep is complete.

Block Foundation: The foundation will be built for modular homes and stick built homes.

Termite Spray: This treatment is for block foundations for new homes.

Concrete Footers: Footers will be poured for single and doublewide mobile homes.

Block Underpinning: Block underpinning will be installed for doublewides.

Vinyl Underpinning: K-rock vinyl underpinning will be installed on single wide trailers.

Trailer Transports: Mobile home transports from trust land locations to be set up as permanent residence for enrolled members. We do not transport mobile homes from a mobile home company due the warranty on the home and liability.

Gutters: Gutter install is provided for new homes if needed, such as modulars, stick built and doublewides. We do not install gutters on singlewides. Gutter repair is done if they are causing erosion problems.

Final Grade: Drain lines are installed and the yard is graded to give positive drainage away from the foundation along with seed and straw to prevent erosion.

Asbestos Assessment: This assessment is performed on any home on trust lands owned by EBCI members and is being fully remodeled or demoed for replacement of a new home as the permanent residence.

Asbestos Abatement: The abatement is performed on any home that is positive for asbestos. The analysis is sent to Environmental, TCP and to the Land Fill for EBCI members replacing the old home with a new home as their permanent residence.

Dinilawigi (Tribal Council) overrides two vetoes on cannabis

By SCOTT MCKIE B.P.One Feather Asst. Editor

CHEROKEE, N.C. – During its regular session on Thursday, June 5, Dinilawigi (Tribal Council) overrode two vetoes by Ugvwiyuhi (Principal Chief) Michell Hicks regarding cannabis. The vetoes were of Res. No. 464 and Ord. No. 391, both of which were originally passed on May 1.

Res. No. 464 (2025), submitted by Qualla Enterprises, LLC, was passed by Dinilawigi on May

1. It states in part, "Through collaboration with EBCI planning and regulatory programs, in addition to vast research and development at the Coopers Creek Farm, there are no major obstacles or barriers that would keep QE (Qualla Enterprises) from developing this site as planned."

The legislation further stated that "land within Cherokee Community parcels numbers 85, 13, 65, 58, 57, and 18 be solely dedicated to the original intent, cannabis production by QE, LLC".

Res. No. 464 was passed by a margin of 62-32 as follows: For – Kolanvyi (Big Cove) Rep. Richard French, Tsisqwohi (Birdtown) Rep. Boyd Owle, Tsalagi Gadugi/Tutiyi (Cherokee Co./Snowbird) Rep. Bucky Brown, Elawodi (Yellowhill) Rep. Tom Wahnetah, Wayohi (Wolftown) Rep. Bo

Crowe, Tsisqwohi (Birdtown) Rep. Jim Owle, Aniwodihi (Painttown) Rep. Michael Stamper; Against – Kolanvyi (Big Cove) Rep. Perry Shell, Dinilawigi Vice Chairman David Wolfe, Tsalagi Gadugi/ Tutiyi (Cherokee Co./Snowbird) Rep. Adam Wachacha, Dinilawigi Chairman Mike Parker; and Absent – Aniwodihi (Painttown) Rep. Dike Sneed.

In his veto letter on Res.

No. 464, dated June 5, Ugvwiyuhi Hicks wrote, "I have vetoed the resolution because I believe more due diligence needs to be performed before the property is dedicated to a single purpose. We need to make sure the parcels can be used for that purpose."

The letter continues, "The parcels described in Res. No. 464 were purchased by the Tribe under authority of Res. No. 273

(2022), under which the Tribe paid $10,000,000 for 85.328 acres. This property, known as the Jim Cooper property, may end up supporting the use desired by Qualla Enterprises. However, the Tribe needs to perform more due diligence before we can reach that conclusion. At this time, there are unanswered questions regarding the nature and extent of the cultural artifacts buried underground there, what areas can be disturbed or must be left alone, wetlands, how much of the property can actually support cannabis cultivation, and whether other parts of the property are better suited to other uses."

Prior to the vote regarding the veto, Rep. Wahnetah commented, "This LLC was created to help the Tribe make up the losses from gaming. We all know that gaming is down now. We created this LLC to help alleviate that problem, but we've got to give them a chance to do that. And, without the property that was designated to them when it was purchased, they can't do that. They can't fulfill their promise to the Tribe of increasing per cap and increasing government funding."

The Tire Shop

The veto for Ord. No. 464 was overridden by a vote of 74-26 as follows: Override Veto – Rep. French, Rep. Jim Owle, Rep. Stamper, Rep. Crowe, Chairman Parker, Rep. Wahnetah, Rep. Brown, Rep. Boyd Owle; Uphold Veto – Rep. Sneed, Vice Chairman Wolfe, Rep. Shell, and Rep. Wachacha.

Ord. No. 391 (2025), submitted by James Bradley, an EBCI tribal member, was approved on May 1 by nine Dinilawigi representatives voting for and the following voting against: Vice Chairman Wolfe, Rep. Stamper, and Rep. Brown.

It amends Cherokee Code Section 17 to replace the entirety of Sec. 17-80 (Exemption from tribal prosecution for certain acts involving marijuana.)

The new Sec. 17-80(c) reads, "The exemption from tribal prosecution set forth in subsection (b) applies only to the extent that a person who holds a valid patient identification card of such a person: (1) Engages in the medical use of marijuana in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter as justified to mitigate the symptoms or effects of a person's chronic or debilitating medical condition; and (2) Do not, at any one time, collectively possess with another who is authorized to possess more than (i) Sixteen (16) ounces of usable marijuana (one pound); (ii) Eight (8) marijuana plants, no more than four (4) of which may be mature and/or flowering at any one time."

The new Sec. 17-80(g) addresses the intent to make sure that cannabis cultivation is only for adults. It states, "A person who cultivates marijuana pursuant to this section must take reasonable precautions to ensure the marijuana plants are secure from unauthorized access or access by a person under 21 years of age. For purposes of illustration and not limitation, cultivating marijuana in an enclosed, locked space that persons under 21 years of age do not possess a key constitutes reasonable precautions."

Home grow was allowable previously under the EBCI's cannabis laws until Ord. No. 63 (2024) removed the language.

In his veto letter on Ord. No. 391, Ugvwiyuhi Hicks wrote, "Foremost in my opposition to this ordinance is my concern for the safety of our children. They deserve to be safe in their own homes. Growing marijuana in a private residence creates an attractive danger to curious children and an unacceptable risk of harm. Already, our Cherokee Indian Police Dept., the Family Safety Program, and Juvenile Services Program have had to take action because of minor's health and safety being compromised due to marijuana being present in the home. Regardless of how safe the proponents of Ord. No. 391 say home grow is, our children deserve our utmost attention and protection."

It continues, "Additionally, Ord. No. 391 uses the generic term 'residence' to describe where home grows may be located. It does not distinguish between the types of residences such as a privately-owned home or a unit rented from the Tribe or a home financed with a loan that may prohibit such activity or violate the provisions of a federal grant. In short, more work needs to be done".

The veto on Ord. No. 391 was overridden by Dinilawigi by a vote of 75-25 as follows: Override Veto – Rep. French, Rep. Jim Owle, Rep. Crowe, Chairman Parker, Rep. Wahnetah, Rep. Wachacha, Rep. Shell, Rep. Boyd Owle; Uphold Veto – Rep. Sneed, Rep. Stamper, Vice Chairman Wolfe, and Rep. Brown.

Following the vote on this veto, Ugvwiyuhi Hicks stated, "Just this week, there were some children that were involved and tested positive for product, and I don't think we take this lightly. I think we need to bring this back to the table and figure out how do we create these safety venues for these kids. There's always going to be differences of opinion. But, I'm going to go home and sleep good tonight because I feel like I've done the right thing here this morning on behalf of our children, and I will live with that."

Both pieces of legislation now go into law.

Three new ordinances submitted during June Dinilawigi (Tribal Council)

By SCOTT MCKIE B.P.
One Feather Asst. Editor

CHEROKEE, N.C. – Three new ordinances were submitted during the Dinilawigi (Tribal Council) regular session on Thursday, June 5. The ordinances, which were all deemed read and tabled, cover topics affecting the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians (EBCI) including consumption of marijuana while riding on Tribe's back roads, clarification of language in the Tribe's Employment/Preference law, and clarification of language regarding allocation of distributions to the Tribe from LLCs.

Tabled Ord. No. 483 (2025) was submitted by EBCI Attorney General Michael McConnell and seeks to amend Cherokee Code Sec. 14-95.12 regarding marijuana.

The whereas section of the legislation states, "Certain marijuana-related activities have come to light that are offensive to some tribal members and are contrary to the intent of the Tribe's marijuana laws; and the activity in question involves one or more companies, the ownership of which is unknown, driving customers along the Tribe's backroads in a side-byside or similar vehicle, while the customers in the passenger area consume marijuana."

Sec. 14-92.12(a)(11) currently reads, "It shall be unlawful for any person, business, or other entity to: (11) Consume marijuana, hemp, or hemp products while driving a motor vehicle on a highway or public vehicular area as defined as Chapter 20 of the Cherokee Code."

The proposed amendment would change the section to read, "It shall be unlawful for any person, business, or other entity to (11) Consume marijuana, hemp, or hemp products while driving a motor vehicle or riding on a highway or public vehicular area as defined as Chapter 20 of the Cherokee Code, which shall include the Tribe's backroads or dirt roads for purposes of this prohibition."

Tabled Ord. No. 484 (2025) was also submitted by Attorney General McConnell and just cleans up some language in Cherokee Code Sections 95-12 and 95-13.

The whereas section states the purpose of the proposed amendments to Sec. 95-12 and 95-13. "Taken together, those sections state that the first employment preference shall be given to any 'Local Indian', an archaic phrase that has outlived its usefulness and which is defined as enrolled members of the EBCI and 'any member of another federally recognized tribe who resides within the exterior boundaries of the Reservation'."

It goes on to state, "Sec. 95-12 and Sec. 95-13 should be amended to strike the definition of 'Local Indian' and clearly state that EBCI enrolled members and their spouse and children shall have the first preference in employment." Tabled Ord. No. 485 (2025) was also submitted by Attorney General McConnell seeks to "clarify the allocation of net profit distributions from limited liability corporations (LLCs) formed under Chapter 55B".

The whereas section of the proposed legislation states, "The terms 'Members' and 'Tribal members' are used to describe members of the LLC and also to individual members of the Tribe; and, the use of those terms in Sec. 55B-5.2 is potentially confusing as applied to distributions of net profit of the corporate enterprise of cash to the Tribe for allocation of per capita/GenWell and to the debt service sinking fund."

The proposed amendment of the Ordinance would change the wording of Sec. 55B-5.2(c) which currently reads, "Distribution shall be as follows: 50 percent of the distributable net profit for Per Capita/GenWell and 50 percent to Debt Service Sinking Fund."

The proposed amended would change Sec. 55B-5.2(c) to read, "Distribution of the net profit of the corporate enterprise to the Tribe by an LLC formed under this chapter shall be as follows: 50 percent of the distributable net profit for Per Capita/GenWell and 50 percent to Debt Service Sinking Fund."

These three pieces of legislation are expected to be on the agenda for the July session of Dinilawigi.

EBCI Government Explained

Exclusion (banishment) powers

By SCOTT MCKIE B.P.One Feather Asst. Editor

HEROKEE, N.C. – The Cherokee Code of the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians gives tribal leaders the authority to exclude individuals, including EBCI tribal members, from its lands. This process is sometimes referred to as banishment but is referred to as exclusion in the Code.

Basic law on exclusion

This process was added to the Cherokee Code with the passage of Ord. No. 92 (1994) on March 22, 1994. The whereas portion of that legislation states, "Federal law has long established that federally recognized Indian tribes possess inherent sovereign authority, either as a government or as a landowner, to lawfully exclude persons from Indian tribal territory in order to protect the integrity and order of its territory and the welfare of its members."

Chapter 2 of the Cherokee Code (Exclusion Powers of Tribe) outlines these powers, and Sec. 2-1(a) states, "The Tribal Council shall have the power to exclude enrolled tribal members when necessary to protect the integrity and law and order on tribal lands and territory or the welfare of its members."

Sec. 2-1(b) gives Dinilawigi (Tribal Council) the authority to "exclude other persons", i.e. people not enrolled with the EBCI, as well.

Sec. 2-4 outlines the terms of exclusion and states, "The Tribal Council may exclude persons from Cherokee trust lands for limited periods of time, indefinite periods of time, or permanently, at the discretion of Tribal Council."

Sec. 2-7 outlines who can start the exclusion process and states, "The following persons may bring a request to the Tribal Council for an exclusion action against a person who is subject to this Chapter are: (1) The Principal Chief, (2) The Vice Chief, (3) Members of the Tribal Council, (4) The Chief of the Cherokee Police Department, (5) The Tribal Prosecutor, and (6) The Attorney General."

The Cherokee Code gives tribal leaders the right to issue an emergency temporary exclusion.

Sec. 2-9(b) states, "When a Law Enforcement Officer has probable cause to believe that a non-member has committed a Drug Offense, the officer shall bring the non-member before the designated official without unnecessary delay to determine whether a Writ of Emergency Temporary Exclusion is necessary to protect the integrity and law and order on Tribal lands and territory or the welfare of its members. The commission of any Drug Offense by a non-member shall constitute a per se threat to the integrity and law and order on Tribal lands and territory or the welfare of its members."

Ord. No. 390 (2025) was approved by Dinilawigi on March 6, 2025 and amends the title of Cherokee Code Sec. 14-70.24 to now read Harboring, concealing, or aiding excluded persons. Sec. 14-70.24(a) was amended to read, "It shall be unlawful for any person to aid or assist a person who has been excluded from tribal lands pursuant to law to: (1) Harbor, conceal, or transport while on tribal lands..."

Exclusion Registry

An official listing of all persons who have been excluded by the EBCI was established with the passage of Ord. No. 185 (2022) on Oct. 24, 2022 which added Sec. 2-12 (Exclusion Registry) to the Code. The Cherokee One Feather is tasked with maintaining the digital registry which is housed online at: https://theonefeather.com/ebci-banishment-list/

The information contained in that registry is handled in Sec. 2-12(b) and Sec. 2-12(c). The first states that the registry "shall contain, at a minimum, the name of the person who is excluded from tribal lands, the date the exclusion resolution was passed by Tribal Council, and the number of the resolution."

Sec. 2-12(c) states, "The Exclusion Registry should contain a copy of the resolution excluding a person from Tribal trust lands, a photograph of the excluded person, as well as any other identifying information so that the public may be informed of persons who have been excluded from Tribal trust lands."

Enrolled Members

Sec. 2-6 deals with exclusion of EBCI tribal members and states, "If an enrolled Tribal member is permanently excluded from Cherokee trust lands, then the member's name may be removed from the membership roll of the Tribe by resolution of Tribal Council and all privileges pertaining thereto may be suspended indefinitely. If a first-generation descendant is permanently excluded from Cherokee trust lands, Tribal Council may also, by resolution, suspend or revoke the privileges and benefits that the excluded person would otherwise have been eligible to receive as a first-generation descendant."

To date, no member of the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians has been banished under this process.

CIPD, EBCI Operations Division provide disaster relief to Kentucky

By BROOKLYN BROWN

One Feather Reporter

ONDON, Ky. - On the afternoon of Friday, May 30, Cherokee Indian Police Department (CIPD) Resource Inventory Coordinator Robbie Brown delivered pallets of water, meals ready to eat (MREs), heaters, towels, and more to London, Ky., by way of a Cherokee Tribal Emergency Management trailer provided by Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians (EBCI) Secretary of Operations Anthony Sequoyah. The haul was in response to a severe and fatal tornado outbreak across Kentucky this May.

"We are grateful to Anthony Sequoyah for collaborating with us and making it possible to provide disaster relief for the community of one of our vendors, Don Franklin Auto Group," said CIPD Chief of Police Carla Neadeau.

"Don Franklin Auto Group also sent supplies from Kentucky to Cherokee and other communities in western North Carolina in response to Hurricane Helene, so we wanted to do the same for them."

CIPD Assistant Chief of Police Josh Taylor thanked Brown for making the trip. "Robbie's late mother, Diane Brown, led missions in poor Appalachian communities that provided similar assistance - clothes, food, shelter - so I think it is meaningful that he was able to do something similar in this instance, for a community that also serves CIPD."

On May 17, London, Ky., was leveled by an EF-4 tornado with winds of 170 mph in a 55.6-milelong path across Pulaski and Laurel counties. 19 people were killed in the outbreak, with most fatalities occurring in the path of the EF-4, the deadliest tornado in the history of their County Warning Area (CWA).

Don Franklin Auto Group has become a donation hub for relief as the counties work to rebuild after disaster. They can be found on Facebook at Don Franklin Auto.

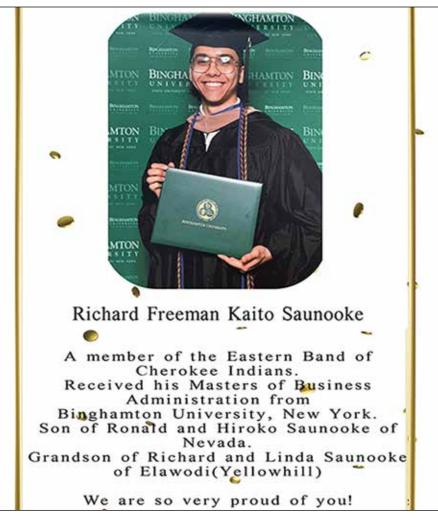

Jerry Goodman, Robbie Brown, and Kenny Isaacs are shown with a loaded trailer of relief items for London, Ky. Goodman and Isaacs, both supply runners for Don Franklin Auto Group, brought the trailer back to Cherokee from London.

<< Groundbreaking for Whitetree Court

On the morning of June 3, a groundbreaking was held for Whitetree Court, a market rental and commercial use property in Aniwodihi (Painttown). The estimated date of completion is 2.5 years as of May 1. Site preparation is being completed by Tribal Construction. There is 92,000 square feet of residential living space including 31 two-bedroom apartments, 16 three-bedroom apartments, and 12 four-bedroom apartments. This is a multi-family, mixed use apartment complex. There is also 7,600 square feet of commercial property, with one unit of the property being used for a laundromat that will be open to the public.Leaders of the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians breaking ground include, left to right, Wayohi (Wolftown) Rep. Bo Crowe, Aniwodihi (Painttown) Rep. Michael Stamper, Kolanvyi (Big Cove) Rep. Richard French, Kolanvyi (Big Cove) Rep. Perry Shell, Elawodi (Yellowhill) Rep. Tom Wahnetah, Dinilawigi (Tribal Council) Vice Chairman David Wolfe, Dinilawigi Chairman Michael Parker, Taline Ugvwiyu (Vice Chief) Alan B. Ensley, and Ugvwiyuhi (Principal Chief) Michell Hicks. Ava Walkingstick receives One Feather Student of the Year Award

By SCOTT MCKIE B.P.One Feather Asst. Editor

CHEROKEE, N.C. – An outstanding young Cherokee woman has been named the inaugural winner of the Cherokee One Feather Student of the Year Award. The award was presented to Ava Walkingstick, a member of the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians and a rising junior at Cherokee High School (CHS), during the Reports to Council session on the morning of Wednesday, June 4, 2025.

Walkingstick, a member of the Long Hair Clan, was presented the award by Brooklyn Brown, Cherokee One Feather Editorial Board chairperson.

During the award presentation on Wednesday morning, Brown commented, "The Cherokee One Feather Editorial Board voted this year to present an inaugural award known as the Cherokee One Feather Student of the Year Award to a well-rounded Cherokee High School student of any grade level who shows exceptionality in academics, athletics, fine and performing arts, Cherokee language and cultural preservation, and/ or community engagement, and is prominently featured in Cherokee One Feather coverage throughout the school year.

The Cherokee One Feather is honored to present the first ever Cherokee One Feather Student of the Year Award to an exceptional student, Ms. Ava Walkingstick. As a sophomore at Cherokee High School, Walkingstick worked closely with PHHS to implement

Brown added, "Ava is a hardworking, goal-oriented student with a passion for mental health advocacy, and we are proud to present her with this award."

After receiving her award,

Walkingstick thanked her family and friends and noted, "I really thank all of y'all in the community. They see me out here doing this, and they tell me that I'm doing a great job. I'm going to continue doing this."

In an interview with the One Feather in November 2024 regarding her involvement with the CHS Musical Theatre Program and Cherokee Choir, she said, "It's really great. I love working with Mr. Yannette...we have so many voices in this room that we didn't know we had. We were in dance. We didn't know we were going to be singing on the first day of school.

Walkingstick speaks at the "From Darkness Into Hope" event in Cherokee, N.C. on Sept. 4, 2024.

When we came in, it was really fun and he got us to where we are now. It's just been incredible."

As mentioned above, Walkingstick has been an incredible advocate for mental health awareness. At the "From Darkness Into Hope" event held in Cherokee, N.C. on Sept. 4, 2024, she spoke eloquently stating, "I realized it's ok to be hurt. It's ok to feel the pain that you feel. It's ok to cry. It's ok to be mad. Because all those things that you feel are what is a part of you. It's not just something that's there, it's something you've got to feel, it's something you've got to express."

She added, "Really, what I'm trying to say is, as a youth, as a teenager, as someone who knows how it feels, it's ok to feel hurt. It's ok to ask questions. It's ok to be there for a friend. It's ok to ask for help. And that's what a lot of these vendors are doing today. Not only are they vendors, they're our community people. Gadugi – We are One – as a community."

Walkingstick served as the 2022-23 Teen Miss Cherokee and enjoys several crafts including making cornhusk dolls for which she received a first place ribbon at the 2024 Cherokee Indian Fair Exhibit Hall.

Yellowhill Community Club ribbon-cutting held

On the morning of June 2, a ribbon cutting ceremony was held for the Elawodi (Yellowhill) Community Building. Beloved Woman Carmeleta Monteith led an opening prayer, followed by remarks from Virginia Johnson regarding the history of the building and the Elawodi Community Club. Taline Ugvwiyu (Vice Chief) Alan B. Ensley then gave remarks reflecting on his many years spent in the building. Ugvwiyuhi (Principal Chief) Michell Hicks gave closing remarks, thanking those who made the renovation possible and speaking to his own memories of Elawodi. Dinilawigi (Tribal Council) Vice Chairman and Elawodi rep. David Wolfe also reflected on his connection to the building and gave a closing prayer. Atsoise Galvtsi (Gabriela French) from Elawodi, with help from Virginia Johnson, cut the ribbon. (BROOKLYN BROWN/One Feather photo)

Cherokee Preservation Foundation hosts 17th Annual Cherokee Day of Caring

Submitted by Cherokee Preservation Foundation

CHEROKEE, N.C. - The Cherokee Preservation Foundation with the support of Harrah's Cherokee Casino Resort, and the Offices of the Principal Chief and Vice Chief of the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians (EBCI) came together collaboratively for the 17th annual Day of Caring on May 15. This daylong event reflects the spirit of Ga-Du-Gi, a traditional way of helping the community practiced by the Cherokee people for centuries.

Some 200 volunteers, EBCI members and others in the community, came together to assist 9 families and individuals nominated by their respective community clubs. Volunteers helped paint, repair, clean up landscapes and plant flowers.

That evening, nine "Quiet Heroes" and one "Good Neighbor" who have served their communities unselfishly were honored at a special dinner at the Wolftown Gym. "Our community is awesome. This day is what Ga-Du-Gi is all about, helping fellow neighbors," said Deb Owle, Program Operations Manager, Cherokee Preservation Foundation.

Special thanks go out to Lowe's in Sylva, McNeely's Cherokee Home Center, the Cherokee Fire Department Station 2, VOC of Cherokee, EBCI Tribal Facilities, The Cherokee Boys Club, and Qualla Housing for providing assistance to ensure the success of the day.

The 2025 Cherokee Day of Caring Committee, who plans this event, includes the following individuals: Deb Owle, John Nelson, Dewayne "Duck" Lossiah, Gary Driver, Candy Bradley, Rick Lossiah, Dinah Grant, Rob Welch, Michael Wilnoty, Teresa Catolster, Elijah Wachacha, Cane Cable, and Driver Blythe.

EBCI COMMUNITY ANNOUNCEMENTS

LETTER: Yellowhill Baptist Church cemetery is at capacity

Greetings from the Yellowhill Baptist Church, we are writing you this letter to inform you all of a decision that was discussed and agreed upon by the Pastor and the members of the Yellowhill Baptist Church. The church's cemetery has reached its capacity at the moment. Although, it may look like there are places that are available to bury a loved one, that is not the case at this time.

We have run into a few instances here lately, where a grave was being dug and another grave was disturbed by the dig. At this time, we are closing The Yellowhill Baptist Church Cemetery to anyone who wishes to lay to rest their loved ones in the church's cemetery. We have come to find out that there are several unmarked graves and we are working with the Tribe for help with finding a solution on how we can get our cemetery surveyed and mark those unmarked graves that have no headstone or any kind of marking. Once we are able to get this done, we will see what options are available and will re-open the Yellowhill Baptist Church's cemetery for those members of our Tribe to request a plot for their loved one to be laid to rest.

If anyone has any questions or concerns, they are more than willing to reach out to our Pastor, Associate Pastor, Deacon or Church Secretary. Their contact information is listed at the end of this letter. We thank you for your understanding at this time and will Link to Apply: https://forms. keep you updated on the status of the Yellowhill Baptist Church's cemetery.

McLean Walker; one daughter, Gracie Jeanette; three of the most precious granddaughters anyone could hope for, Tracy Michelle, the oldest and his rock, Seraphina Nicole and Morgan Kathleen. He always said "who needs boys when I've got awesome girls like these." He was so proud of his gifts from God. And there's Lucas, his fur baby who could soothe John no matter how bad he felt. He is also survived by brothers and sistersin-law, Joe (Jessie Mae), Tommy (Lois), Charlie (Kattie), Susan Walker, Darlene Walker, four nieces, and six nephews.

John was a true jack of all trades. At 17 he worked with his dad and brother along the Mississippi River. He moved on to working underground. Coal mines in Alabama and Kentucky, Uranium mines in New Mexico, Subways in Baltimore Maryland, Water intake tunnels in Chattanooga Tennessee, and the Bad Creek Project in western North Carolina. He worked building the Duke Energy Nuclear Power Plant in SouthPort, N.C. and the Ramsey Regional Center on the Western Carolina University Campus. We moved home and he was a logger with his dad and brothers. His fatherin-law started teaching him how to operate dozers and track hoes. John was so talented. His new love became putting beautiful home sites where people said there was no way. He built remarkable roads into areas most people said was impossible. He even found time and joy driving the Coachman Activity Bus for Swain County. He always considered it an honor to spend time with the students and marching band.

After years of trying to decide what he wanted to do for the rest of his life, he became Johnny the junk car man. He removed hundreds of junk cars from reservation lands and any other one that found themselves with a broke down or crashed vehicle.

All the wide varieties of jobs he enjoyed took him through much of the United States and created the opportunity to meet and work with many people from many walks of life. If you were fortunate enough for him to call you a friend, he became a true friend. When he said "call me if you need anything 24/7" he meant every word.

Our family and our four girls have appreciated all the love shown to us and for all the prayers. Please know we're okay because God has our backs.

Thank you to the wonderful staff of Cherokee Davita Dialysis for the love you've shown us for almost 4 years.

Thank you to the nursing staff and CNAs of Tsali Care Center. We've become family. He loved you all.

John didn't want a formal funeral. He wanted to be cremated. He always said "ashes to ashes dust to dust so shall we return."

SPEAKING OF FAITH

Appointing your days

By Lamont H. Fuchs, Ed.D.

Scripture References: Psalms 90:12, Job 28:28, Psalms 119:105, Romans 8:28, 1 Corinthians 2:9.

Psalms 90:12 says, "So teach us to number our days, That we may get us a heart of wisdom."

Did you know that praying for wisdom is within God's will? It is always important to pray in the same direction God wills. Why? Because praying against God's will is wasting your breath. (That's if you pray aloud.) God wants us to walk with wisdom, and He wants to give us understanding. His Word is full of wisdom, and the more we read it and heed it, the more we become wise. Job 28:28 says, "And unto man he said, Behold, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom; And to depart from evil is understanding."

But what does it mean to number our days? The words used have much more context than what we read in English in Hebrew. For example, the word "manah" in Hebrew means more than "number" in English. Translated in context, it means to appoint or prepare. The story of Jonah used the same word when God prepared those things that became such a problem for Jonah to teach him the lesson God wanted him to learn (Cahn, 2021). He does the same with us. Do you truly think that one morning, when you had so many plans ahead for your day, that the flat tire you had was a fluke? It changed your plans; it made you zig when you were in the middle of your zag. I believe there is a reason for those unplanned zigs, and now, after years of experience, I can see those divine changes when I had no control, as acts of God to show me something I might not have experienced without His intervention.

We know we have a certain number of days in our lives – they are already designated by God. So, what can we do to prepare or appoint our days? The pat answer is to read God's Word and pray daily for Him to show you His way for your day. It is precisely what Psalms 119:105 says, "Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, And light unto my path." You can't see Light if you don't read it.

That is a question of the ages. Many philosophers and theologians have discussed this question, and the answer is simple. We make it complex. How does one prepare for days that are yet to come?

God brings good things to those who believe. Now and in the future. Romans 8:28 says, "And we know that to them that love God all things work together for good, even to them that are called according to his purpose."

You say, the future? Yes, your eternal destiny. We all have one. "Death is only the beginning", is a famous movie quote from The Mummy (10 Best Quotes From The Mummy, 2001). The intent of the quote was designed to be scary. It is if you think about it. The truth is that our eternal future without Christ is pretty frightening. The future He has for those who believe in Him is beyond our wildest imagination. You have to love the song, "I Can Only Imagine" by Bart Millard (Turner, 2020). I'm not sure, but I think Bart may have been thinking about 1 Corinthians 2:9 where the Bible says, "but as it is written, Things which eye saw not, and ear heard not, And which entered not into the heart of man, Whatsoever things God prepared for them that love him." To paraphrase that would be to say, "You haven't got a clue what good things God has for those who believe in Him." He wants a life for us that glorifies Him and blesses us. We only need to seek His face, trust and obey His word. Have faith to know God will do the rest unto your eternal rest.

I'm sure Bart wants to hear the same thing as you, and I want to hear from God as it says in Matthew 25:23, "Well done, good and faithful servant".

Are you prepared for your future?

Pray – God, each day, I ask for Your divine wisdom. Show me the Way of the Lord and inspire me to know Your will in my life. May I bless You, Lord, with faith to complete the race of life well and join You eternally in peace only You can give. Thank You, Lord, for choosing me to be your faithful servant; forgive me when I fail You in that service.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Family and friends rally around as you confront an unexpected challenge. Some plans will have to be changed until all the fuss and fluster settle down.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Your creative gifts find new outlets for expression this week. Someone (a Libra, perhaps) has ideas that you might find surprisingly appealing. Pay attention!

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) You'll soon be able to restart your delayed travel plans. In addition, a financial matter you thought was closed could suddenly reopen. Be prepared to take swift, decisive action.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) A romantic relationship takes an unexpected turn. You might be confused about how to react. It's best not to be rushed into a decision that you're not ready to make.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Don't let your pride stand in the way of resolving an emotionally painful situation. This is a good time to deal with it and let the healing finally begin.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) A workplace problem that you've been handling so well suddenly spins out of control. Don't panic. You can rely on your good sense to help you restore order.

LIBRA (September 23 to October

22) Wearing rose-colored glasses won't solve a thorny personal situation. You need to take a hard look at what's happening, then act according to the facts.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Weigh all your options carefully before making any decisions you've been putting off. Then go ahead and plan a weekend of family fun!

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) While personal and financial situations continue to improve, some setbacks might occur. But they're only temporary, so hang in there.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Family matters dominate the week. Health problems raise concern but soon prove to be less serious than you had feared. Things start easing up by the weekend.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Most situations are calmer now, both at home and on the job. But there's still a chance that a co-worker will set off another round of unpleasantness.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) There's no need to fish for compliments from an admirer who can't say enough nice things about you. Meanwhile, the holiday weekend bodes well for family gatherings.

BORN THIS WEEK: You love to compete, both on a personal and a sporting level, and you hate to settle for anything less than excellence.

VETERANS * POST *

by Freddy Groves

Getting community care is easier now

Remember when you wanted to go to a civilian doctor but getting VA approval for community care was such a hassle as you waited for it all to be signed off?

The 2019 MISSION Act, letting veterans seek civilian care while the Department of Veterans Affairs paid for it, was well intentioned, but like so many things, the steps were a burden. No more.

As of now, we have the Senator Elizabeth Dole 21st Century Veterans Healthcare and Benefits Improvement Act, and the VA has just crossed that final approval signature off the list of requirements.

There are still rules, yes, but they're more manageable. To qualify to have the VA pay for your civilian care, one of the following must be true:

- Your state doesn't have a full-service VA facility. That means Alaska, Hawaii, New Hampshire, Guam, American Samoa, the Northern Mariana Islands and the U.S. Virgin Islands.
- Distance is a problem. It takes more than 30 minutes to drive to an appointment for primary or mental health care, or 60 minutes for specialty care at the VA.
- Time is a problem. The VA can't see you within 20 days for appointments for primary or mental health care or noninstitutional extended care, or within 28 days for specialty care.
- The care you need isn't available at the VA.
- You meet the distance and location provisions outlined in the former Veterans Choice Program. Grandfathered (previously qualified) veterans live 40 miles from care where there was a full-time primary care physician available and are still at the same address.
- It's in the best interest of the veteran to get that civilian care.

If you want care from a community provider, ask your VA primary care provider for a referral to get things started.

If you ever applied to see a civilian doctor and the VA turned you down, you can appeal that decision with the Clinical Appeals process. Contact the patient advocate at the VA health care facility near you.

Rattlesnakes are a risk for pets, but not the only one

DEAR PAW'S CORNER: I moved from a suburb to the mountains a couple of months ago, and while my dogs are thrilled to have several acres to run free on, I'm terrified that they will be bitten by rattlesnakes. A neighbor said that they are plentiful out here. How can I prevent this, and what do I do if they get bitten? — Larry in Tennessee

DEAR LARRY: While there is always a risk of a dog getting injured by something out in the countryside, it's important not to let fear get the best of you. Instead, focus on prevention. Here are some of the things you can do to minimize their overall risk of injury — from snakes and other potential risks.

- Train your dogs to come when you call them; if your property is big enough that they run out of sight, train them to respond to a whistle, which carries much farther.
- Rattlesnakes (and other snakes) hang out in messy debris piles, wood stacks and crevices with overhangs. They stay out of sight (they're much more afraid of you and your dogs) unless they are threatened. Clear debris piles off of your property, and stack your firewood on a raised platform, at least 5 feet from your home's foundation.
- If your dogs consistently run to one location on your property, follow them and find out what's so interesting. An animal lair or deer run can be very interesting to dogs, but the same location can attract bigger predators.
- Consider fencing in a half-acre or acre behind your house and keep your dogs within the fence; you'll be able to monitor them better and control the space, so critters don't come in.

Ginseng

The root of this plant contains ginsenosides, thought to be responsible for the herb's medicinal properties. Made into tablets, capsules, extracts and teas, it is used in traditional medicine to stimulate healing and control various body disorders. Its potential to treat chronic lung infection, glucose maladies and Alzheimer's is being studied. - Brenda Weaver

Moments in time

- On June 23, 1868, Christopher Latham Sholes patented the QWERTY typewriter, the first version of which he constructed using an old table, a circular piece of glass, a telegraph key and piano wire.
- On June 24, 2021, 98 people died when a 12-story, beachfront condominium collapsed in Surfside, Florida, near Miami. Engineers believed the cause of the disaster was a structural column or concrete slab giving way, and workers eventually cleared more than 18 million pounds of concrete and rubble from the site.
- On June 25, 1947, Anne Frank's diary account of her life in hiding during the Holocaust was first published, under the title "Het Achterhuis: Dagboekbrieven 14 Juni 1942–1 Augustus 1944." After reading it her father confessed that the book revealed a side of his daughter he had never known, saying that he "had no idea of the depth of her thoughts and feelings."
- On June 26, 1974, a pack of Wrigley's Juicy Fruit chewing gum became the first grocery item scanned with a Universal Product Code, or UPC, at a supermarket in Troy, Ohio.
- On June 27, 1922, the American Library Association (ALA) awarded the first Newbery Medal, honoring the year's best children's book, to "The Story of Mankind" by Hendrik Willem van Loon.
- On June 28, 1904, Helen Keller, who'd been left deaf and blind since an illness at just 19 months old, graduated cum laude from Radcliffe College in Cambridge, Massachusetts. She was the first deaf-blind person to earn a bachelor's degree. Later, she would also become the first woman to be awarded an honorary degree from Harvard University.
- On June 29, 2003, Katharine Hepburn, a four-time Academy Award winner for Best Actress and one of Hollywood's great screen legends, died of natural causes at the age of 96, at her home in Old Saybrook, Connecticut. In 1999, the American Film Institute had named her the greatest female actress in the history of American cinema, and after her death, the lights on Broadway were dimmed for an hour to mark her passing.

Dr. Salyers named EBCI Honorary Member

Dr. Martha Salyers, MD, MPH, was named an Honorary Member of the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians by Dinilawigi (Tribal Council) during its regular session on Thursday, June 5. The legislation that was passed making the designation states, "Dr. Salyers has brought a lifetime of commitment to public health, with decades of service spanning direct patient care, public health leadership, emergency preparedness, epidemiology, and policy development; and since June 2011, Dr. Salyers has dedicated herself to the Cherokee people, particularly through her work with the Public Health and Human Services Division, where she brought her vast expertise to support and guide transformational efforts in tribal public health. Shown, left to right, front row - Jill Lossiah, Doctor Martha Salyers, Sheena Kanott Lambert; middle row - Robin Callahan, Gretchen McNab, Kimberly Lambert, Mellie Burns; and back row - Mark Tuttle, and Charles "Chuck" Reagan.
